TIP O' THE MORNING: Virtually every circus—including Ringling-Barnum—will play under auspices next summer, the Billboard says.

THE LITTLE HOLLYWOOD PLAYERS will return to the stage beginning Thursday, Jan. 24—and "Dixie Bash" will move into the city this week.

The Players will present "The Drunkard," old-time melodrama, at the American Legion club for three weeks. This is the same hilarious version which had Club Hollywood audiences in stitches last fall.

ROD MacDONALD

After 14 successful months at the same club, "Dixie Bash" will open at the Gold room of the Playdium on Saturday, with sessions from 9 p.m. to midnight every Saturday and Sunday.

The "Bash" originated in 1950 when Rod MacDonald, manager and master of ceremonies of a Dixie band, heard Dick Ruedebusch playing a powerful Dixie-style trumpet at Ft. Atkinson, and they got together to open at Club Hollywood in October of that year.

Their weekly sessions attracted large audiences, and the "Bash" became the most successful long-run presentation of its kind in Madison history.

Current band members are Dick Haggerty, trombone; Bob Putnam, piona; Erle Smith, clarinet; Eddie Stein, drums; Jimmy McCluskey, bass vocalist, and comedian; Ruedebusch, trumpet and leader, and Maconald, trumpet and m.c.

Meantime, Manager Earl Morris of Club Hollywood said he would continue to feature jazz entertainment.

FM CAMPAIGN: Two Madison men will speak in Milwaukee today at a conference of frequency-modulation (FM) broadcasters and radio manufacturers' and distributors' represenatives.

Ken Schmitt, manager of WIBA and WIBA-FM, will talk on "Broadcaster Cooperation" in a statewide promotion of FM which will start next month. Harold Engel, assistant director of WHA, will tell how the state FM network will take part.

Other speakers will be J. H. Smith, Jr., director of the FM department of the National Assn. of Radio and Television Broadcasters; Pete Cousins, of the Radio and Television Manufacturers' assn., and Don Whiting, of a Chicago manufacturing organization.

• • •

MARCH OF DIMES: Madison's commercial radio stations will donate considerable time to the March of Dimes and the Musicians' ball, proceeds of which will go to the drive.

All January broadcasts of University of Wisconsin and Madison high school basketball games on WIBA-FM are being dedicated to the March of Dimes.

WKOW will conduct an all-night marathon beginning at 10:30 p.m. Monday.

"MGM Theater" on WISC Saturday will boost the March.

Spot announcements and special features on WIBA, WKOW, WISC, WIBU, and WFOW also will "plug" the campaign and the Jan. 31 ball.
