Dane County Garden Crops Hit by Blight

The fungus spore blight that is threatening to destroy large portions of the extreme southeastern Wisconsin tomato crop also is hitting the tomato crops in home gardens throughout Dane county, according to George Dehnert, associate county agent.

Dehnert said that the blight also is hitting potato gardens in the county.

While the blight, caused by recent damp, cool weather, is seriously affecting the commercial tomato growing areas in Milwaukee, Racine and Kenosha counties, Dehnert said that it is not so heavy in Dane county.

He explained that there is little tomato or potato raising done in Dane county "outside of private gardening."

Sidney S. Mathisen, Milwaukee county agent, said Thursday that the blight threatens to destroy 75 per cent of the tomato crop in the extreme southeastern sections of the state.

The blight does its damage by hitting the vines, causing the plants to die, Dehnert said.

WARNING TO 'HAMS': American amateur radio operators have been warned today against political propaganda, which Harold E. Stassen said Czechoslovakian "hams" have been instructed to carry on to promote communism.

Stassen, national chairman of the drive for members and funds for Crusade for Freedom, sent the warning to George W. Bailey, New Cork, and A. L. Budlong, West Hartford, Conn., president and general manager respectively of the American Radio Relay league. The league has a membership of 40,000 amateur operators.

"Information that the Czech ministry of information has ordered all Czech 'hams' to use their contacts abroad to propagandize the achievements of the so-called 'people's democracy' and foster communist 'peace' movements, has been received by Radio Free Europe," Stassen said.

"Czech 'hams' also have been ordered to acquire, through radio contacts, information about the free world's technical developments and to ask for gifts of a technical nature.

"Radio Free Europe, whose stations in Western Germany are supported by the American people through the Crusade for Freedom, also has learned that such gifts must be reported to the communist-controlled central amateur office in Prague. There, findings would be evaluated by Soviet authorities."

Stassen emphasized that the warning was not designed to discourage "people-to-people contact" between America and other nations but said that he felt American amateurs should be informed of the communist plans. He added that the communists constantly monitor the contacts developed by the Czech "hams" and that Czech violators of the Red policy are subject to the maximum penalty—death.

The Crusade currently is seeking to enroll 25,000,000 members and obtain contributions of $3,500,000 with which to expand its Radio Free Europe operations abroad by at least two more stations. A similar anti-communist propaganda operation also has been started in Asia by the Committee for a Free Asia.

Proposed Airlines Sale Denounced, Praised

WASHINGTON — (U.P.) — The proposed purchase of Mid-West airlines by Purdue university research foundation was denounced and praised by opposing airline interests Friday in written arguments filed with the Civil Aeronautics board.

John W. Cross, attorney for Mid-Continent airlines which flies in some of the same territory as Mid-West, said the deal would be bad for both Mid-West and the traveling public. He also contended it would mean a heavier outlay of mail pay by the government.

Cross' brief to Examiner James S. Keith followed one by A. L. Wheeler, attorney for Mid-West, who had argued that the purchase would mean greater development of traffic in the South Dakota-Nebraska-Iowa-Minnesota area served by Mid-West and would strengthen the carrier.

Tax on Federal Allowances Fails

Levy on Expense Accounts Rejected

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The senate finance committee Friday rejected a proposal to knock out the income tax exemption held by the president, vice-president and members of congress on their expense allowances.

The proposal was offered by Sen. John T. Williams (R-Del.). He plans to present it again later.

Chairman Walter F. George (D-Ga.) of the committee told newsmen the vote against the amendment to the pending tax bill was seven to five. He himself did not participate. George said the full senate might vote to accept the proposal.

Would Cut Compensation

The Williams proposal would have the effect of reducing the compensation of all officials affected by it.

The president now gets a $50,000 annual tax-free expense allowance along with his $100,000 salary.

The vice-president and speaker of the house have $10,000 expense allowances in addition to their $30,000 salaries.

The 96 senators and 434 house members besides the speaker are paid $12,500 in salary plus a $2,500 expense allowance.

George said one reason his group turned down the exemption proposal was that compensation of the top executives of the government and members of congress is not in the province of his committee.

Extend Filing Date

Meantime the senate passed a bill extending from Sept. 15 to Nov. 15 the deadline for filing returns under the new excess profits tax enacted last year.

The measure applies to returns for any taxable year ending after June 30, 1950, and before Feb. 1, 1951.

The bill now goes back to the house.

Governor Lauds DeMolay's Traffic Safety Program

DeMolay's current "Traffic Temperance Campaign" for curbing reckless driving among teenagers has been strongly commended by Wisconsin's governor, Walter J. Kohler, Jr., in an endorsement received by Lieut. Arden C. Pope, Madison, state DeMolay safety director.

"All of us who realize the terrible losses accruing to individuals and families as a consequence of carelessness on the highways are anxious to support such a worthwhile program," Gov. Kohler wrote.

"It is my hope that this safety campaign will result in a marked improvement in highway safety and a corresponding reduction in needless suffering and misery."

"I urge all youth and adult organizations to enlist the cooperation of their members in making this Traffic Temperance Campaign a continuing success."

The chief executive's encouraging endorsement was but one of many from other leading state and business officials. Wisconsin newspapers also have enthusiastically lauded the lads in their attempt to improve a serious situation.

Lieut. Pope, Dane county traffic safety instructor, was named to head the DeMolay campaign by Rufus F. Wells, Madison, Wisconsin DeMolay deputy for the grand council.

SAFETY, HEALTH CLINIC

The Wisconsin Council of Safety said Friday it would hold a one-day safety and health clinic for northwestern Wisconsin employers at Superior Thursday, Sept. 27.

Subscriber Cancels Ring Match with Delavan Editor

DELAVAN—(AP)—An irate subscriber has called off his scheduled boxing match with the editor of the Delavan Enterprise.

H. C. Knilans said he had intended the whole thing as a "trick" so he could meet Editor S. Robert Anderson in the boxing ring and shake hands.

Anderson had accepted the challenge, stipulating that admission be charged and that proceeds go to some worthy cause. No date had been set.

Anderson printed a letter of Knilans which blasted Republicans in general and praised the Democratic administration. The editor then offered, in print, to buy Knilans a ticket to Russia if Knilans could prove that the "Republican way of life" was detrimental to the nation.

Knilans' reply came in a 4-column advertisement in the next edition, offering to meet Anderson in the ring.

Knilans said Thursday he never had intended to get into a fight as his "personal philosophy does not include violence."

Anderson was vacationing in the north woods and was not aware of the new turn of events.

Public Welfare Records Ruled Secret by Judge

INDIANAPOLIS — (UP) — Hoosier Republicans lost another round in their fight against public welfare secrecy Friday when a federal judge in Washington ruled that Oscar Ewing had a right to cut off $20,000,000 a year in federal welfare aid to Ewing's native Indiana.

U. S. Judge Alexaner Holtzoff not only upheld the federal security administrator's right to penalize Indiana for opening its records to public inspection, but also said the ruling "should not be disturbed by the courts."

The state was expected to appeal to the U. S. supreme court.

Gov. Henry F. Schricker, who vetoed the controversial "anti-secrecy" bill passed by the 1951 legislature which caused Ewing to disinherit Indiana, had no comment on Holtzoff's ruling.

The law, Ewing said, violated federal rules making welfare information confidential.

While the Holtzoff ruling did not affect other states, some of them were watching the proceedings because they have similar laws in the mill or are considering following Indiana's lead.

GOP leaders who authored and passed the bill over Schricker's veto, were bitter and resentful.

Republican Leaders Belabor, Defend Foreign Policy

MINNEAPOLIS — (UP) — The "international aspects" of U. S. foreign policy were belabored by one Republican and defended by another Thursday night as GOP leaders from Minnesota and Wisconsin met here.

John B. Chapple editor of the Ashland, Wis., Daily Press, backed the "national" side in a GOP foreign policy debate. Valdimar Bjornson, Minnesota treasurer, opposed him.

Chapple, who has been a candidate for United States senator and for governor of Wisconsin, said the tragic internationalism of the Democratic party has given the U. S. World War I and II. He also took his own party to task and said "a wing of the Republican party was in on it too."

He identified the head of the wing as Gov. Thomas Dewey of New York and charged him with being an "internationalist who understands the rotten game which has centered in the Chase National bank of New York."

He praised Sen. Joseph McCarthy, (R-Wis.), for "his courageous stand against the Communists in our government." He said it was McCarthy who was "responsible for awakening the American people to the Communist menace in their midst."

Bjornson said that McCarthy "has done the country an invaluable service in rooting out the Communists in the administration."

"However, I still believe in the Anglo-Saxon belief that a man is innocent until proved guilty," he said, "and I refuse to follow a policy which uses a shotgun type, blanket-charge to brand men Communists."

Bjornson said he was in favor of the Marshall plan, and strongly believed in the North Atlantic pact. He said that he was not an "interpationalist" in a strict sense, but believed the U. S. "could not make a bastion of itself and stand against Communist Russia."

State Reds Receive Eviction Notice

MILWAUKEE—(UP)—The Wisconsin Communist party has moved out of its state headquarters office here after receiving a 30-day eviction notice and party leaders have disappeared.

Jack Kling, state party secretary, and Fred Bassett Blair and Sigmund Eisenscher, both party leaders and often candidates, could not be reached for comment on whether the party will try to open a new headquarters.

The party had occupied a ninth-floor office in the Manhattan building for years. But the arrest of many national leaders of the Communist party prompted J. V. Hansen, building manager, to give the state leaders an eviction notice.

Hansen said the party leaders and their office force moved out their equipment and files in the last few days.

Friends of the state party leaders said they knew nothing about the eviction or the whereabouts of the leaders.

Richard N. Hosteny, agent in charge of the Milwaukee FBI office, said agents have been investigating the Communist party here "for some time." But he said he could make "no comment" on the disappearance of the party leaders.
