Sauk City Legion Auxiliary Installs

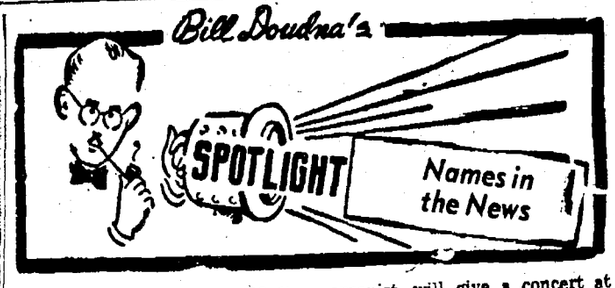
SAUK CITY — Mrs. Earl Mettel succeeded Mrs. Rolf Meyer as president of the Kuoni-Reuter post 167 of the American Legion auxiliary as installation ceremonies were held Thursday night.

Mrs. Adelle Richter, Baraboo Legion auxiliary president, was the installing officer.

Other officers are: Mrs. Charles Ninman, first vice-president; Mrs. Edward Zick, second vice-president; Mrs. William Spellman, treasurer; Mrs. Frank Curtis, historian; Mrs. C. H. Lehman, secretary; Mrs. James Chyska, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Arthur Wedekind and Mrs. John Trueb, color bearers; Mrs. Erva Johnson, chaplain; and Mrs. George Marzolf, pianist.

Tomah Women's Club to Hear Zoning Needs

TOMAH — The need for a zoning ordinance in the city will be discussed by J. M. Albers, Madison, a member of the state planning board, as the Tomah Women's club opens its drive for such an ordinance at a meeting Monday night. Members of various civic groups and the city council have been invited to attend the meeting.



Ruth Pilger Andrews, Madison organist, will give a concert at 8 p. m. Sunday, Oct. 30, in Glenwood Moravian church. Irmie Wolff, soprano, will be assisting artist.

Benjamin Britten, British composer, has arrived in New York for his first concert-recital tour of the U. S. With him is Peter Pears, English tenor who created leading roles in three Britten operas. First recital will be at New York's Town Hall Sunday night. Closest approach to Madison will be Champaign-Urbana, Ill.

Bidu Sayao will introduce "The Children's Letter," based on a school pupil's prayer for peace, in her broadcast on NBC-WIBA Monday night, Oct. 31.

Arturo Toscanini will open the 13th winter season of the NBC Symphony orchestra with broadcasts at 5:30 p. m. next Saturday on WMAQ and at 3 p. m. Sunday, Oct. 30, on WIBA.

Mrs. Thomas R. Ostrom, president of Gamma province of Sigma Alpha Iota, is a guest this week of Rho chapter of the national music fraternity. Her home is at Oak Ridge, Tenn. Active members gave a formal musicale for her at the home of Mrs. R. H. Carpenter, 50 Cambridge rd., Thursday night. Mrs. Ostrom met with alumnae and patronesses at a luncheon in the University club Friday noon. Ruth Kienholz, La Crosse, is president of Rho chapter and Mrs. Carl Engler heads the alumnae group.

Water colors by Prof. Helen Wann Annen, chairman of the University of Wisconsin art education department, are being shown this month at the University of Oklahoma's art museum. She is an Oklahoma graduate and won the Letzeiser Medal of Art while a student there. The current show includes a group painted in Guatemala last year and subsequently shown at Guatemala City and the University of Tennessee, as well as Wisconsin landscapes and scenes at Central City, Colo.

PREMIERE: The current showing of "Chicago Deadline" at the Orpheum is a world premiere, according to Manager Hugh Flannery. The Alan Ladd film has never been shown elsewhere, and will not be screened in other cities until after the Madison run.

HONOR FROM FRANCE: A note from the University of Wisconsin department of French and Italian:

The University of Wisconsin's broadcasting service, Station WHA, has received from the French government a certificate of membership in the International Good Will network, founded in France in April, to promote better international understanding through radio education. Stations honored with membership are chosen on the basis of programs promoting this end, and WHA is honored particularly for its many years of broadcasting a weekly French program. Mlle. Germaine Mercier, assistant professor of French at the university, was recently named Officier d'Academie by the French government in recognition of her work in creating and directing the French program, which has won a number of national and international awards. The certificate of WHA's membership is signed by Wladimir Porche, general director of the French Broadcasting system, and Pierre Creness, director for North America.
