LOOKING AND LISTENING

Composer Believes Ballet With Jazz to Be Popular

By TOM E. DANSON

HOLLYWOOD. Composer-Conductor Frank Worth, who now is seen around Hollywood with a swell salt-and-pepper beard for doings at Big Bear, believes that ballet in America is the coming thing. However, it must be strictly American, of the jazz nature, done with a very large orchestra. Frank is now busy composing ballet music of this nature, in anticipation of a trend. He has already completed one ballet, which is tentatively titled, "Lady in the Park" and has taken over a month of work to complete.

Frank says, "I'm trying to get away from the tip-toe type of classical ballet, and if this can be accomplished, we'll have a few more blacksmiths and truck drivers attending."

Worth feels that opera is not and has not been too successful in this country because there are not too many operas written in English. To translate into English is very difficult because usually the translation of words do not fit the music.

He is now busy composing and conducting for the ABC. "Richard Diamond" show which stars Dick Powell, and for the new Roy Rogers TV and radio series. He composes music to fit the individual on the show, and to fit the mood the character is supposed to be in at the time. As an example, his mood and bridge music for westerns seem to have a "horsey flavor," while his bridge music for the now off the air Hedda Hopper show was some light, flitty hat music.

ON TV . . . Get out the rod and reel for here are your "Fishing Pals" from KFI (9) at 6:15. . . . Stu Erwin and June Collyer, Constance Moore, and Fifi D'Orsay are candidly caught in the Hollywood Reel" cameras over KTLA (5) at 7:15. . . . James Melton will depict life in a New York penthouse on his variety show from KNBH (4) at 8. . . . For baseball fans, it's Hollywood versus Oakland on KTTV (11) at 8:15. . . . "Break-up," a bare-knuckles drama of a discredited policeman, is offered by "The Web" on KTSL (2) at 9:30. . . . Pop-eyed Jerry Colonna, the gent with the handle-bar mustache, goes through more antics tonight at 10 over KECA (7).

ON RADIO . . . Stories about the prohibition days and a speak-easy cornet player are related during "Pete Kelley's Blues" starring Jack Webb from KFI at 6:30. . . . "Maggie Takes Over," the story of a little girl who runs away from home, will be presented during the "Dr. Christian" show from KNX at 8:30. . . . A chief executive who, even very busy, had time to invent such things as a pedometer, a plow and a swivel chair, will be portrayed by Edward Arnold on "Mr. President" over KECA at 9. . . . Gen. Douglas MacArthur will address a joint session of the Massachusetts State Legislature. His speech will be aired on KHJ at 9:30 p. m., and tomorrow, Thursday, over KMPC at 11:30 to 12:00 a. m.

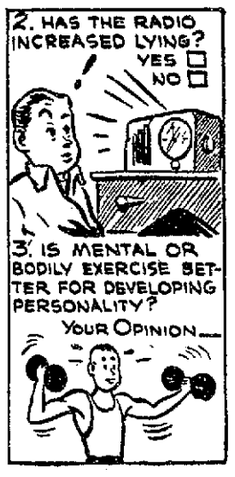
Let's Explore Your Mind

By ALBERT EDWARD WIGGAM, D. Sc.



Answer to Question No. 1

Men get worse; women remain about the same. Psychologist George M. Stratton devised a temper control test which included such questions: Do you get riled at slighting remarks? At being criticized by a friend? At missing the train or bus? At being jostled by a stranger who doesn't apologize, etc.? Older men gave more "yes" answers than younger men. Older women gave the same as younger ones. Our booklet, "How to Manage Your Feelings and Emotions" sent at cost, 15c (coin only), plus self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Answer to Question No. 2

Yes, enormously, according to a recent magazine article by Dr. A. W. Green. We are bombarded with claims for cure-alls, lotions and potions, personality improvers, emotional mobilizers and mental jet-propellers. Some of the preparations are harmful; many are used by persons who have no need for them, and some mislead persons into neglecting ailments.

Answer to Question No. 3

Bodily exercise is better. Over 200 bodily and mental habits were studied by 80 psychologists. They found that habits calling for such bodily activity as athletic games, walking, fishing, etc., were far better for developing personality than such mental exercises as listening to the radio, reading stories or going to the movies. Being on teams and in bands and in social dance groups were the best of all.

WANT TO LEARN SELF-CONTROL?

HOW TO MANAGE YOUR FEELINGS AND EMOTIONS is Dr. Wiggam's new illustrated booklet.

It describes clearly what happens to both your mind and body when your feelings and emotions conquer you and it also fully explains what you can do about it—how you can master your feelings and gain self-confidence.

This remarkable booklet is yours for 15c (in coin only). Address Dr. A. E. Wiggam, care of this newspaper. Include a stamped (3c) self-addressed return envelope.

Two Cars Looted of $265 and Gun

Thieves forced their way into two cars parked near the ocean while their owners were at the beach late yesterday afternoon and escaped with a total of $265 in cash and a revolver, police reported.

Abraham A. Sanchez, Los Angeles, told officers a windwing was forced on his delivery truck as it was parked in a lot at 72nd Pl. and Ocean Blvd. Taken were wallets belonging to him and a friend, as well as his wife's purse. He said the total loss was $237 in addition to a .38 caliber revolver he had in the glove compartment.

Capt. James C. Barry, Los Angeles, member of the County Fire Department, reported that someone entered his car parked in the 3000 block on E. Ocean Blvd. and took his wallet containing $28.

Two Noncoms Admit PX Jewel Burglary

FORT RILEY, Kan., July 25. (U.P.) Two non-commissioned officers have admitted a $5800 burglary of jewelry from the main post exchange here three weeks ago, public information officers said today.

They were identified as Sgt. 1-c Thomas Senier, 27, Dorchester, Mass., and Cpl. Roy J. Kent, 22, Monterey, Calif.

Army officers said Senier and Kent confessed they broke into the exchange with intention of robbing the safe. When they were unable to open the safe, they took the jewelry, the Army officers said.

COFFEE FLAVOR MIRACLE
New "Pressure Packed" Chase & Sanborn is far fresher . . . far richer in important flavor elements!
It's PRESSURE PACKED
Your taste knows it—Science shows it—with Pressure it's Fresher!
Here's why:
In ordinary cans many precious flavor elements escape—even when the can is sealed—freshness is lost!
Important flavor elements escape from the coffee
In pressure packed cans, positive pressure helps prevent the coffee from losing its fine fresh flavor. That's why "Pressure Packed" Chase & Sanborn brings you coffee that is far fresher—far richer in important flavor elements than coffee packed any other way. Ask for it today!
Pressure holds flavor elements in the coffee
