U.S. Holds Milwaukeean for Possessing Opium

MILWAUKEE— (U.P.)—A federal bond of $15,000 was ordered Tuesday against Frank Moy, 57-year-old Milwaukee laundryman charged with possession of opium.

U. S. Attorney Ellis Hughes said Moy pleaded guilty in federal court July 6 to charges of possession of opium. He said Moy had made four trips to New York for opium since then while under a pre-sentence investigation.

Milwaukee police turned Moy over to federal authorities after arresting him Saturday night as he got off an airliner. He was carrying $5,000 worth of opium when arrested, police said.

OLDER FOLKS OFTEN HAVE "TIRED" BLOOD

As you get older, when your color is bad and you feel tired, "all in," the chances are as high as 8 in 10 your blood is below par. Then it's time to try Geritol—the scientific blood tonic made especially for people over 35. Pale, weak blood leaves you "logy," tired and "blue." Red, healthy blood goes with dynamic energy—invites that "million dollar" feeling. Geritol's action is amazing—within 24 hours Geritol iron appears in your blood. Geritol also contains remarkable Vitamin B12, the wonders of which were described by Reader's Digest. If your doctor says you need an iron-blood tonic—get Geritol at your drugstore today. See how much better you feel as your color improves and tiredness goes.

Grenade from State Camp Explodes, Burns 8

OMAHA, Neb., —(U.P.)— Eight persons were burned, two of them seriously, when a rifle grenade exploded in an apartment just after a 19-year-old national guard corporal had assured everyone it was a dud.

Firemen said Robert Wiggins was seriously burned, along with his 14-year-old step-sister, Shirley Rugh, when the grenade he was displaying exploded in the Edmund Myer apartment. Six others in the room, including Mrs. Myer, 38, and four of her children, received minor burns.

National guard officers said the grenade apparently was a phosphorous rifle grenade, designed to burn fiercely.

They said he apparently got the grenade at a recent national guard encampment in Wisconsin although it was "strictly against regulations" to carry live ammunition from the camp.

Coast-to-Coast TV with Channel Each Way Starts Sept. 28

NEW YORK — (AP) — Regular commercial coast-to-coast television network service, with a channel in each direction, will begin Sept. 28, the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. announced Wednesday.

The Sept. 28 date represents a step-up in A. T. and T.'s original plans to inaugurate regular commercial service Sept. 30 with one channel from the East to the West coast, with a west-east channel about a month later.

The temporary one-way circuit over which the transcontinental telecast was carried Tuesday night from the Japanese peace treaty conference in San Francisco will be taken out of service at the close of the conference, scheduled Saturday.

The temporary circuit was set up at the request of the state department to permit residents of the eastern half of the nation to witness the historic proceedings.

The basic coast-to-coast hookup is by way of A. T. and T.'s new $40,000,000 microwave radio relay system between San Francisco and New York.

Network points off the main New York-San Francisco route receive programs by connecting circuits that in some cases also are radio relay and in many others are coaxial cable.

Red China Severs Last Ties with Vatican

HONG KONG, Wednesday — (AP) — Red China Tuesday severed China Catholics' last tie with the Vatican.

Peiping radio announced that Archbishop Anthony Riberi had been ordered into "permanent banishment."

The action capped the Red China campaign to set up an "independent church," free of Rome and taking orders from the state.

FOSTER? WHO'S HE?: Stuart Foster, featured singer on the CBS "Rayburn and Finch Show," was born with the good Lebanese name Tamer Aswad. Unbeknownst to him, he was given the name Stuart Foster the first time he sang on a network broadcast. His professional title, which he has retained, was derived from the names of a pair of motion picture stars.

Foster—or rather Aswad—had gone to New York to audition for Ina Ray Hutton and her all-male band. He sang one song and was hired. Not prepared for remaining in New York, he wanted to return to his home in Binghamton, N. Y., to pack his clothes and say his goodbyes. There was no opportunity as the band went into rehearsal immediately for a broadcast the next night. He did the next best thing and telephoned his parents about his good fortune, telling them to listen for his first network broadcast.

Immediately after the program, Aswad—or Foster—called home again. His parents told him that there was some mistake; they had recognized his voice but the announcer had used someone else's name. Foster—he is Foster by now—rushed to Miss Hutton and wanted to know what had happened. Miss Hutton told him the story. The previous night she had been with Jimmy Stewart and Preston Foster. Suddenly deciding that her new vocalist needed a name that was easier to say and remember, she had taken the last names of her friends, changed the spelling of Stewart to Stuart, and handed the new name to the announcer. Tamer Aswad has been Stuart Foster from that night on.

Foster was born in Binghamton, N. Y. As a youngster he sang in juvenile operettas and played drums in the high school band. When he was 17 he became featured vocalist with a dance band that played at a Binghamton pavilion. There he became a good friend of Dee Finch, who worked the amplifying system. Finch wanted to become a radio announcer, and he and Foster practiced reading commercials out fo magazines, never dreaming that some day they would be together on the same network program.

Leaving Binghamton to join Ina Ray Hutton gave Foster his first big break. After four years with her band, he spent a season with Guy Lombardo and his Royal Canadians at the Roosevelt hotel in New York. This was followed by a three-year tour with Tommy Dorsey. Foster made recordings with Dorsey and appeared in the movie "The Fabulous Dorseys." More recently, he has been appearing in New York night clubs.
