ROCKY CLARK'S LISTENING POST

With radio networks alerted to interrupt any program for news of the Korean war cease-fire negotiations, commentators are turning their eyes to other headline-making trouble zones throughout the world. Some have already gone abroad on fact-finding tours; others are preparing to do so.

Henry J. Taylor, WNAB-ABC commentator, is doing his next few Monday night broadcasts by short wave from European capitals, starting from London tomorrow at 8:30 p.m. His future broadcasts will come from Paris, Zurich, Berlin, Rome, Stockholm, Madrid or Lisbon, etc.

ABC's Elmer Davis is also going abroad and will be heard via short-wave every Friday night at 7:15, starting Aug. 3. Marquis Childs will substitute on his Monday-through-Thursday programs July 30 through Aug. 2, with Quincy Howe taking over Aug. 6.

Fulton Lewis, Jr., Mutual's ace commentator, plans a two-month tour of western Europe starting July 18, during which he promises to make a thorough check on "Voice of America" operations as well as other matters. Cecil Brown will leave a week later on a 15-week round-the-world trip, planning short-wave reports to his U. S. listeners whenever possible.

Judy Lynn is featured girl vocalist on Ray Bloch's Musical Party on CBS' radio network Fridays at 8 p.m.

BIG AND LITTLE LEAGUES

It'll be Mel Allen and Al Helfer at the microphone when WICC-MBS covers the All-Star Baseball Game at Detroit, Tuesday at 2:15 a.m. Meanwhile, WLIZ begins covering Little League games in the Bridgeport area, starting tomorrow night at 6:30 when Manning Slater covers the Fairfield game. WLIZ will air games from Raybestos Field, Tuesday; from G.E. Field, Thursday, and Seaside Village, Friday—all starting at 6:30.

'THEATER OF LIFE'

Human interest dramas, transcribed by the American Cancer Society are now being presented weekly over Bridgeport's three radio stations. The series started Friday night at 10:30 on WICC and will be heard Mondays at 1:45 on WLIZ and at 7:45 p.m. on WNAB.

"Funeral for Ebenezer", an entertaining story about an unusual old man, will be heard on tomorrow's broadcasts. Worked into the story are important facts about cancer in men in general, and cancer of the lung specifically.

'Mother Gets Her Way", a heart-warming comedy about a couple of whimsical ladies, will be heard on WICC Friday night at 10:30 and on the other stations next week Monday.

STRATFORD P.A.L. SHOW

Buddy Barnes will have a total of 100 performers on hand for a special Stratford P.A.L. outdoor show at Longbrook Park, July 29 at 3 p.m. Bobbie Lilla, sensational young drummer, will be featured with Marty Rose and his orchestra. The Bridgeport P.A.L. Drums Corps will take part, too. There will be 28 acts all told, says Buddy.

NEWS AND GOSSIPY BITS

Smilin' Ed McConnell and his Buster Brown Gang will return to NBC's radio network Aug. 11 in a new Saturday morning series at 9:30....Felix Knight, operatic tenor who sang on the Connecticut Pops concert Friday night, will be a guest soloist on "Al Goodman's Musical Album" which replaces NBC's "Hit Parade" Saturday at 9 p.m.....Peter Donald will pinch-hit for Don McNeill as WNAB-ABC's "Breakfast Club" emcee during the first two weeks of McNeill's eight-week vacation starting July 16....Seven-year-old Bonnie Baxter, who performs in "The Emperor's New Clothes" on next Saturday's "Let's Pretend" program over CBS at 11:05 a.m., is the daughter of Phyllis Chalzell who, back in 1932, was an eight-year-old performer on the same program.

The Chautauqua Student Symphony orchestra, 60 promising young musicians under the direction of Edward Murphy, will be heard over WJZ-ABC Saturdays at 11:30 a.m., starting this week....Dr. Donald F. Jones, head of the genetics department of the Connecticut Agricultural Experiment Station at New Haven, will be guest speaker on NBC's "Farm and Home Hour Saturday at 1 p.m.....Feature races at Chicago's Arlington Park and Washington Park tracks will be broadcast by CBS Saturdays at 5:45, starting this week....The windup of the Western Open Golf Tournament at Davenport, Iowa, will be covered by WICC-MBS next Sunday at 8 p.m.....For music lovers with FM radios, New Haven's WBIB (100.7 mcs.) offers a Mozart cycle Mondays at 10:05 p.m. and a Haydn cycle Fridays at 10:05.

VIEW FASHION TRENDS

The Yankee Home Town Food Show, on WICC-MBS, weekdays at 1:15 p.m., originates this week at the New York Dress Institute where the Couture Group will dictate American's fashion pulse for the coming season. Eleanor Lambert will be interviewed Monday; Pauline Trigere, Tuesday; Mr. Gerli, Wednesday! John Norman, Thursday; Ceil Chapman, Friday, and Lily Dache with Mr. Fred, next Monday.

PROGRAM NOTES

Replacing "Welcome to Hollywood", WJZ presents a new audience-participation show, "The Perfect Husband", Monday through Friday at 2:30, with George Fenneman quizzing four wives about their husbands to determine which one has the "perfect" spouse to win a prize jackpot . . . James Fleming joins NBC's "Three Star Extra" tomorrow night at 6:45 to act as summer replacement for Ray Henle, Ned Brooks and Albert Warner as they vacation, one at a time . . . Leon Pearson substitutes for vacationing Morgan Beatty on NBC's "News of the World" starting at 7:30 tomorrow night . . . ROCKY CLARK'S DISC-USSION

Basking in the glory of favorable reviews accorded its recent release of the Paris Opera Comique performance of "Carmen", Columbia Records come forth with another French operatic importation—a performance of Berlioz' "The Damnation of Faust"—which our United Press standby, Delos Smith, calls "another source of joy."

The performance, on three 12-inch long-playing records, is by the Emile Passani Chorus and Orchestra of Paris under the direction of Jean Fournet. Though Reviewer Smith finds it "not brilliant", he considers it "a carefully rehearsed and most impressive performance." Of the work, he writes:

"Often excerpted, containing a couple of music's better known melodies, but seldom given in its entirety because of its sheer bigness, it will fill many a phonographic evening without ever a trace of weariness."

Of other new classical recordings, Mr. Smith provides us with the following comments:

Promising New Trio

"Now you'll understand why Gregor Piatigorsky lugged his 'cello from Columbia, where even the head man genuflected, over to RCA Victor—he had the chance to record trios with Jascha Heifetz and Artur Rubinstein. It is a superb collaboration revealed on two 12-inch LPs of Mendelssohn's Trio in D minor. Tchaikowsky's in the same key, and Ravel's in A minor.

Whether they're going to reach the zenith Heifetz and Rubinstein attained with the late Emanuel Feuermann a decade ago, is a matter which three lesser trios doesn't settle. Feuermann was as subject to stimulation as he was himself stimulating. He, Heifetz, and Rubinstein were ingredients of a musical alchemy which seemed to make the music they played transcend even itself.

There were Beethoven's "Arcanduke" Trio, Brahms' in B, and Schubert's in B-flat, all recorded in 1941 and which Victor has just re-issued on LPs in its "Treasury of Immortal Performances" series. For the way Feuermann and Heifetz reacted to one another hear the LP re-issues of the
