Vacation Brings Avalanche of Mail

By ROCKY CLARK

We're suffering a case of Vacation Letdown today. It's a mental ailment brought on by returning from a couple of restful weeks racing around New England, Quebec, New York, etc., and finding a mountain of mail announcing all sorts of revisions in radio and TV schedules.

It's going to take us a few days to acquaint ourselves and you readers with the proper times to watch and listen for a flock of big new programs and the return of old favorites as the new radio-TV season gets under way.

The best antidote for Vacation Letdown is the nice friendly mail from readers sandwiched in among the business letters. So let's sift it out.

The Gene Supples postcard from Hyannis, Mass., where they are celebrating their 25th anniversary. They've been married just as long as WICC has been operating. Gene led one of the station's top bands in its early days.

Jack Scanlon, WICC disc-jockey, sends a card from Madison on the Connecticut shore where he reports he's really enjoying the Nutmeg State.

Ruth Tours BBC

All the way from London comes a letter from Ruth C. Horn of WNAB who has been touring through France, Holland and England with her daughter. She sends us the radio section of a Copenhagen newspaper and reports touring the modern BBC radio building in London where she was guest of the director-general. She writes:

"Was simply amazed at the beauty of its large concrete hall, its advanced modern equipment and the fact that everything is non-sponsored. To defray costs of broadcasting, radio owners pay a small license fee yearly.

Joe Barry of the Ritz, writes to inform us that the Black Rock Teen-Age Club will sponsor another Teen-Time dance at the Ritz tomorrow night with Phil Moore's 19-piece orchestra. Joe also relays word that General Artists is expecting big things of Buddy Murrow's orchestra which opens Sept. 7 at the Meadowbrook.

Mrs. M. M. Peck of 144 Overland avenue sadly misses "Easy Does It," which has been removed from WNBC's schedule after being switched from 6 to 2 p.m. Says she: I've never written a fan letter or a letter of criticism before but unless NBC had an awfully good reason for taking this most refreshing and original show off the air, I hope CBS or some other enterprising network will get them."

Mrs. Peck recalls that Arthur Godfrey used to compliment Frances and Johnny even though he was on a rival network and she hopes that he may do something toward bringing them back as he did with Frank Parker.

Another reader who doesn't wish to have her name used reports that her feeling for summer programs is well expressed in Extension Magazine as follows:

"If it took a long cold winter to dream up the summer supplement programs for TV—designed to afford 'summer hiatuses for hard-working stars'—we can't help but hope that this winter will be big and snowy so that those same replacements will get lost in the drifts before next summer rolls around."

DARCY ON TV FOR JEAN

Connecticut's "First Lady of Television" Jean O'Brien of Fairfield, who was married early this year to Alexander Lynch of West Haven, is giving up her WNHC-TV program to await a visit from Sir Stork in January. Replacing her on the "Connecticut Spotlight" program next Wednesday at 6:45 p.m. will be Darcy Shean of Ridgefield who, before her marriage to Thomas Shean, was Darcy Peatt WNAB's only woman announcer a few years back. Since leaving WNAB, Darcy has done radio work in Florida and TV programs in Syracuse. Jean is also a WNAB alumna.

RADIO RIPPLES

Rayburn and Finch will repeat their "Sound Sweepstakes" contest on CBS tomorrow at 9 p.m. offering more than 4,000 prize phonograph records and a couple of new autos. Herbert Hoover, our only living ex-President, speaks over NBC tonight at 8 from the Iowa State Fair Grounds. Signing of the U. S.-Philippines Defense Pact by President Truman and the Philippine president Alpidio Quirino will be heard (by delayed broadcast) on WICC tonight at 9 o'clock. Alfred Shirley plays the title role in Hearthstone of the Death Squad," new mystery series starting on CBS' radio network tonight at 9. Reggie Doc and Jack embark upon a new adventure. "The Girl in the Gilded Cage" on "I Love a Mystery" over WICC-MBS tonight at 10:15.

WNAB is providing complete coverage of the National Junior Baseball Tournament from Seaside Village today through Sunday, starting at 2:30 p.m. WLIZ's Wally Dunlap will emcee the Mrs. Connecticut finals on the Loew-Poli stage tonight.

GRACE BIRCH ON TV

Mrs. Grace Birch of 148 Davenport street will perform an Arabian dance tomorrow at 6 p.m. on "Date at Six" over New Haven's video station WNHC-TV. An assistant at the East branch library, Mrs. Birch is well known as a dance instructor and will teach modern dancing this winter at the "Y".

TELEVISION TOPICS

In her second guest appearance on James Melton's NBC-TV show tonight at 9, Sarah Churchill is slated to demonstrate her singing, dancing and comedy ability.

With Lloyd Nolan in the title role, "Martin Kane, Private Eye" returns to NBC-TV tonight at 10 o'clock, but Freddy Martin's Show will remain on the air, switching to Wednesdays at 10:00 p.m.

Earl Wrightson, baritone, returns with his "Musland at Home" show over WJZ-TV tonight at 10:30. Tomorrow afternoon at 2:45 Julian Bryan of the International Film Foundation will show his documentary film on the work of a real country doctor. Weather permitting, WOR-TV will televise the annular eclipse of the sun Saturday morning from 6:15 to 7:15 with Dr. Shirley I. Gale of Hayden Planetarium as commentator. Harold Stasson will be interviewed by Bob Considine when his NBC-TV program resumes Saturday at 5:45.

GUEST DISC JOCKEY

William M. Greene, director of the state Highway Safety commission, will be the guest disc jockey on Juke Box Jingles over WTIC, Hartford, tomorrow at 1:15 p.m.

300,000 FACE LOSS OF DRAFT DEFERMENTS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30—(AP) New draft regulations now awaiting President Truman's approval would deprive well over 300,000 men of present draft deferments.

Selective Service said yesterday that between 150,000 and 200,000 childless married men will lose their deferments under the new rules. An estimated 150,000 4-F's are expected to be drafted when the armed forces' mental standards are lowered.

The new regulations will carry out provisions of the universal military training and service act.

The act also calls for reclassification of thousands of displaced persons who are permanent residents of this country but not yet U. S. citizens.

And some 9,000 conscientious objectors, heretofore deferred outright, will be required to do essential defense work.

FARM PRICES LOWER

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30—(AP) Farmers received lower prices for their products for the sixth straight month during the period from mid-July to mid-August the Agriculture department reported yesterday. At the same time the department said prices paid by farmers for things they buy remained on the same level.
