HELD ON GIRL'S CHARGES

John Craig, 20, of 1410 Seaview avenue, was arrested yesterday about 5:30 p. m., police said, on the complaint of a 14-year-old girl and held in bonds of $1,000 on a charge of breach of the peace pending further investigation. He was picked up by Detectives Raymond Meade and Richard Svertesky.

Ordinary water softens hair, but does not change the arrangement of the molecules in it and therefore effects no permanent curling as a permanent waving solution does.

Full Story of OSS Major's Death Not Told, Ex-GI Says

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17—(AP) A former army sergeant accused of killing his commander while on a secret mission in Italy seven years ago claimed today the full story of the death has not been told.

When the "complete, true story" of the adventure is disclosed by the authorities, Carl C. LoDolce said at a news conference in Rochester, N. Y., it "will prove that I am innocent."

On Wednesday the Defense Department issued a memorandum stating that Maj William V. Holohan was slain in 1944 by LoDolce and former Lieut. Aldo (Ike) Icardi with the help of two Italian guerrilla fighters. The Americans were assigned to the Office of Strategic Services (OSS) and had been dropped by parachute behind the German lines to organize partisan resistance.

Deny Charges

LoDolce, named as the trigger man in the shooting, has denied the charges, and so has Icardi. Until recently Icardi lived in Preakness, N. J. Because of a quirk in the law, neither man can be brought to trial in this country. They might be compelled to face an Italian court, but it is doubtful whether they will be extradited for this purpose.

LoDolce repeated his denial at today's new conference, saying he was "shocked and astounded" by the accusation.

Pressed by newsmen to explain in what way the story was incomplete, LoDolce answered: "That would have to come from the War Department or the OSS."

Information Director Clayton Fritchey of the Defense Department said here later that the story was complete. He added that the department had a mound of documents in the case, and naturally not every detail had been given in the department's summary, but that all the essential facts were there.

Doesn't Believe It, Ex-GI Says

Another former sergeant who worked with Holohan said today he did not believe the account given out by the Defense Department. Interviewed at his home in Milford, Mass., Arthur P. Ciaramicoli, 30, said:

"As far as LoDolce and the lieutenant murdering any one, I don't believe it. As far as saying there was any bad feeling between LoDolce and the major, that is not fair. We all didn't particularly like the major. He was older than the rest of us and was content to sit back and take things easy. He endangered our lives on several occasions by his attitude."

Ciaramicoli accepted LoDolce's explanation that Holohan was killed when the Germans surprised the group.

"To me it didn't come as a surprise," he said, "the major seemed misplaced in our outfit and I figured that when the chips were down he wouldn't come through."

LoDolce, who is 29, acknowledged at the news conference that a confession said to have been made by him was in his handwriting. But "I refute and repudiate the confession as it appeared in the press," he said. LoDolce explained that, as published, the statement was "incomplete."

Opinion was divided in Rome as to whether Italy can ask extradition of LaDolce and Icardi. The two Italians in the case are to be tried next month at Verbania, in Turin province.

The local prosecutor, Antonio Morando, said he had asked for extradition of the Americans but that his superior refused the request, stating that American citizens could not be tried in Italy under the circumstances in which Holohan's death occurred.

17 MORE CADETS QUIT IN WEST POINT PROBE

WEST POINT, N. Y., Aug. 17—(AP) Seventeen more of the 90 accused West Point cadets reportedly resigned today from the U. S. military academy.

They were expected to leave tomorrow or soon after.

The public information office said their action brought to 62 the number who have resigned as a result of any inquiry into academic cheating.

Forty-five of the 62 already have left the academy.

Nearly all of the 90 cases have been screened, the Army said, by a final review board.

They were given a choice of resigning or facing ouster by discharge.

NICHOLS

The Pinewood Lake association met Tuesday evening in the clubhouse. New members elected to the board of governors were: Leon J. Serafin, William O'Brien, George Bonnell, Dr. Joseph Adzima, Melvin Roe and George L. Parker.

Committee chairmen read their reports. Gene Myers, chairman of the house committee spoke of events planned for the future including the President's ball, Sept. 15 and a barn dance, in October.

Lawrence Bulow, chairman of the building committee said 11 permits of approval had ben granted this year.

Victor Meleski, chairman of the boating and fishing, suggested that in the near future a fulltime caretaker be employed by the association.

Carl Anderson, chairman of safety, said there are now 10 emergency stations on the lake front equipped for rescue purposes.

Dr. Joseph Adzima reporting for the long range planning committee, said a new kitchen for the clubhouse will be erected on the side porch. All work will be done by the men and equipment will cost about $1,000. The committee also plans to review and revise the rules of the association; petition the town to open and develop Twitchgrass road; conduct a new survey now that most of the property has been sold; and cooperate with the Nichols Improvement association long range planning committee for future improvements.

The Rev. Edward C. Morgan recommended the front yard be cleaned up; that the dock be repaired in preference to the float; and that a suitable memorial be spread in the minutes of the meeting in recognition of Charles W. Judge. Mr. Judge was treasurer of the association until his death this June.

It was voted at the meeting to write a letter to the Trumbull Police requesting them to control the speeding on Pinewood trail.

A motion to place a curfew on night swimming for 9 p.m. was tabled.

Arnold M. Fenwick, president, presided. He announced the board of governors will meet early next week to elect officers for the coming year.

Men's Club Minstrel

The Pinewood Men's club are sponsoring an old-fashioned minstrel on Sept. 29. All members of the association are urged to attend the casting for the show, Aug. 21 at 8 p.m., at the clubhouse.

POLE QUITS CONSUL JOB FOR NEW REFUGEE ROLE

OTTAWA, Aug. 17—(AP) Polish Consul Zygmunt Ziemski quit his job and communist-ruled government today to become a political refugee in Canada. He said Canada agreed to let him stay.

Ziemski said he thought over the step a long time and the recent purge of high Polish army officials decided him. He cabled his resignation to Warsaw and announced it today to the Canadian Press.

Ziemski, a 59-year-old bachelor, came to Canada in 1946. Several other Polish and Czechoslovak officials in Canada have quit their posts similarly in the past.
