ROCKY CLARK'S LISTENING POST

Funny thing about daytime radio. Networks once had the dickens of a job finding spon-ors other than soap companies for daytime programs. The big companies all wanted evening shows.

Today, the big fellows seem to be getting more interested in daytime shows. The W N A B-ABC network is completely sold out for the coming season as far as morning programs are concerned but there are plenty of evening shows available for sponsorship.

What's more Philip Morris has just signed contracts to sponsor two daytime serials on the ABC network—"Against the Storm" to be heard daily at 10 45 a.m. starting Oct 1, and "The Strange Romance of Evelyn Winters" which will move to 3 45 p.m. on the same date.

For years you'll recall ABC prided itself on having no serials NBC and CBS had their daytime schedules filled with them. But in recent years the number of soap operas has been declining. Now with the cigarette company buying a couple on ABC maybe they'll become known as "smoke operas."

"Break the Bank", currently on NBC each weekday morning moves to the WNAR-ABC network Sept 24 at 11 30 a.m. Another former evening quiz program will become a morning show Oct 1 when "Take a Number" moves into the 10 30 a.m. spot on Mutual.

The Jack Berch Show, a daily NBC feature, makes the switch to ABC Sept 24 taking over a 15 minute period at 12 noon.

There has been no announcement from NBC as to what will go into the periods vacated by ABC.Ma'e Skitch Henderson will get more time to spin records.

C. OF C BACK ON AIR

Chamber of Commerce luncheon meetings are to be recorded and rebroadcast again this season by WICC and WNAB, starting tomorrow when Norman Cousins, editor of the Saturday Review of Literature, is the speaker. WNAB will broadcast the talk at 7 30 and WICC at 10 30 p.m.

NEWS AND GOSSIPY BITS

"My Friend Irma" returns to CBS next Sunday at 8 30 p.m. but will be heard a half hour earlier starting Oct 7. CZECH 'HAMS' AIR RED PROPAGANDA

Amateur radio operators have been warned by Harold E Stassen against political propaganda being spread by Czecho-Slovakian "hams" Stassen as chairman of the Crusade for Freedom drive, sent his warning to the American Radio Relay League.

"Information that the Czech Ministry of Information has ordered all Czech 'hams' to use their contacts abroad to propagandize the achievements of the so called 'people's democracy' and foster communist 'peace' movements, has been received by Radio Free Europe," he said.

Czech "hams" have also been ordered to acquire through radio contacts, information about the free world's technical developments and to ask for gifts of a technical nature, he added. Czech "hams", he pointed out are monitored by communists, and violators of the Red policy are subject to the maximum penalty—death.

The Crusade for Freedom is seeking to enroll 25 000 000 members and raise $3 500 000 to expand its Radio Free Europe operations to combat communist propaganda.

NBC's combined radio and television facilities will carry the Crusade's special program from Rockefeller Center, Tuesday at 12 15 p.m., with Brig Gen David Sarnoff presiding. Speakers will include Francis Cardinal Spellman, Vice President Barkley, Governor Dewey, Mayor Impellitteri, Gen Lucius D. Clay, Mr. Stassen and others.

Helen Mark, director of "Meet Corliss Archer" first appeared in movies as a child in the silent movie "The Idle Inn."

Stars of Daytime Radio Serial

Les Tremayne and Alice Reinheart, husband and wife in real life, play the roles of Jeff and Virginia Carter, brother and sister, in the NBC serial, "The Woman in My House," Monday through Friday at 4:45 p.m.

ROCKY CLARK'S DISC-USSION

Frankie Lane, the former Pleasure Beach marathon dancer who is now suffering varicose veins as a result of his 'round-the-clock dancing in the early '30's, has chosen the latest composition of ex-Bridgeporter Don (Ragonese) Rodney for his newest Columbia record. It's a real catchy tune titled "Wonderful, Wasn't It", performed with a nice lilt—thanks to the capable accompaniment of Paul Weston's orchestra. Paired with "The Girl in the Wood", the dramatic type of tune Frankie does so well, the record should be a big seller.

Columbia has teamed Frank Sinatra with Harry James' band for a good lively version of "Castle Rock", the swingy dance novelty which also receives a smart RCA-Victor performance by the Fontane Sisters with Norman Leyden orchestral accompaniment. For the plattermates, Sinatra and James revive Rudy Vallee's "Deep Night", and the Fontane girls do another dance novelty 'Makin' Like a Train', inspired by the "Mexican Hat Dance."

Harry James' band has also recorded an effective instrumental coupling of a melodic oldy, 'When the Sun Comes Out", and 'Tango Blues' with a pyrotechnic trumpet solo by the maestro and a worthy tenor sax passage by Polly Poliffroni. On another disc, with vocals by the Skylarks, the James band offers the bouncy "You Blew Out the Flame and Dreamy Melody", the latter being the same tune that April Stevens hush-whispers on her RCA-Victor coupling with 'Gimme a Little Kiss, Will Ya, Huh?"

Newest canary in the RCA-Victor aviary is a lass named Cathy Mastics who has a pleasant voice and resorts to no tricks to put across straight performances of the tuneful 'Longing for You" and 'The Crazy Things You Do", with neat choral and instrumental backgrounds by Mitchell Ayres.

Mindy Carson, also on RCA-Victor, has a catchy novelty in 'Irish Stew" which is paired with "Say It Again" . . . Jo Stafford's liveliest Columbia disc of the season is 'Kissin' Bug Boogie" paired with "Hawaiian War Chant" . . . Sarah Vaughan lends her distinctive talents to "After Hours' and 'Out of Breath', a Columbia sandwich . . . Doris Day's latest Columbia pairs the catchy rhythm ditty "Ask Me", with a nostalgic oldy, "Lonesome and Sorry" . . . The Barnum avenue label also has a good schmaltzy version of 'I'll Hold You in My Heart' by Toni Arden, with 'The Day Isn't Long Enough" on the under-side.

M-G-M, which seems to be on a spree of he-men vocalists, offers a rousing Johnny Desmond version of "I Want to Be Near You' the rollicking rhythm tune, which is paired with a lazy ballad, I Will Never Change" . . . Bill Farrell sings 'I "Sunshine Kisses" and lets himself go on the bottom deck with "Go Go Go' Go" . . . Tommy Edwards, combining the quiet Nat (King) Cole technique with the phrasing of Frankie Laine, shows plenty of promise on "All Over Again' which is paired with "It's All in the Game" . . . Carleton Carpenter teams with Debbie Reynolds for catchy M-G-M revivals of "Oh By Jingo' and "Get Out and Get Under."

Ezio Pinza provides RCA-Victor with an A-1 coupling of two old favorites, "Everything I Have Is Yours" and 'I'll See You in My Dreams', from his movie "Strictly Dishonorable" . . . RCA-Victor has released a Mario Lanza coupling of two more songs from "The Great Caruso", Tosti's "A V
