TIP O' THE MORNING: There's a new switch in the television-movie situation. Independent producers of TV films are considering re-editing them for theater release in non-TV areas.

* * *

MICHAEL RABIN, 16-YEAR-OLD violinist who will be here next season on the Wisconsin Union concert series, and Zino Francescatti, who was on the list a couple of years ago, will join forces on "Great Artists" (NBC-WIBA) a week from tonight.

MICHAEL RABIN

They will play the first movement of Bach's "Double Violin Concerto."

Rabin made his debut on the program when he was 13. In the same year, he recorded 11 Paganini "Caprices" for Columbia, and the LP disc showed him to be a musician of infinite skill. When the young violinist gave his first Carnegie hall concert in 1950, critics called him "skilled beyond his years" and "one of the most gifted and accomplished talents to come along in many a year."

Michael's father is a member of the violin section of the New York Philharmonic-Symphony orchestra.

And here's note about Michael and another young musician:

"In a modest, attractive apartment on New York's West End ave. the other day there was a lot of drama. Two gifted young men, still in their teens, met and shared their respective talents with only their proud mothers to watch. The two boys were 14-year-old Ralph John Jackno of Dearborn, Mich., and 16-year-old Michael Rabin of New York.

"Ralph, son of a Detroit electrician, won the annual national competition sponsored by the Young People's Concerts committee of the Philharmonic Symphony society for composers under 17. He wrote a brief fantasia for violin and piano which was played last week by Michael at the Philharmonic Young People's concert at Carnegie hall.

"The boys met at the Rabin apartment—shy, quiet Ralph and the more outgoing Mike. After Mike had congratulated his visitor, Jeanne Rabin, Mike's mother, accompanied her young son with Ralph turning the pages. The two kids talked music, music, music for awhile—then—you guessed it, they were hungry and over thick sandwiches and milk, talked more music."

While on the subject of Union series artists and recordings, let's consider George London.

He is the richly-gifted bass-baritone who sang here first with the Bel Canto trio and this season as a soloist. His first American-made album has just been issued by Columbia, and on it he sounds as good as he did on the Viennese recordings of "The Marriage of Figaro" and The Magic Flute," put out here by the same company.

The new 12-inch LP holds arias from "Prince Igor," "The Demon," and "Patrie," plus the complete fifth act of Massenet's "Don Quichotte," with London singing both Don Quixote and Sancho Panza and Rosalind Nadell as Dulcinea.

ON THE AIR: The Central State College band and girls' glee club, directed by Peter Michelsen, will give a program at 2 p.m. Wednesday on WHA and the state FM network. Michelsen once was conductor of the Richland Center high school band.

+ + +

ON TELEVISION: Rusty Lane, formerly of Madison, will play a Chicago reporter who solves a "phantom robber" case on the television version of "Big Story" Friday night. The robbery and murder occurred in Rockford, Ill.

Rockefeller Grants of $2,000,000 for Research Disclosed

NEW YORK—(UP)—The Rockefeller Foundation announced Sunday it had made grants totaling $2,001,098 during the first three months of this year for projects ranging from an encyclopaedia on the Moslem religion to an atlas of the brain.

The largest grant — $200,000— went to finance a new floor on Sweden's Karolinska Institute in Stockholm. The addition will house an experimental surgical laboratory.

Princeton university received $100,000 to expand its program of Near East studies, and the Tavistock Institute of Human Relations in London received $105,000 toward its studies of group and community behaviour.

The Scripps Foundation for research in population problems at Miami university, Oxford, O., received $98,500 for studies in the roles of migration and fertility on population growth and distribution and other phases of population.

The encyclopaedia of Islam will be revised by the American Council of Learned Societies, under the auspices of the Royal Netherlands Academy, with a grant of $15,000.

A grant of $12,750 was given to the University of Wurzburg, Germany, toward the work of Dr. Georges Schaltenbrandt, who is preparing an atlas of the human brain. He is being aided by Prof. Percival Bailey of the University of Illinois.

Elizabeth to Mark 'Real' Birthday Today

LONDON —(AP)— Queen Elizabeth II, who will have two birthdays a year all the rest of her life, will observe her real one today.

She will be 26.

On June 5 she will have an official birthday, which will be an affair of pomp and ceremony.

Her real birthday today will be her first as queen.

There are two reasons for two birthdays.

One is that, whereas a sovereign may be born any old time, it is better to hold the official celebration in some month likely to provide good weather for the parades and other functions.

The other reason is that it is customary for the sovereign to bestow titles and distribute honors and decorations twice a year, on Jan. 1, and on his birthday. It it desirable to keep these occasions about a half year apart.

Flood Waters Seen as Threat to Game

Rangers of the Mississippi River Wild Life Refuge in Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Iowa expect the flooding river to take a heavy toll of wild animals on islands and in bottom lands.

Rangers said the high water is hardest on upland game, such as deer, pheasant, squirrel, and rabbits, that have moved to bottom lands. Forced back to the uplands by rising water the animals face danger crossing railroads and highways. Deer often drown trying to swim swollen rivers.

Rivermen have reported seeing muskrat, beaver, and otter, which ordinarily build nests in bottom lands this time of year, swimming the river and nesting in trees on the shore.

It's a "Who's Who" of the Highway!

If you could see a list of all the distinguished people who own and drive the Cadillac car, you would know, beyond any question, that the statement made in this headline is true.

For the roster of Cadillac owners includes literally tens of thousands of the best-known and most respected names of our day . . . men and women of recognized accomplishment and achievement . . . leaders in virtually every phase of business, of industry, and of the professions.

There is, as you would expect, excellent reason why these many distinguished motorists, with such varied personalities and interests, have long found a common meeting-ground in Cadillac.

It is because they demand superlative things from their motor cars.

They demand great beauty . . . a majesty of styling and a luxury of interior that leave literally nothing to be desired. And they have found it in Cadillac!

They demand great performance—that rare combination of power, responsiveness, handling ease and riding comfort that makes every drive a rest and every journey a pleasure. And they have found it in Cadillac!

They demand distinction—dignity and bearing that represent them as persons of standing in their own world of affairs. And they have found it in Cadillac!

Yes, and they demand economy—for even the motorist of means prides himself on his practical wisdom. And it is in Cadillac that they have found outstanding operating economy combined with these great motor car virtues.

Perhaps, as you've been reading this, you've discovered that you, too, would like to find in your motor car the wonderful things these distinguished motorists have found in Cadillac.

If you have—then come in and see us.

One look at the beautiful Golden Anniversary Cadillac—and one ride behind its wheel—will tell you there has never been a more wonderful year for entering your name in the "Who's Who" of the highway!
