LOOKING AND LISTENING

Long Beach Will Be Host to Children's TV Show

By TOM DAWSON

NEXT SATURDAY Long Beach will be the scene of plenty of yougster activity, when the KNBH television show, "Komedy Klub" gives a free show for the kiddies at the Fox West Coast Theater.

High lighting the program will be a 70-piece band in a parade formation, with "hizzoner," the mayor, leading the procession. This information has come directly from Phil Berle, (brother of Milton Berle) who is the director of the "Komedy Klub."

The history of this show is very interesting. It all started about eight weeks ago when the program director of KNBH needed something for fill in time. They decided to use old time comedies. The show fell flat! There was nothing too interesting to adults in these "flickers" and most of the youngsters were Autry and "Hoppy" fans. Along came Arch Presby, an ambitious young fellow who is with NBC as a staff announcer. He proposed giving out membership cards, and appear on the show "live" before each film showing. He titled himself as "Uncle Archie" and announced that a club would be formed for this show. Better than 1300 letters requesting cards came after the first week, and to date there are 16,000 kid members.

With the youngsters . . . it's something for free . . . even if it's just a piece of cardboard with printing on it . . . but to them . . . it's their very own club!

In Hollywood, over 2400 attended the first free show of the "Komedy Klub" at the Hollywood Pantages Theater, and now, next Saturday, Long Beach hosts the second.

DOWN TV-RADIO ROW . . . Tomorrow on the Bob Crosby "Club 15" show, the name of the new singer will be announced. She is from Canada, and is visiting Hollywood for the first time. Her first name is supposed to be Giselle . . . but when the boys at CBS were asked for further information, they shut up like clams . . . NBC started yesterday laying the plans for one of the most extensive and colossal celebrations in their history . . . their 25th anniversary, for this fall . . . The rumor that Marie Wilson would enter television with her own show soon in the "My Friend Irma" series is no longer a rumor, she will audition the first of the series in about 30 days . . . Frank Goss, veteran newscaster and announcer is troubled with iodine and band-aiditis — he has been overdoing the shovel work connected with the planting of new trees, and "mister blister" hit him on both hands.

DIALAFFS . . . During a warm-up on the Art Linkletter show the other night:

Little boy—Mommy, is it true we are dust before we are born and turn to dust after we die?

Mother—Yes, darling, it is.

Boy—Well, you better come up and look under my bed—somebody is either coming or going!

ON AIR TODAY—Sen. Robert A. Taft (R.-Ohio) and Hanson Boldwin, military editor of the New York Times, will discuss the question, "How Can We Best Defend America?" during "Chicago Round Table," KFI at 10:30 . . . Yippee!! "Wild Bill Hickock" rides again! Both on radio and TV, for at 1, from KHJ, the radio version debuts, and tonight at 7, from KTL. (5) these colorful adventures come to life . . . President James B. Connant of Harvard University and Edward R. Murrow of CBS, will discuss "Your Son and Universal Military Service," during a special broadcast from KNX at 2:30 . . . The finals of the Masters Golf Tournament from Atlanta, Ga., will be aired by KECA at 3:30.
