State Cash Balance Rises to $16,325,959

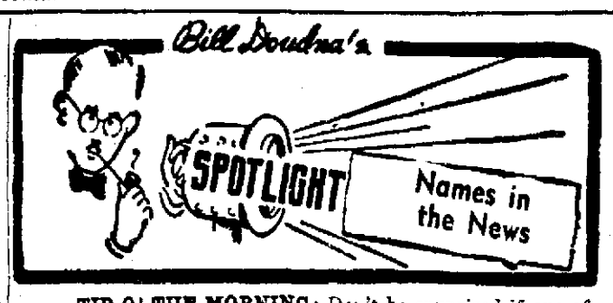
Wisconsin had a cash balance of $16,325,959 on Oct. 1, compared with $14,092,918 a month earlier, State Treasurer Warren Smith reported Tuesday.

The state had receipts of $28,292,147 and disbursements of $26,059,106 in September.

Par value investments aggregated $315,807,744, including $102,968,171 in the teachers' retirement fund.

NO SUCH LUCK

GARY, Ind.—(P)—Such was too much for a would-be robber. When a man approached him from the rear and demanded his money, Albert Such said he turned around and struck him. The robber fled.



TIP O' THE MORNING: Don't be surprised if one of the major record-makers virtually stops producing 78-rpm classics. The industry hears this concern will put almost all on 33⅓ only.

The American Forestry assn.'s award to Wakelin McNeel at Eagle River Tuesday night was in recognition of his radio work as "Ranger Mac" on the Wisconsin School of the Air over WHA and the state radio council network.

Fredrick Buerki and Prof. Richard C. Church will conduct auditions this week for roles in "The Bartered Bride," to be presented by Wisconsin Players and the University of Wisconsin music school. Tryouts will be at 3:30 and 7:30 p. m. today, Thursday, and Friday in the Memorial Union. All students except first-semester freshmen are eligible to try for the 50 to 60 parts.

Robert Petzold, conductor of the Philharmonic chorus of Madison, will conduct the last auditions fo rthe season at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday, Oct. 17, in the City YMCA.

Members of the Philharmonic chorus who will sing for the Marquette Parent-Teacher assn. tonight are Phyllis Benzel, Darlene Burns, Lois Carpenter, Betty Sullver, Ruth Dickert, Mrs. Ruth Foster, Mrs. Ruth Mackle, Donovan Doerfer, Ambrose Landmark, John Cappon, Petzold, and Ansgar Svanoe.

Frank Martin and Barton Yarborough have had their "Hashknife and Sleepy" series renewed by Mutual network for another 13 weeks.

Curt Massey and Martha Tilton will be in Chicago on Oct. 28 to appear at the International Square Dance festival in the Chicago Stadium.

Tex Williams is expected to sign this week for a 15-minute, five-a-week program on NBC.

BADGER SONGS: A book of 20 famous Wisconsin songs has been published by the University of Wisconsin. Titled "Songs to Thee, Wisconsin," it is available at cost to students, alumni, and other Wisconsin residents.

The collection includes special arrangements of such favorites as "On, Wisconsin" and a new Wisconsin ballad, "Wisconsin to the Sky," written by Robert O. Crawford, the Badger alumnus who composed the famous "Air Corps Song."

The book contains a running description of how each song came to be written. First to use the songbook and sing "Wisconsin to the Sky" were Wisconsin weekly newspaper editors meeting on the campus recently.

The songs were selected by students and staff members of the university school of music. Some of the special arrangements were written by Prof. Ray Dvorak, band director, as he lay in a hospital bed recovering from serious train wreck injuries.

A copy of "Songs to Thee, Wisconsin" may be obtained by sending 25 cents to cover the cost of printing and mailing to the University of Wisconsin News service, Observatory Hill Office building, Madison 6, Wis.

Songs in the collection are: "Cheer, Boys, Cheer"; "Cheer for Old Wisconsin"; "Farewell to Thee, Wisconsin"; "Hail, Wisconsin"; "If You Want to Be a Badger"; "My Heart Is in Madison"; "On, Wisconsin"; "Our Dear Alma Mater"; "Pioneers of Wisconsin"; "Reunion at the Union"; "Songs to Thee, Wisconsin"; "University Hymn"; "Valiants of Wisconsin"; "Varsity"; "We'll Cheer for Old Wisconsin"; "Wisconsin Forward Forever"; "Wisconsin's Pride"; "Wisconsin Round"; "Wisconsin to the Sky."

With "On, Wisconsin" are supplied the new words recently added by Carl Beck. "On, Wisconsin" has just been picked by high school band leaders around the country as "one of the six best marching songs ever written."

FILM FARE: Edith Gwynn reports from Hollywood . . .

Metro execs took a big fat look at the just-completed "Mrs. O'Malley and Mr. Malone," found it too, too divine; decided to make a sequel. Therefore, Marjorie Main and James Whitmore will again co-star in its follow-up to go before the cameras in January. No title yet.

A current British movie magazine features a full page picture-story about Evelyn Keyes and her happy marriage to John Huston. Obviously, everyone but the British is fully aware that these two were divorced last year and that Huston has since remarried (Ricky Soma) and become a poppa.

Greta Gynt, the London lass rated as a swell gal by many we know, arrives momentarily for the femme lead with David Niven, Stewart Granger, Walter Pidgeon, et al. in "Soldiers Three." Niven's return to Filmtown is cause for a few thousand celebrations in itself.

George Sanders and spouse, Zaza Gabor, are thinking out loud about moving to NY permanently.

Rick Jason furnishes a new face to take a place among the topliners. He hails from the Broadway stage, made a test for one of the leads in "The Brave Bulls" but lost out. Now he's been handed the male lead in "Two of A Kind" that Bill Dorier produces at Columbia pronto. Fast going.

Dorothy Jenkins, who won an award for designing—clothes, that is—is dreaming up costumes for "King Lear" in which Louie Calhern will star.

Arlene Dahl and Lex Barker are plotting their "I do's" for a Paris wedding before the snow flies.

NOTE OF IRONY: James Roach played the bagpipes in the Broadway production of "Brigadoon" for two years. When he was taken to Cleveland for the "Theatre Guild on the Air" broacast of the musical, John was excited about playing in full kiltie regalia, for the audience of 10,000. The volume of the pipes was so great, however, that Roach had to play from a dressing room backstage, and the audience never saw him.
