Boy Fatally Stabbed, L. A. Girl Wounded

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 23. (AP) A 14-year-old boy was stabbed to death and a girl was wounded, police reported, in a fracas at a pre-Christmas party on the east side last night.

The dead youth was Sebastian Avila. The injured girl is Esperanza Sierra, 16.

Police said an unidentified man, ejected from the party, returned to the scene, wielding a knife.

Christmas Tree Lane Open Tomorrow Night

The following programs are compiled from reports provided by the broadcasters. No responsibility assumed for last-minute changes which sometimes are made.

DIAL LITES — TONIGHT

6:30—KNX—Lucille Ball, as Liz Cooper, and her chum, Iris, decide to crash a stag party so they can check on their husbands, who claim that the party is given to aid indigent newsboys . . . and they learn that this is the truth for once! It's "My Favorite Husband."

7:30—KFI—Singing star Red Foley will turn the spotlight on his three daughters in a Christmas feature on "Grand Ole Opry" tonight.

8:30—KFI—Ken Thurston (Herbert Marshall) as "The Man Called X" crashes while flying over Trans-Jordan, and when he revives, a strange child is present to relate a very strange tale.

10:30—KECA—Hugh Baillie, president of the United Press and one of the world's most astute reporters, will report to the nation on his three-month news-gathering trip through Korea, Tokyo and Europe, on this special broadcast.

TELE-TIPS

7:00—KTLA—Christmas cards that go up in smoke are scheduled to be shown by Col. Tim McCoy tonight. The American Indian sent his greeting during the holiday season via smoke signals . . . and this method will be demonstrated.

8:00—KNBH—Edward Arnold, Melvyn Douglas and Martha Wright will comprise the guest talent on the "Saturday Night Revue."

8:00—KECA—It's "Movie Night" on this channel, with five hours of flickers! The pictures are: "Brief Ecstasy," "Secret of Cavermoor Castle," "That Gang of Mine" and last, your bedtime western, "No Man's Range."

8:00—KTTV—Screen star Diana Lynn tops a roster of outstanding guests on KTTV's "Ken Murray Show."
