Negro Orphan Climbing Fast by Way of Television

By C. E. BUTTERFIELD

NEW YORK, Oct. 25. (AP) Bright seems the future opened by television for wee Willie Smith, a 17-year-old Negro orphan lad from Asheville, N. C. He already has begun to realize his ambitions.

Being a tap dancer, one ambition was to meet Bill (Bojangles) Robinson, who at 71 years of age still can step a fast foot. This he has done.

Another is to make speed as an entertainer, and to be a good one. That, too, has been given a boost.

Small in stature like Robinson, Willie appeared several weeks ago as a contestant in the Ted Mack amateur hour now on NBC television. He said his expenses to New York were paid from a fund made up by children in the orphanage where he lived.

He won first place three weeks in a row. The climax came on his third appearance. In an emotional greeting by Robinson that brought tears to the principals, to the audience and even to many a home viewer, the veteran dancer offered some sage advice, among which was:

"Manners and behavior can take you where money can't take you, regardless of what color you are, in America. It's not what you do on the stage; it's what you do after you leave the stage."

Willie has returned to Asheville for a visit previous to making another appearance in the amateur hour, this time in the radio version on ABC as it is broadcast Thursday night from St. Louis. Along with other bids, he received an offer of a contract to join the vaudeville troupe of Johnny Coy, a friend of Robinson.

Boradcasts from the annual New York Herald Tribune forum continue tonight under this schedule: MBS, Senators Margaret Chase Smith of Maine, Wayne Morse of Oregon and James Kem of Missouri; ABC, Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusettts.

Also coming up tonight: CBS radio, We the People guests to include Notre Dame's famed "Four Horsemen" of 25 years ago—Don Miller, Harry Stuhldreher, Jim Crowley and Elmer Layden.

ABC—New weekly series, Time for Defense, in co-operation with the Department of Defense; Sec. Louis Johnson, guest speaker, and Salute to 82nd Airborne Division.

Tuning tonight: NBC—Frank Sinatra show; Cavalcade drama; Bob Hope comedy; Fibber and Molly; People Are Funny.

CBS — Mystery Theater; Mr. and Mrs. North; Hit the Jackpot; Claude Thornhill orchestra.

ABC—Counter Spy; America's Town Meeting on the "A-Bomb Problem"; As We See It.

MBS—Count of Monte Cristo; Detective Yarn; Mysterious traveler.

Television: NBC—Milton Berle Show; Life of Riley; Amateur Hour . . . CBS—Suspense drama.

'Edge of Doom' Is Goldwyn's Next

With completion of shooting of Samuel Goldwyn's "With All My Love," the producer will start prepping immediately for his fourth, and last, picture this year, "The Edge of Doom."

"With All My Love" started shooting Aug. 15 with David Miller directing and Ann Blyth, Farley Granger and Joan Evans starred. "The Edge of Doom," a novel by Leo Brady for which Goldwyn paid $150,000, will be piloted by Mark Robson, with Dana Andrews, Granger and Miss Evans starred.

Besides these two films Goldwyn's slate for the year included "Roscanna McCoy" and "My Foolish Heart," Dana Andrews-Susan Hayward starrer soon to be released.

West's Double of Four Hearts Gave South Redouble Contract

By WILLIAM E. McKENNEY

Today's hand, like yesterday's, is taken from Helen Sobel's new book, "All the Tricks!"

One of her stories is about a "Mr. and Mrs." who played against her on today's hand. It was in the early days of the one-over-one system. "In those days," Helen explains, "in order to utilize the one-over-one as often as possible, players were encouraged to bid any four-card suit, no matter how shabby."

her partner went to four hearts,

Miss Sobel sat North. When West "bellowed the double so loud that even his wife had hopes they could beat the contract." South, "undaunted by the vociferous double, redoubled despite his fantastic heart suit."

The Mr. opened the king of spades, which was won in dummy. The Mr's chin dropped a little, because he had been positive that declarer would have to hold the queen of hearts. South led a diamond from dummy, won it with the queen, then led a heart.

After playing about five tricks, he claimed the contract, conceding the ace, king and jack of trumps to the opponents.

Atrocity Film to Be Repeated

Another showing Wednesday night of the U. S. Army's "Nuremberg Trials" film on KTSL was announced today. Telephone and telegram response to the initial showing of the feature, telecast Oct. 12, was so overwhelming that the stationed arranged a repeat showing. This has been assured by Colonel H. J. Matchett, liaison officer for the Public Information Section of the Sixth Army.

Immediately upon its conclusion the telephones were literally swamped with calls from viewers. The majority asked when they might expect another showing, wanting to be certain to have friends see it if possible.

The film incorporates captured Nazi atrocity footage that is luridly gruesome. For that reason a late hour in each instance was selected for showing, to preclude child audiences. It will be shown around 9:30 Wednesday night.

KTSL (Channel 2) is now offering a convenient capsule of the high lights of the nation's weekly collegiate football games. On film from the east comes "Touchdown," a condensation of an average four or five of the liveliest gridiron contests held during the preceding week ends and telecast subsequent Fridays at 8 p. m.

This is the second year for the highly successful "Touchdown" series that offers the most newsworthy games and their key plays.

Top-flight gridiron meets to be covered and their receptive dates of local viewing are: Oct. 20, Holy Cross-Yale, Columbia-Pennsylvania, Minnesota-Ohio State and Michigan-Northwestern; Nov. 4, Dartmouth-Yale, Pittsburgh-Pennsylvania, Columbia-Cornell, Northwestern-Ohio State and Notre Dame-Navy; Nov. 11, Brown-Yale, Purdue-Michigan, Syracuse-Cornell, Wisconsin-Northwestern; Nov. 18, Army-Pennsylvania, Indiana-Michigan, Illinois-Ohio State, Columbia-Navy and Colgate-Northwestern; Nov. 25, Harvard-Yale and Ohio State-Michigan; Dec. 2, Cornell-Pennsylvania and Army-Navy. The games mentioned are those already contracted. Others will be added to fill out the incomplete dates listed above.

Head Code

HOLLYWOOD. Colds made the rounds on the sets of RKO Radio's "Bed of Roses" until Joan Fontaine, Robert Ryan, Zachary Scott, Joan Leslie and Mel Ferrar were all sneezing, sniffing and coughing. Said Scott: "This will mark the first time any cast has sniffled, sneezed and coughed as much as the audience."
