Noted Psychiatrist Lauds American Legion's Work to Boost Child Welfare

IN THE development of child welfare programs, the American Legion has a glorious history but has also a tremendous present and future obligation, Dr. H. E. Chamberlain, internationally known child psychiatrist, told a meeting of the 19th District Child Welfare Commission of the American Legion last night in Dominguez Community Building.

Violet Miller, district child welfare chairman, presided, and Emerson Miller, a past district commander, acted as master of ceremonies.

Dr. Chamberlain praised the work of the commission, which he termed a progressive organization. He stressed the need for adult leadership and kindness to encourage youth in democratic living. He discussed the psychology of peace and war and of many phases of modern living and their bearing upon developing young men and women.

Rev. Tom Grice, a past national chaplain of the American Legion, deplored the lack of contact between modern youth and religion, urging intensified religious training.

Entertainment included Miss Betty Blake, soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Hunt; the Alamitos Bay Post barbershop quartet, and Tony Capoech, veteran radio entertainer and philosopher.

The meeting attracted a number of national, departmental, county council and district officers. Among them were Harmon Gum of Long Beach, member of the national child welfare commission; Kendrick Smith, child welfare chairman; Henry Wilson, commander, and Ruth Blake, president of the 19th District American Legion and Auxillary, respectively; John G. Pennington, department child welfare chairman of the Forty and Eight; Juanita McKay, who serves in like capacity for the Eight and Forty, and Claude Buzard, Legion County Council commander.

News of Military Advisory Mission Cheers Formosa

TAIPEH, Formosa, April 21. (AP) Nationalist China today formally approved appointment of a U. S. military assistance advisory group in Formosa.

Negotiations have been under way for several months.

Foreign Minister George Yeh said the mission—to be known as MAAG—probably will start operating early next month.

The news was received with obvious joy by the public. Newspapers printed extra editions which were bought up as fast as they hit the street. The move brought new hope and heart to Nationalist China.

While its purpose ostensibly is to assist in safeguarding Formosa, no one here ignores the possibility that the arms being furnished may be used eventually for an invasion of the Communist mainland.

Observers said the mission's appointment marks the complete reversal in U. S. policy since July, 1949. The white paper issued at that time virtually wrote off Chiang Kai-shek's government.

The mission appears to be an indirect result of the work of a survey mission which Gen. Douglas MacArthur sent to Formosa after his visit here last summer.

Four-power Envoys Remain Deadlocked

PARIS, April 21. (AP) The four-power deputies ended their seventh week of talks today, still deadlocked in their attempts to draw up an agenda for a foreign ministers' conference.

Western spokesmen said that there was no new development at today's meeting, their 35th since March 5.

Portuguese to Dine in Westminster Church

People of Portugese lineage from a wide area will gather Sunday in Westminster at the Blessed Sacrament Church for special services and a dinner in observance of St. Sebastian's Day. A solemn high mass will be celebrated at 10 a. m., followed by a procession, which last year numbered several hundred persons. A public roast beef dinner will be served from noon to 8 p. m.

St. Sebastian is the patron saint of the Azores and Portugal. Southland dairymen, in particular, gather in Westminster for the ceremony, according to Rev. Robert Ross, S.S.C., pastor of the Blessed Sacramento Church. In connection with the observance, contributions are made to the church annually through the sale of calves donated by the Portugese. Calves were sold this week at the Cypress auction grounds.

Ex-aide to Czar Dies in Exile

TONBRIDGE, England, April 21. (AP) Prince Serge Belosselsky-Belozersky, one-time Cossack general and aide-de-camp to the last Russian czar, died here yesterday.

Belosselsky-Belozersky, who fled from a vast estate in the Russian revolution in 1917, lived out his exile in a tiny flat over a shop.

Injured in Crash

Treated for facial lacerations yesterday afternoon in San Pedro was Millard L. Wood, 47, of 1007 E. 10th St., whose auto rammed into a concrete guard rail on Signal St., east of Harbor Blvd. He was treated for the slight cuts in San Pedro Receiving Hospital.

Port Courtesy Given Cruiser at Pause Here

Courtesy of the port was extended to the USS Los Angeles as that heavy cruiser late yesterday arrived at Long Beach's Berth A-7 for the week end. W. R. Martin, president of the Harbor Commission, extended a welcome to Capt. R. N. McFarlane, commander of the ship, and his 1275 officers and men.

The Los Angeles will return to sea Monday to resume shakedown-training runs and return here next Friday for the week end, after which she will go to the Naval Shipyard, Long Beach, to remain until about May 10, after which she will join the Pacific Fleet.

Los Angeles city officials and civic leaders said they have planned a "rousing sendoff" when the great cruiser sails for war action in Korean waters.

More than a score of affairs were arranged this week end for the ship's sailors, according to President Fred W. Walker Jr. of the Los Angeles Junior Chamber of Commerce, chairman for entertainment.

This afternoon, the sailors have been invited to the SC-Michigan-Illinois joint track meet, to the Hollywood Stars-Los Angeles baseball game to the four Sportsmen's Shows going on in the city today and tomorrow, the USO dance at the Hollywood Assistance League tonight.

More than 500 radio and television show tickets have been distributed among the ship's personnel and tours have been provided for the men, the majority of whom are easterners.

All-Year Club Girls on Long Beach Tour

Ruth Harcourt, manager of the information department of the All-Year Club of California offices in Los Angeles, and Jean Ostrender, a Welcomette in the department, will complete a two-day tour of Long Beach today as guests of the Chamber of Commerce.

The other two members of the staff were entertained here last week end by the tourist committee of the chamber. Aim of the visits is to familiarize the Welcomettes with the tourist and recreational facilities of Long Beach.

1000 Mexicans, With Children, to Be Wed

MEXICO CITY, April 20. (UP) One thousand couples, most of them with large families, will be married here May 10.

The mass marriage, sponsored by federal, district authorities, will legalize common-law relationships existing in many cases since the Mexican revolution.

The ceremony also will award legal legitimacy to the children of all the couples.

SUN ON WAY

Start Digging Out Sunglasses

Maybe it's being a little optimistic, but if you have a pair of sunglasses stashed away, better start digging them out.

The weatherman says it's going to be sunny tomorrow afternoon. Slightly warmer weather also is forecast with the high in the low 70's.

High-low temperature readings here yesterday were 65-57.

Sickness Forces Pastor's Return

Going from sea level to the mile-high altitude of Boulder, Colo., proved too much for Dr. Raymond I. Brahms, former pastor of Laguna Beach Community Presbyterian Church, and he was ordered to return to Laguna by his physician with the admonition "to do absolutely nothing for three or more months."

Dr. Brahms resigned his pastorate at Laguna in February, 1949, to accept the call from First Presbyterian Church, Boulder, adjacent to the University of Colorado. He was granted leave of absence for six months, and with Mrs. Brahms and their youngest son, are residing with her mother at 474 Aster St.

Dr. Brahms came to Laguna Beach following his graduation from Princeton Seminary in 1925 and under his guidance the church membership grew from 25 to 735.

Rev. H. P. Softley Appointed Vicar

Rev. Henry F. Softley, rector of St. Mark's Episcopal Church at Downey, has been appointed vicar to Bishop F. Erie Bloy in South Pasadena.

Mr. Softley has been at St. Mark's for the past two years.

Rev. Romeo C. Gould, former rector at St. Mark's, temporarily will serve the church until a rector is chosen.

St. Mark's will celebrate its third anniversary Wednesday night with a supper in the parish hall. Rev. Ward DeBeck of St. James-by-the-Sea Church, La Jolla, will be speaker.

Motorist Scorched

It was a mistake to take the cap off the overheated radiator of his car this morning, Glen F. Klinger, 23, of Hermosa Beach, painfully learned.

Klinger pulled into a gas station at Pacific Coast Hwy. and Walnut Ave. to put more water in the radiator. When the cap was removed hot water spouted.

Klinger was treated at Seaside Hospital for first-degree burns and then was released.

Templars Install, L. B. Man Presides

James F. Dougan of Long Beach, as retiring grand commander of Knights Templar of California, presided last night in San Francisco when William E. Waste of San Francisco was elevated to the top post.

Dougan, superintendent of the Press-Telegram press room, closed an active year as grand commander. Waste is vice president of the Bechtel Corp.

Sacramento was chosen as the 1952 grand conclave city. Other officers installed included John R. Moore, Glendale, grand generalissimo; Glenn W. Gurtner, Santa Monica, grand junior warden, and Rev. Donald H. Tippitt, Los Angeles, grand prelate.

Magnolia Pier Dedication, Boat Service May 30

Magnolia Ave. Pier will be dedicated by the city May 30, the same day that the three-year permit to the Inland Boat Co. for operation of boats from the pier becomes effective, it has been decided by the City Council.

A spokesman for the company today predicted that at least $200,000 worth of business would be done from boat operations during the last seven months of the year.

The permit fee to the city in that case would be approximately $12,000.

'Bad Smelling' Thief Hunted by Police

Police today are looking for a thief who literally "smells bad."

Frank P. Cross, 86, of 1034-B Cedar Ave., who is blind, told police he was in bed last night listening to the radio when he heard something that wasn't scheduled on the program.

It was the sound of a bureau drawer being opened. He also got a pungent whiff of "moldy clothes," according to police reports. Then the intruder left.

A relative, checking, found that a box containing $115 was missing.

Baby in Storeroom Released to Mother

Juvenile authorities late yesterday released an infant boy, less than three months old, to the custody of his mother, Mrs. Katherine Adams, 19, of Los Angeles.

The baby had been taken to Seaside Hospital for care yesterday after authorities found him in a storeroom about 100 yards from a cafe operated by a Long Beach couple who had been taking care of him.
