Pro-Western Premier Confirmed in Iran

TEHRAN, Iran —(U.P.)— Hussein Ala Pasha, a strong friend of the Western powers, was confirmed as premier-elect of Iran Monday over Soviet-bloc opposition in the majlis (parliament) and national front deputies walked out of the chamber in protest.

The national front includes pro-Soviet elements and extreme nationalists.

The former ambassador to the United States and Britain, who was approved by the senate Sunday, was confirmed by the lower chamber 69 to 27 with 10 abstentions. He was approved unanimously by the upper house.

State Officials Attend Atom Attack Exercise

PHILADELPHIA —(UP)— Adj. Gen. Ralph Olson and other Wisconsin civil defense directors attended the beginning of a three-day atomic attack problem here Monday.

Olson said the exercise will stress the need for closely coordinated mobile support units. One mobile support unit already is formed and two others are being planned in Wisconsin.

Neopit Man Denied Slaying of Wife

MILWAUKEE —(AP)— William Sackatook, 43, Neopit, pleaded innocent in federal court Monday on a charge of second degree murder in the fatal shooting of his wife, Madeline, last Nov. 10.

Sackatook, a Menominee Indian, was indicted by a federal grand jury because the shooting took place on the tribe's reservation.

Atty. William Quick, Green Bay, waived a jury trial and told the court he would ask for a psychiatric examination and would argue Sackatook's intent. He asked for an early trial, but Judge Robert E. Tehan did not set a date.

Mrs. Sackatook was shot at her home with a 12-gauge shotgun. Testimony at a preliminary hearing in Green Bay Nov. 17 revealed her body was found in bed, the upper part of the head blown off.

Sackatook is being held without bond in the county jail.

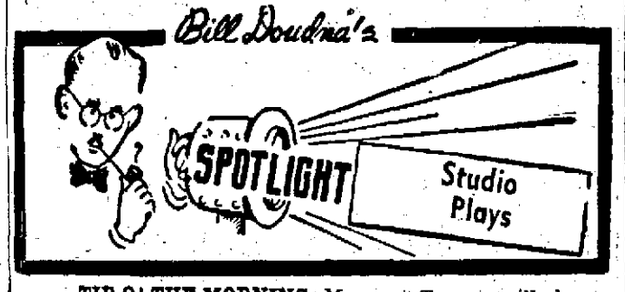
WEDNESDAY—"BORN TO BE BAD" and "GILDA"



TIP O' THE MORNING: Margaret Truman will play a straight dramatic role—no singing—in a "Screen Directors' Playhouse" broadcast on NBC-WIBA next month.

* * *

One of Eugene O'Neill's earliest plays, "Where the Cross Is Made," and Tennessee Williams' only drama in verse, "The Purification," will be among the one-act plays which Wisconsin Players and the Wisconsin Union theater committee will present today and Wednesday in the Play Circle.

The third will be "The No 'Count Boy," by Paul Green.

Curtain time will be 8 tonight, 3:30 and 8 p. m. Wednesday.

Erik Bye, grad student from Norstrand, Norway, will play the lead in "Where the Cross Is Made." He was seen as Peer in "Peer Gynt," last year and as the Fourth Tempter in the recent Wisconsin Players' production of "Murder in the Cathedral." Donald Robinson, grad student in speech from Monticello, who recently appeared in "The Shepherds" and as the Third Knight in "Murder in the Cathedral," also has a role in the play.

Others in "Where the Cross Is Made" are Catherine Einum, sophomore from Rice Lake; Fred Koenig, grad student from St. Louis, Mo.; William Johnson, sophomore from Charleston, W. Va.; Frederick Brown, freshman from Madison, and Richard Scheuermann, freshman from Oshkosh. Charles Webster, a senior in speech from Madison, will direct the play.

Barbara Mayer, freshman from Washington, D. C.; Lois Miller, junior from McFarland who was in "Murder in the Cathedral;" and Richard Hodgsen, freshman from Rice Lake. Art Ace, senior in education from Oregon, directs "The Purification," and Luette Freeman, senior in speech from Toledo, Ohio, is assistant director.

"The No 'Count Boy" is directed by Fannie Bennett, senior in speech from Milwaukee, assisted by Barbara Feigin, sophomore from Brooklyn, N. Y. Jonas Waits, education grad student from Jackson, Miss., is assisting in direction of the music.

Members of the cast are Samuel Greenlee, junior from Chicago; Dwight Wilson, freshman from Milwaukee; and Geraldine Riley, junior from Milwaukee.

MAIL BAG: "We subscribed for your paper especially for the radio program. In yesterday's (Thursday) paper under 'drama' we expected to find the name of the play on 'Screen Directors' Playhouse,' but it wasn't mentioned.

"When the program came on we found it was a very good movie story, 'Bachelor Mother,' which we had seen and wouldn't miss hearing. They had two wonderful people in it, Lucille Ball and Robert Cummings.

"I wish you would give the names of the plays and the casts of all the good plays."—Mrs. Casper Wiegel, Darlington.

We always print this information when we have it. Last week, the network sent no information on "Screen Directors' Playhouse;" in fact, one of the stations broadcasting it didn't know until air-time what the play would be. When we have the details by deadline, we'll pass it on.

'BEST' PICTURES: Here's one reason The State Journal doesn't go in for listing the "best" movies of the year:

The Motion Picture assn. has compiled a list of the "best" pictures of 1950 as chosen 21 different sets of selections by critics, periodicals, and reviewing groups.

Out of about 465 features shown last year, 66 of them won citations as "best" films—one out of every seven!

Who says "you can't please everybody"?

FAVORITE TUNES: Here's the weekly list of Madison's "10 top tunes," compiled by Bob Culp of WFOW on the basis of most-requested selections on talk-back phonographs:

ONE. "Would I Love You?"
TWO. "By My Love."
THREE. "If."
FOUR. "My Heart Cries for You."
FIVE. "Aba Daba Honeymoon."
SIX. "Mocking Bird Hill."
SEVEN. "Tennessee Waltz."
EIGHT. "The Roving Kind."
NINE. "A Penny a Kiss."
TEN. "You're Just in Love."

THEATER GUILD TO MEET

A "work night" will be held by the Madison Theater Guild at 7:45 tonight in the Community Center library. Pres. John C. Sammis has asked members to take pen and ink for "a large addressing job."
