Geographer to Talk at U. W. Thursday

A geographer who was a visiting lecturer last year at the University of Wisconsin will return Thursday to lecture on "The Ruhr: An Economic and Political Problem."

He is Norman Pounds, former Cambridge university professor, now at Indiana university. His lecture at 4:30 p.m. in 119 Science hall is sponsored by the university department of geography and committee on lectures and convocations and is open to the public without charge.

Ex-Madison Soldier Awarded Bronze Star

Pfc. Richard H. Brussow, 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brussow, former Madison residents, has been awarded the Bronze Star for valor in action in the Korean fighting, relatives here learned Friday.

Brussow was one of 14 men of the 24th infantry division who received the award for bravery. He previously was reported missing in action.

Brussow graduated from East high school in 1948 and enlisted in the army soon afterward. His parents moved to Ft. Worth, Tex., several months ago. Mr. Brussow is custodian at Arlington Heights high school, Ft. Worth.

Young Brussow's half-brother, James F., is with the marine corps in the Korea theater.

You know
Glenn Davis
as our Congressman!
You know Glenn Davis as a leader! Would you like to know Glenn Davis as the young man — as the brilliant student — as the engaging, ambitious youth?
Then hear
MRS. WALTER BARR
2628 Major Ave.,
on WIBA at 6:40 p.m.
Saturday, November 4
who knew him when!
She tells us:
"he never side-stepped a responsibility."
"his capacity for work is equal only to his capacity for making friends."
Be PROUD that you live in Wisconsin and have such representation in Washington as Glenn Davis.
Send Him There Again!
VOTE REPUBLICAN!
(Paid for and authorized by the Dane County Women's Republican Club, Mrs. Foster E. Blackburn, Pres.)

TIP O' THE MORNING: Because it is affiliated with both ABC and Mutual, WISC will carry Pres. Truman's address twice tonight. It will be broadcast through one network at 9, the other at 10:30.

A poll of readers of the Saturday Review of Literature revealed that NBC's "Great Artists" is their favorite program. Others, in order, are "Theater Guild of the Air," NBC Symphony, New York Philharmonic-Symphony, "Town Meeting of the Air," Groucho Marx, "Invitation to Learning," Metropolitan operas, NBC's Monday night "Concert Hour," and "NBC Theater."

Eve Arden, who plays "Our Miss Brooks" on CBS, has been named Hollywood radio representative for American Education Week by the California Teachers assn.'s southern section.

A reminder: "Masterpieces of Art from Vienna" will be at the Chicago Art Institute from Nov. 9 through Jan. 18.

The Democratic party will spend about $50,000 for broadcasting Pres. Truman's address tonight.

Cy Howard (ex-UW), producer of "My Friend Irma," is recuperating at Palm Springs from virus pneumonia.

At Appleton, Lawrence college's "Artist Series" will present Alec Templeton, Nov. 10; Ossy Renardy, Dec. 15; Igor Gorin, Jan. 19; Galdys Brainard, Feb. 20; Mia Slavenska's Ballet Variante, Mar. 14, and the Lawrence College choir, Apr. 9.

In addition, the Lawrence choir will sing "The Messiah" Dec. 3 and the Lawrence College Theater players will do "Hedda Gabler" Nov. 16-18.

Pete Smith, M-G-M narrator-producer, is seeking the names of possible candidates for a new short subject series called "Kids in Sports." Boys and girls must be 14 years of age or under, and proficient in sports, golf, billiards, bowling, tennis, or diving. Names should be sent direct to Smith, M-G-M Studios, Culver City, Calif.

While in recent years Smith has included many other subjects in his productions, for 17 years he has made many films on sports. His "Football Thrills", for example, is now in its 13th season. It epitomizes in August each year the thrill highlights of the previous grid season.

Vote Early Tuesday, City Clerk Urges

City Clerk A. W. Bareis urged all Madison voters Friday to plan their trips to the polls Tuesday during the forenoon or early afternoon if possible.

"Anyone who waits until 6:30 p. m. or later most surely will have to stand in line," he warned.

A record registration and other indications point to an all-time record vote in the city, Bareis said.

"Those who do their voting in the quiet, earlier hours will find it easier and much more convenient and pleasurable," he declared.

Lions Club to Hold Ladies' Night Thursday

The Madison Lions club will hold its first ladies' night of the year at 6:15 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 9, at the Park hotel.

Members of other Madison district clubs and their wives will be guests at the "fellowship" gathering, William C. Goebel, Madison Lions president, has announced.

Optimists to Hear Carson Gully Monday

Carson Gulley, senior chef in the division of residence halls at the University of Wisconsin, will discuss "Seasoning Secrets" at a meeting of the Optimist club of Madison at 12 noon Monday at the city YMCA.

SUFFERS LEG CUT

Kay McKinlay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John D. D. McKinlay, 2404 Truax Field, was treated at St. Mary's hospital Thursday night for a leg cut suffered when she dropped and smashed a gallon milk bottle which she tried to put into a refrigerator.
