LOOKING AND LISTENING

Jeanne Gray's New Video Show Proves Different

By TOM DANSON

ONE of the first ladies of radio made her KTSL television debut recently with a new type of woman's program that does away with the old pot and pan—two can live as cheaply as four—routine, so overplayed on the feminine interest shows in the past. It's the Jeanne Gray show.

I had the pleasure of appearing with Jeanne on one of her shows last week, observing her style of presentation, grace in handling of guests, and general all around charm, which would make the Tviewer feel at home with the show. She loads her half-hour daily program with things of contemporary interest to women, not only in the home-making and beauty fields, but more important in business, entertainment and the professions.

Her idea is based on the belief that women most of all, want to be intelligent and beautiful, but rather than dwell upon accomplishing this, Mrs. Housewife prefers to spend her leisure time learning and seeing what goes on in the world. One full week of Jeanne's show brings to the audience a complete variety of guests. "My Day" with Jeanne brought a very interesting Czechoslovakian painter in oils and the beautiful young actress, Vanessa Brown, with whom I was "co-starred."

Miss Gray has appeared in Broadway stage productions, motion pictures, and has done much lecturing. A near native daughter, she came to Los Angeles from Seattle, Washington, at the age of seven. She took all of her schooling here and was graduated from Hollywood High School as a drama major.

Brown-eyed Jeanne is the proud mother of a son, Gregory.

DOWN TV-RADIO ROW . . . KTLA's Dick Lane has two names. For TV, it is Dick Lane and in the movies, it is Richard Lane . . . Bill Henry, Mutual's Washington correspondent, urges the ending of the major league baseball season right now! Bill, who has been a Senator fan for years, watched the lowly "Nats" dump the champion N. Y. Yankees in both ends of a double header. He penned a note to the Don Lee news department along with the banner headline story from the newspapers announcing the Senators' twin killing, saying . . . "This is sheer madness. Let's end the season now while we've won it!" . . . The fight was on again between several TV stations to "outscoop" each other on last Sunday's Marine First Division return. Times changed three times . . . and the complements of cameras grew from three—to six!

ON TV . . . "Hollywood Screen Test," celebrating its third anniversary tonight, presents Bruce Cabot as the guiding guestar to candidate Ursula Howells, in a TV scene from "Jane Eyre" from KECA (7) at 7 . . . A psychological drama that deals with a young Marine who develops amnesia on his way home from the South Pacific, is the plot of "Movie Theatre" on KTLA (5) at 7:30 . . . The postponed game of "Batter Up" from last week between the L. A. water division and the electric power division, will be played tonight on KTTV (11) at 7:30 . . . Jackie Cooper and Mildred Natwick star in "The Meeting" during the "Suspense" story on KTSL (2) at 9:30 . . . The light blue of Columbia will have to be in the pink to get their dates tonight as they vie for honors against pre-meds from Johns Hopkins during "Blind Date," KECA (7) at 10.

ON RADIO . . . Ralph Edwards will have the spotlight on "Grandma Hush" tonight as his "Truth or Consequences" is aired from KNX at 6:30 . . . Fibber McGee tries to open a bureau to certify hitchhikers and involves almost half the city government and police department during his show with Molly at 6:30 from KFI . . . With Charles Coburn as narrator-host, the story of the Oregon territory settlement, is slated for "Song of Liberty" on KHJ at 8 . . . Robert Montgomery will star in the dramatic story of Eddie Rickenbacker's 23 days aboard a rubber raft in the Pacific during "Cavalcade of America" on KFI at 8:30 . . . It all seemed to be a jest when a pretty young girl told her friend that she wanted to use her as an alibi . . . But "Official Detective" proves differently on KHJ at 9:30 . . . The Kentucky Derby trials are to be aired tonight on KNX at 11:45.

Hi! Pimples
That's What They Called Him
Don't let externally-caused Pimples, Acne ruin your appearance and happiness another day without trying Amazing New Guise Ointment.
This new wonder-working formula is not only designed to give quick relief to Pimple and Acne sufferers but you will find it has a delightful, flesh tinted base that forms a thin mask over the lesions when applied.
Usually this virtue alone will allow you to join the others immediately without embarrassment while Guise is helping to heal these unsightly blemishes.
Now here is our iron-clad guarantee to you. Get a tube of Guise Ointment today—use as directed and if you are not delightfully surprised with the very application your money will be cheerfully refunded in full. That's fair, isn't it?
THIS COUPON WORTH 25c

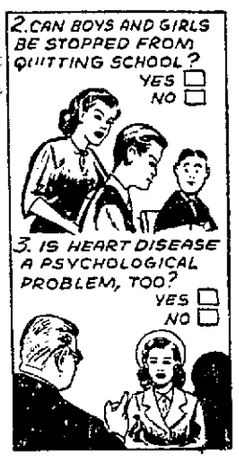
Let's Explore Your Mind

By ALBERT EDWARD WIGGAM, D. Sc.



Answer to Question No. 1

No. A study of the anger of 200 men and women shows that the average man gets hopping mad six times a week; women three times. Bless their sweet, gentle souls! What makes women seem closer to the angels is that they have us ornery, cantankerous, aggressive (the educated name for bull-headed), men to get mad at. Other studies indicate women tend to have more patience with hardship, deprivation and misfortune than men. Women are a wonderful female sex.

Answer to Question No. 2

Yes. They stop them in Denver high schools, according to Blake Clark in a leading magazine. The average for the U. S. is 30 dropouts in 100. In Denver it is 9 in 100. Why? Because they teach things the students will need and use in later life. Each teacher has 30 boys and girls whom she follows through the four years. Make pupils see that school helps in life and they'll stick.

Answer to Question No. 3

Yes. People push themselves too hard. They worry. They never learn motion study—the easy way to do things. They don't watch their diet. They won't get a check-up at least once a year. Lastly, they've never learned the art and science of relaxation. Our 15c non-profit booklet, "Relaxation" tells how. Send 10c to American Heart Association, 1775 Broadway, New York, for a non-profit booklet, "The Heart of the Home." Save your heart and live to a good old age.
