LOOKING AND LISTENING

Lee Hogan First Landed Radio Job With Publicity

By TOM DANSON

HOLLYWOOD. From Little Rock, Ark., through the rough mill of experience and disappointment, to her own television show that has been Tviewed for the past two-and-a-half years, is just a portion of the road traveled by Lee Hogan, who now is under contract to NBC.

Lee had a first love for the stage, but after many shows with small, but good, stock companies, decided that radio should be her field. New York was her first stamping ground, but she stamped so much of that well known pavement getting nowhere, that thoroughly discouraged and homesick, she went back to Arkansas.

Hollywood came next, with more success. Lee landed a job with NBC in their publicity department, which, incidentally, is where Frances Scully, now on ABC, got her start.

She started with NBC television on station KNBH right after it went on the air and has had her own show there ever since. The show, originally called "Designed for Women," has since been changed to "Lee Hogan Presents" and is Tviewed every Monday on channel 4 at 9 p. m.

DOWN TV-RADIO ROW . . . In the first two KNBH shows of "The Living Book" the beards worn by the actors looked fake, very much so. They were meant to look that way, as research showed that in the old days, real beards were not worn but fake ones were used. . . . Walter O'Keefe, with eight other entertainers will go to Europe for USO camp shows next month after proper clearance is given by the FBI. Walter will emcee the deals. . . . Tourist trade is heavy in Hollywood these days, and NBC has only three audience radio shows to offer. All of their big shows are off for the summer.

ON TV . . . Winners from Dallas and Atlanta will compete in the "Hollywood Screen Test" program, with Robert Preston lending a hand over KECA (7) at 7. Wrestling matches from KNBH (4) at 8:05. . . . Another variety show with all girls in the acts, when Ina Ray Hutton is Tviewed on KTLA (5) at 9 . . . "The Courier" is an exciting tale of espionage on "Shadow of the Cloak" on KTTV (11) at 9. . . .

"The First Anniversary of the War in Korea," with official Army spokesmen, will be the subject of "The Facts We Face" on KTSL (2) at 10. This show will be known in the future as "Open Hearing."

ON RADIO . . . The interesting operations of England's world-famous Scotland Yard will be dramatized weekly on this new series titled "Pursuit" which debuts tonight on KNX at 6. . . . "The Count of Monte Cristo" will be aired at 7:30 from KHJ. . . . An eight-week series of radio dramas designed to blow away the dust of years from the portraits of some distinguished Americans will premiere tonight on KFI under the title, "American Portraits" at 8:30. . . . Current world problems are discussed pro and con during "America's Town Meeting" from KECA at 9.

County Treasurer Aid Gets 10-year Sentence

LOS ANGELES, July 10. (AP) A former collector in the Los Angeles County treasurer's office—William B. Osmond, 57—must serve one to 10 years in San Quentin Prison.

Osmond was convicted of embezzlement and falsification of public accounts. An unscheduled audit last April uncovered shortages of $6263.80. He was sentenced yesterday in Superior Court.

MAIL CALL!

Slug Hits, Breaks Grenade on Chest

WITH U. S. THIRD DIVISION, Korea, July 10. (AP) Pvt. Bruno B. Morgantino of Lynn, Mass., was waiting for a letter—but got a bullet.

He was listening to the mail clerk of Company B, 15th Infantry Regiment, call out names when a sniper fired.

A bullet hit a grenade on his chest. The grenade broke into several pieces, but didn't explode. A few fragments lodged in one of Morgantino's fingers.

The mail was worth it, though, said Bruno.

"I got two letters from my girl!"

Two-time Offender Gets 180-day Term

Denied probation and sentenced to serve 180 days in the county jail by Superior Judge Miller yesterday was C. B. Russell, who pleaded guilty June 12 to the burglary of the Columbia Clothing Store in San Pedro on April 3.

Russell was arrested as he ran from the store tucking a suit of clothes into his trousers, which suit the store owner said had been shoplifted by Russell. The defendant in court admitted a prior felony conviction.

Navy Housing Office Asks Rental Listings

Rental vacancies for families or single persons may be listed by landlords with John Peterson, in charge of the Navy Housing Service Office in the Post Office Bldg., according to the Chamber of Commerce.

Chamber President Fred S. Dean said that the Navy housing office does not have sufficient listings.

He added that the office is interested in obtaining the listings on a permanent or temporary basis.

IS TEXAN TOUGH?

Direct Mortar Hit Just Dazes Marine

WITH U. S. FIRST MARINE DIVISION, Korea, July 10. (AP) Is Walter T. McCarty of Abilene, Texas, really tough?

Just ask anybody in the Marine Corps. They'll tell you what happened to McCarty, a Marine staff sergeant.

He was standing up, giving orders to his platoon when an enemy mortar shell struck him on the head and exploded.

His steel helmet was ruined. His face was scratched and he was dazed a little.

But McCarty walked to a Navy corpsman. After a cursory examination he went back to the fighting.

Let's Explore Your Mind

By ALBERT EDWARD WIGGAM, D. Sc.

Answer to Question No. 1

One is bound to believe so after reading Dr. Evelyn Millis Duvall's book, "Facts of Life and Love" (published by Association Press, 291 Broadway, New York 7). Most persons think that sex and sex education refer merely to "facts of life." But Dr. Duvall shows that love and facts of life go together in the great problem of teaching men and women to live happily together.

Answer to Question No. 2

Yes. Thinking is "seeing through" problems. When my dog, Major, couldn't get through the fence to chase a cat, he ran through the front yard to a neighbor's yard where he "remembered" there was a hole. He would have caught the cat, but it did some quick thinking and jumped into my window, ran out the door and climbed a tree. Isn't that thinking? It's limited thinking, but it's "seeing through" problems. I know persons who wouldn't have done as well as Major or the cat.

Answer to Question No. 3

We spend a smaller percentage of our national income for education than does Russia. Mario Pei of Columbia University says that since 1940 the laboring man's income has risen 140 per cent; the business man's 150 per cent; but the teachers, 25 per cent. University janitors' pay has risen 70 per cent; college professors 20 per cent. Can you read this and not hang your head?

Want to learn self-control? "How to Manage Your Feelings and Emotions" is Dr. Wiggam's new illustrated booklet. It describes clearly what happens to both your mind and body when your feelings and emotions conquer you and it also fully explains what you can do about it—how you can master your feelings and gain self-confidence.

This remarkable booklet is yours for 15c (in coin only). Address Dr. A. E. Wiggam care of this newspaper. Include a stamped (3c) self-addressed return envelope.
