Hollywood

By Edith Gwynn

Maurice Chevalier is asking only $10,000 per week to head a second company of "South Pacific"—playing the role Ezio Pinza sings on Broadway.

Milton Berle, the poor dear, will try to get along on $12,500 a week for his television stints for the next two years—under a brand new deal he just signed.

BERLE

Since Lloyd Binford, the tough and often-thought ridiculous Memphis censor, has okayed "Home of the Brave," that picture (with Negro discrimination for its theme) will now be booked on all major southern circuits and get the same play as any other film. Now that this hurdle has been jumped, look for Metro to put Lena Horne into a full dramatic role one of these days. In the past, some of her singing numbers have been scissored from Metro pictures — south of the Mason-Dixon line, that is.

The only thing holding up "The Life of Caruso," scheduled to star Mario Lanza, is that Jesse Lasky wants full producer rights. Can't blame him. Jesse has spent two years researching material on the late, great tenor and feels entitled to being boss-man on the project—no matter what studio makes it.

Joan Leslie's manager has taken off for England to close a deal with J. Arthur Rank. Rank wants to star Leslie in "Kiss Me Goodnight" which will be made in Britain. After that she's about set to go to South Africa for a diamond-mining story to be filmed in Johannesburg. MGM already has such an opus coming up in "King Solomon's Mines," which will co-star Deborah Kerr and Stewart Granger.

Temperament is flying in all directions on that "Mr. and Mrs. Mel" airer which is to team Helen Traubel and Lauritz Melchoir. Both of 'em want the comedy lines! Anyway, the show is really "up in the air" temporarily.

Dennis Morgan was asked to help several people and organizations during one day and finally exclaimed, "I'm getting Santa Claustrophobia!"

MORGAN

Good news — hearing that the wonderful "Wheelchair Revue" put on by the paraplegics of Birmingham hospital is about to get the necessary financing that would send this wonderful and inspiring spectacle on the road. It would then play not only other hospitals where many a patient would get a necessary lift, but theaters across the land as well.

Susan Hayward and Jesse Barker are shopping for a ranch. Susie's from Brooklyn but the call of the outdoors is very much upon her at the moment.

HAYWARD

Talking with Bob Crosby the other day, someone remarked upon his resemblance to brother Bing. "Yeah," drawled Bob, "the only difference between us is a head of hair and a few million dollars!"

"Kiss for Corliss" has just had its final pat and already Colin Miller is gabbing with Hugh Herbert, who created "Corliss," about a sequel, with virtually the same cast, headed by Shirley Temple. It's to be called "Corliss Goes to Europe."

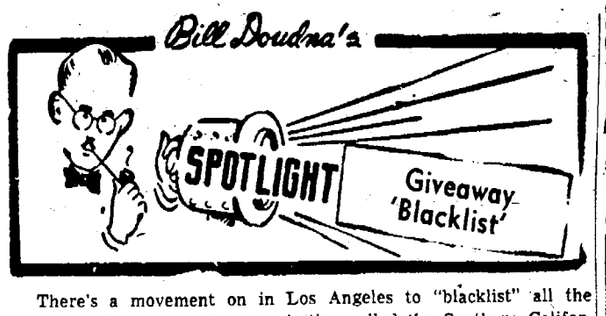
Butter, Cheese Show Production Gain

Milk and cheese production in Wisconsin is up sharply compared to last year, the state-U. S. crop reporting service said Tuesday.

During the first six months of 1949, the service said, Wisconsin butter production was 88 per cent highe. than the same period last year. Cheese output increased 18 per cent.



There's a movement on in Los Angeles to "blacklist" all the giveaway radio shows. An organization called the Southern California Assn. for Better Radio and Television has been formed with Mrs. Clara Logan as president.

She says, "Any broadcasting designed to 'buy' the radio audience by requiring it to listen in the hope of reward rather than for the quality of its entertainment should be blacklisted by radio listeners."

The organization is reported to be looking toward a national organization which could, with proper management, form a threat to the giveaways.

Mrs. Logan pointed out that during one week this summer, $205,000 was disbursed on three radio giveaway shows which "offered nothing in the way of entertainment or creative art. While such exploitation is unfortunate for adults, it is definitely harmful for children" and she is asking parents to protest "vigorously" to radio stations.

RAILROAD FAIR: As the Chicago Railroad fair entered the second half of its 100-day 1949 season this week, it had clicked through its gates 1,261,116 visitors—just over half of the total number of persons who attended the 1948 fair, when 2,500,813 paid admissions were registered.

Of the one-and-one-quarter million persons who have seen the rail show this year, about half—653,770 — have attended the "Wheels a-Rolling" pageant of American transport.

Other principal attractions include the Deadwood Central narrow gauge railroad and its companion Cripple Creek and Tincup, which thus far have carried 603,231 passengers at 10 cents a head; the San Francisco Cable Car, which has taken an estimated 185,000 persons for free rides down and up a lakeside circuit; the Ice Ballet, a free admission presentation which an estimated 600,000 persons have seen; the Cypress Gardens Water Thrill show, which has played already to 187,273 spectators, and the Train of Tomorrow, which has logged 486,484 guests through its ultra-modern interior.

The three railroad diners on the grounds report that their servings for the first half of the fair totaled some 27,500 meals. The Eastern Railroads Vitarama show has been seen by approximately 127,000 persons, while the Indian ceremonial dances have been staged before an estimated 300,000 spectators.

RADIO: Curt Massey will headline a "National Go to Church" program at the Hollywood Bowl early in October.

Although peppered with offers, Bob Hope has made it emphatic that he is going to stay out of television for at least another year.

Elliott Lewis donned grease paint again this week to start his second picture at Universal-International, this time playing a detective in "Ma and Pa Kettle Go to Town." Elliott and his wife, Cathy, wound up work in "The Story of Molly X" last week.

Three sponsors are eyeing Mary and Harry Hickox's "Jump Jump" program, heard only in Los Angeles, as a network show. The show, for children, recently won an award from the California Congress of Parents and Teachers.

Jack (Queen for a Day) Bailey expects to have a film deal set by the end of this month. The Mutual show would be featured.

Hollywood rumors continue strong that Maestro Meredith Willson will do a five-a-week radio series in the Fall. He hops back to Hollywood from New York latter part of the month.

Penny Singleton has turned down an offer to do a television version of "Blondie." She says, "Maybe in a year, but not now."

Wayne Coy, FCC chairman, is expected to resign when he returns to Washington from Europe next month. The rumor is that he wants to duck the TV color tussle due at that time.

Four networks combined have lost only 1.3 percent sponsored time first six months this year in comparison with the same period of 1948. Does that sound like television is making inroads?

The Jack Benny vs. "Holywood Calling" bout for dialers, radio's costliest scrap of the years, enters round one Sept. 11. By then NBC will have expended over $200,000 on its contender with an intensive promotional campaign slated to break nationally early next month. Incidentally, guest film stars on "Hollywood Calling" are balking at 9 to midnight, Friday, plus Sunday rehearsals, for only $1,000.

Not a camera is turning on the Hal Roach lot. That's where there was great activity just a short time ago shooting television shorts.

There's a rush of would-be football announcers in Hollywood here to grab the lush television spots for the approaching season, yet many ask why. Most sponsors are offering the announcers only $25 to $50 per game!
