DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

5:30—KFI—"Baby Snooks" is right back in the groove with her "childish" tricks . . . as usual her tirades are directed against the long-suffering "Daddy."

6:30—KNX—"Luigi" finds himself in plenty of trouble when the voting booths are placed in his store on election day . . . his friend, Pasquale, doesn't help matters any when he advises Luigi to do plenty of electioneering, in fact they both land in jail.

7:00—KECA—The exciting adventure related in the "Case of the Sea Snake" is the "Counterspy" episode, in which he smashes a ring of clever diamond smugglers.

8:00—KECA—The story of "Our Private Enemy" . . . the aggressor forces in the recent joint Army-Navy-Marine "invasion" of Hawaii, which has been named "Operation Miki," will be presented on "Time for Defense" tonight.

8:00—KHJ—The "Count of Monte Cristo" gets on the trail of an international conspirator who shows a marked aversion to silver, although he is very fond of all other metals.

Networks Paying Little Heed to Election Tonight

By C. E. BUTTERFIELD

NEW YORK, Nov. 8. (AP) This is election night in some areas, but in view of the local or regional nature of the vote, the networks are not giving it as much attention as are their New York key stations.

For the most part the network returns, both radio and TV, will be confined to the regular news periods with a special added in only an instance or two.

Fanny Brice, who has been away from broadcasting for a year, comes back tonight on NBC for a sponsor. She replaces Me and Janie. Fanny, whose previous series was on CBS, again will have Hanley Stafford as "daddy" to help in her Baby Snooks characterization.

Salute to the kids of the nation in the form of a radio special is in preparation for ABC. It is being presented on behalf of the national kids day foundation under auspices of the Kiwanis clubs. Program guests are to be those stars who also are parents, such as Bing Crosby, Edgar Bergen, Bob Hope and Arthur Godfrey. Harry Von Zell is MC. Date is the night of Nov. 17. . . . Queen For a Day, which has been a 2 p. m. fixture in the MBS matinee schedule five times a week, is being moved to a time a half-hour later next Monday. . . . The NBC Hit Parade sponsor is reported to be looking into the possibility of returning to television. Last year he had a movie series based on famous stories. Now he is checking into an hour drama which would have Robert Montgomery as the lead. At present Montgomery is doing a news commentary on ABC Thursday nights, which this week is changing to an earlier time.

Tuning tonight: NBC—Cavalcade drama, Cary Grant; Bob Hope; Fibber and Molly; People Are Funny.

CBS—Dick Haymes Club; Mystery Theater; Mr. and Mrs. North; Hit the Jackpot.

ABC—Counter Spy; America's Town Meeting "Should Communist Party be Outlawed?" Time for Defense; As We See It.

MBS—Count of Monte Cristo; John Steele Adventurer; Mysterious Traveler.

Television: NBC—Milton Berle Show; Amateur Hour. . . . CBS—Suspense drama.

Leading Correctly Against Doubled Slam Sets Bidder

By WILLIAM E. McKENNEY

I know that a great many of my readers do not like to see just two hands. They want me to give all four hands, but if I did that today I would spoil the whole story in connection with today's hand.

Nate Spinggold told me about today's hand. He wrote it out just as you see it. He then said to me, "What should West lead?"

There are two different conventions with regard to what should be led against a slam bid that has been doubled, namely, the Four Aces Convention and the Lightner Convention. In the middle of the discussion Howard Schenken came in. Several of us, in the meantime, had expressed our opinion as to what should be led. Schenken said, under the Four Aces Convention there was only one lead—a heart.

When East doubled, he asked his partner to lead the first side suit bid by dummy, but dummy in today's hand had bid four no trump. The only side suit that had been bid was hearts, by South, and that was in response to a Blackwood bid.
