On the Air Waves

Eastern Video Networks Concentrate on Saturday

NEW YORK, (AP) Here on the east coast, network program rivalry has switched concentration to television's Saturday night. Three chains are directly concerned, with a fourth sort of standing pat.

This flurry started before Christmas in an A. B. C. announcement that it was turning its schedule into a two-or-three-hour variety cross section of America entertaining on Saturday night. That developed slowly until Dumont came up with a protest over the manner in which, it said, N. B. C. was trying to line up stations.

Because of the limited number of TV transmitters, the tendency has been to affiliate with more than one network. Hence if N. B. C. signed up certain stations for its Saturday night block, Dumont contended that would exclude other chains for the period.

Pending further developments, including revision of the original plan, N. B. C. has been rearranging its list. It has put in a Chicago variety hour, moved in the Mary Kay and Johnny Sketches, added a touring New York series and continued Meet the Press. Late in February it is hoped to shift to the variety show, using Chicago and New York "name talent."

While this was under way, CBS stepped into the picture with the new Ken Murray show, which alternates with Fifty-fourth Street Revue. This hour is followed by Ed Wynn, moved from Thursdays.

Dumont, not to be left behind, has been at work on its schedule, already including a detective drama, the Jack Carter Show and Chicago wrestling. Instead of opening at 8, Dumont now starts at 6:30 with an hour's western movie, an extra half-hour of Capt. Video and a new half-hour remote.

This Is the Vincent Lopez Floor Show, to originate at the New York Hotel where he plays regularly. Guests will be used.

In the changes Dumont is dropping the give-away, spin the picture, which previously had been cut in half to 30 minutes.

The other network, ABC, has been sticking to the operation it put into effect last fall. That includes Hollywood Screen Test, Paul Whiteman's Teenagers and a couple of hours of roller derby.

Attempt to Free U. S. S. Missouri to Be on NBC

NBC will broadcast a description of the Navy's attempts to free the U. S. S. Missouri from the mud of Chesapeake Bay, in a special program, Thursday, from 9:30 to 9:45 a. m. Appropriately enough, the "Big Mo" will come out of its hole (Navy officials hope) on Groundhog Day.

Joel Carlson, program manager for NBC station WTAR, Norfolk, Va., and a group of reporters will board the Navy tugboats engaged in setting free the only active battlewagon in the U. S. Navy. Carlson will interview Navy officials and will record the sounds of the operation.

Carroll Glenn Stars on Standard Hour

Miss Carroll Glenn, whom critics have referred to as "the greatest woman violinist since the great Maude Powell," will be guest soloist on NBC's "Standard Hour," Sunday on NBC at 8:30 p. m.

With Pierre Monteux and the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, Miss Glenn will offer Lalo's "Symphonie Espagnole."

Orchestral selections will include Mozart's "Don Giovanni Overture," selected movements from Grieg's "Peer Gynt Suite," selections from "Symphonie Fantastique" by Berlioz, Lalo's "Symphonie Espagnole" and Wagner's "Rienzi Overture."

Waring to Feature Jerome Kern Medley

A Jerome Kern medley, as a birthday tribute to the late American composer, will be a production high light of KTTV's "Fred Waring Show" Sunday (KTTV, 9-10 p. m.).

Another musical attraction will be a repeat performance of "Cecelia," featuring Daisy and the Dandylions, the first production number presented by The Pennsylvanians on their premiere television program, Easter Sunday, 1948. Other high lights include a "Washboard Blues" dance by Nadine Gae and Peter Hamilton; Jane Wilson soloing "Hymn to the Sun," and Joe Marine singing "Bye Bye Baby."

Careless Opening Lead May Prove Crucial Play of Hand

By WILLIAM E. McKENNEY
Written for N. E. A. Service

The national amateur pair event to a great many players is the most important event in the tournament, especially to those who are playing for the first time in it. You can rest assured that regardless of the number of trophies that Don Kenner and Sten Anderson, both of New York City, win from now on they will always remember winning the national amateur pair event in 1949.

Take, for example, today's hand which was taken from the amateur pair event. If declarer had been careless and won the opening spade lead in his own hand his contract would have been defeated.

The right play was to win the opening lead of the five of spades with dummy's eight spot. The three of clubs was ruffed. The king of spades then played and overtaken with the ace. The four of clubs was ruffed with the ten of spades. The ace and king of hearts were cashed and the four of hearts ruffed with the deuce of spades.

Now the eight of clubs was ruffed with the jack of spades and dummy was entered by playing the seven of spades and overtaken with the nine spot. On the ace of clubs declarer discarded the deuce of diamonds. Then the nine of clubs was played; declarer discarded the six of diamonds. In this manner declarer lost only one diamond trick, making his contract.

Works of Mozart, Debussy Featured

Ernest Ansermet has chosen music of Mozart, Lukas Foss and Debussy for this third concert with the NBC Symphony Orchestra, Saturday, NBC at 3:30 p. m.

The program will open with the "Symphony No. 38 in C Major" by Mozart.

Lukas Foss will be represented by his "Recordare." "Recordare," the composer explains, was started the day of the death of Mohandas K. Gandhi. The title derives from a section of the traditional mass signifying to "record" or "remember."

The program will close with Debussy's "Iberia," one of three "Images" for orchestra.

Murder Mystery on Bay Bridge Is Theme

When a man disappears off the San Francisco Bay Bridge it looks like a clear case of suicide, but Christopher London, the new radio sleuth created by Erle Stanley Gardner, finds that it's more like a case of murder during the "Christopher London" broadcast Sunday on NBC at 4 p. m.

Glenn Ford, who portrays the title role, unravels the mystery after becoming involved in two doublecrosses and learning of the existence of a life insurance policy.
