LOOKING AND LISTENING

Television's Disc Jockey Spins New Musical Films

BY TOM E. DANSON

HOLLYWOOD. It's hard to imagine a disc jockey doing a television show, but Gene Norman, well-known in Southern California, does just that.

The format of the "Gene Norman Show" as Tviewed on KNBH, is extremely simple, but in it is the answer to the question of how the transition could be made by a disc jockey from radio to television. Thanks to Louis Snader, who produces these musical films of the same time duration as a regular phonograph record, using most of the country's top talent. They are called telescriptions, and the NBC station, KNBH, has the exclusive rights for these productions in this area.

Norman's tremendous fund of musical knowledge has aided greatly with the success of his Tversion of "dee-jaying." Having known personally, most of the top names in popular music for many years, his information on the little known facts in the lives of these people, make for interesting introductions for the telescriptions he chooses for each of his evening TV programs. Strangely enough, Norman runs competition to himself as he is heard nightly on both radio station KFWB and television station KNBH at the same time. Again proof of the great versatility of the tape recording machine.

Gene was born in New York City, 29 years ago, where, during high school, he organized his dance band, continuing to lead a similar group through his undergraduate days at the University of Wisconsin, where he was graduated in 1940.

Gene came to California in 1941 working as a disc jockey in the northern area. He moved in 1944 to his present radio post at KFWB and invaded the TV field several months ago when he joined with KNBH.

DOWN TV-RADIO ROW . . . Maestro Meredith Willson returns to his Mandeville Canyon home this week from New York and will vacation for a few weeks before packing his bags for Europe where NBC's "Big Show" will originate for three shows in September. . . . Joe Graydon, TV baritone, started a series of week-end tours yesterday and is eyeing Long Beach for one of his future appearances. . . . Curt Massey also has joined the ranks of those strictly against the network use of "canned" music for live talent shows.

ON TELEVISION . . . The Hollywood Stars today will seek another win from the San Francisco Seals in the double-header telecast from KTTV (11) at 4. Gail Patrick and Braven Dyer will do more interviewing at "Home Plate." . . . A drinking song that became a wedding march will be featured on "The Bill Gwinn Show" from KECA (7) at 7. . . . Lady Iris Mountbatten and Cartoonist Ham Fisher will guestar on the Go Lucky Show from KTSL (2) at 7:30. . . . Leonard Rose, cellist, will be guest soloist on the KNBH (4) TV Recital Hall" program at 8:30. . . . The final Tviewing of "Roller Derby" will offer many closing night thrills when shown on KTLA (5) at 10:30. The roller derby moves into Long Beach Stadium Aug. 22, and will again be telecast by this same station.

ON YOUR RADIO . . . "Wild Bill Hickok" guns down "Dan Cupid" during his thriller today on KHJ at 1. . . . An address by Sen. Robert Taft on "Basic American Principles" will be broadcast by KFI when the annual clambake and outing at Plymouth Rock is aired at 3:30. . . . Dr. Ernest S. Holmes will speak on "How Habits are Formed" during the airing of "This Thing Called Life" from KECA at 4. . . . Alwaysa good recommendation is the Standard Hour on KFI at 8:30, followed by the "Chicago Theater of the Air" on KHJ at 9:30.

Design of U. S. Sports Car Project of L. B. Auto Group

Design of an all-American sports car will be undertaken as a project by the Newly-formed Associated Car Clubs of Long Beach, which has 250 members formerly associated with nine individual clubs here.

The group recently ratified a 16-article constitution. One of the group's aims is to promote the "general safety on public highways through safe equipment and obedience of traffic laws."

The association currently is consulting with the California Highway Patrol for time and place for ACCLB members to take the standard safety tests devised for the motoring public.

The ACCLB is on record as saying the members drive "custom cars" and not the familiarly-known "hot rods." The group is without sponsorship and backing. Members have subscribed money to meet expenses of the fledgling organization.

Other proposed projects include establishment of a strip for testing cars and construction of a clubhouse.

Advisers, invited to counsel the new organization, are two members of the Long Beach police traffic division. They are Sgt. Gil Smith and Officer Bob Cabot.

Charter-member clubs are the Carboniers, Cavaliers, Cutouts, Exiles, Knights, Nobles, Ramblers, Renegades and Turks.

TODAY'S BIG JOB NEWS appears in Press-Telegram Want Ad section. That's where Long Beach employers make their needs known! For that position you want, turn to the "Help Wanted" ads.

Answer to Question No. 1

Yes. He laughs chiefly because it releases him from his feelings of inferiority. Dominating persons usually feel inferior and assert themselves to overcome this feeling. When someone mispronounces a word or thinks, as one student did, that "the Acropolis was the she-wolf that nursed Romeo and Juliet," it releases the dominator's inferiority to prove the fellow wrong. This sudden relief of nervous tension makes him explode in a loud guffaw.

Answer to Question No. 2

Not the young women of Fredericksburg College, Va. Over 300 were asked, "Would you prefer a husband to be handsome, brilliant, successful or adoring?" The votes ran successful, 67 per cent, adoring 25 per cent, brilliant 3 per cent, handsome, one per cent! Twenty-five states and the District of Columbia were represented. Seems Jimmy Durante would stand as good a chance with these southern belles as Robert Taylor or Clark Gable. Maybe even I would have a show!

Answer to Question No. 3

No, not in its original meaning. The old Greek epicures who adopted this motto meant it as a call to nobility, dignity, tolerance and moderation. They cultivated "moderation in all things," especially in the so-called pleasures of life — "wine, women and song." The Romans corrupted it to mean licentious living. Today we call a person an "epicure" who is particular about his food and drink.

Teachers, Parents Combat 'Headache'

Shifting school population, always a national headache, is being met locally with teacher-parent-formulated "aspirin."

While turnover in the merchandising world spells profit, it means to the average schoolteacher that student "turnovers" will result in her having a class that has "changed faces" by 25 per cent from registration day to the end of the school year.

Average enrollment for the 1950-51 school year was 38,841, excluding City College, according to Paul Borgfeld, educational statistician.

The average was reached by including 6330 students who entered the local district and deducting 5660 students who left. The total, 11,900, represents only one segment of the shifting school population. Students who transfer from one school to another within the district are not included.

It is primarily for the entering student that school officials and PTA groups have worked out a program.

The teachers have established a procedure for acquainting incoming students with their classmates. Counselors evaluate the new student's knowledge and determine where he shall be situated.

Meanwhile, PTA representatives call upon the parents of the youngster to familiarize them with Long Beach and to "just be neighborly."
