ROCKY CLARK'S LISTENING POST

Johnny Olsen, genial host of WNAB-ABC's weekday "Luncheon Club", is celebrating 25 years in show business this week, with special features scheduled for his daily broadcasts at noon. ABC president Robert Kintner will be on tomorrow's program to pay the network's respects to Olsen who made his first broadcast over a homemade transmitter in Windom, Minn., when he was 14.

Excerpts from some of his most popular broadcasts will be heard on Tuesday's show, including recorded spots from the days when he was the "sensational" 17-year-old "Buttermilk Kid" on Wisconsin stations. Toni Arden will be a guest on the program.

Evelyn Knight will drop in on Wednesday's show: Jack Smart, "The Fat Man," Thursday, and a flock of guests Friday, including Robert Alda, Signe Hasso, Arch Oboler, Ralph Flanagan, Freddie Martin, Tito Guizar, Andy and Della Russell, Harry Wismer and Jimmy Wakely.

FAIRFIELD U. PROGRAM

Francis Geflein of the English department, will speak on "Morality in the Armed Forces" during the weekly "Fairfield University Interprets the News" broadcast over WICC tomorrow at 8 p.m. On the student panel will be two veterans, John Heckler and George Zeisner, and a non-veteran, John Farrell.

'FAMILY WEEK' ON THE AIR

'Children Deserve Christian Homes" will be the theme of a series of special broadcasts for Family Week to be presented by the Council for Inter-Church Cooperation over WNAB at 6:45 a.m., and WLIZ at 7:45 p.m., Monday through Saturday. Life stories of living Americans, including J. L. Kraft, Mrs. Edith Sampson, Warner Sallman, the Kirby Family and Ibra Pullen, will be presented.

The Stamford Council of Churches is presenting its own Family Week programs over WSTC Monday through Saturday at 5:30 p.m.

BENTON INTERVIEWED

Senator William Benton will be interviewed on CBS' "Capitol Cloakroom" program Tuesday night at 10:30....Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York will speak from a state Republican dinner in New York over CBS, Thursday night at 10:35, and Sen. Eugene Milliken (R., Colo.) will be heard addressing the Republican National committee in Tulsa, Okla., over CBS, Friday night at 11:30.

NEWS AND GOSSIPY BITS

Wallie Dunlap has arranged a bigtime audition in New York for Bill Caples, promising local singer of the Eckstine variety.... George Kirkiakis, Stratford High's guitar-strumming Frankie Laine type of singer, auditioned for Arthur Godfrey last week. .WICC will do an informal interview broadcast from the G. E. Construction Materials Fair, Tuesday night at 10:45, and WNAB will follow suit Wednesday at 7:45....Two upstate ladies, winners of WTIC's Hollywood Weekend contest, will be heard on Walter O'Keefe's "Double or Nothing" show Wednesday at 2 p.m. over NBC....Nice to hear that Dee Ardell will be back singing with Artie Mayno's band at the Ritz, Tuesday night.

TRUMAN ON CIVIL DEFENSE

President Truman's address at the Civil Defense dinner in Washington tomorrow night will be broadcast by the major networks at 10:30 p.m. Mr. Truman will be introduced by Millard Caldwell, federal CD director.

PROGRAM NOTES

"Stump the Preachers", popular religious counterpart of "Information Please", is now heard on WLIZ Sundays at 5:45 . . . WOR's Sunday schedule has been revamped so that now there's a steady parade of dramas starting at 2 p.m. with "2,000 Plus", "Hashknife Hartley", "Challenge of the Yukon" and "Bobby Benson" until "The Hidden Truth" at 7 p.m. . .Walter Kiernan starts his daily "Family Circle" program over WNAB-ABC tomorrow at 3 p.m., with WJZ slated to carry the last half-hour at 3:30 . . . Students George Geanuracos, Donald Marquard and Jean Coury will be interviewed on the University of Bridgeport program over WNAB at 8:45 tomorrow night, with Abigail Elstein contributing a piano solo.

Ralph Flanagan's "Let's Go" show, on WNAB-ABC tomorrow night at 10, will originate at Westover Air Force Base, Mass. . .Rita Ertle, chairman and Eugene Eliano, director of the YW-TV Talent Parade to be presented May 16 at the YWCA, will be interviewed by May Bradshaw Hays on WICC, Tuesday at 10:45 a.m. . . . . As a National Music Week feature, WQXR's "Symphony Hall" will feature music by American composers nightly at 8:05 p.m., starting tomorrow with David Diamon's "Romeo and Juliet" music

IT COULD BE a big, spacious house or a cozy cottage on the brow of a hill. Whatever your dream, let us help you make it a reality. We'll go over your sketches, estimate costs, recommend contractors and even tell you how to arrange F. H. A. loans. We're in business to help you, and we have everything to translate your dreams to beams. Fine lumber right here in our yard where you can size it up. Sturdy tools, husky hardware, kitchen equipment. Step into our office and tell us your plans. There's no obligation, naturally.
