'STRIKE IT RICH': A two-and-a-half-year-old Watertown girl was benefited to the tune of $500 recently on the TV and radio show "Strike It Rich." Maureen Miller, 1301 Center st., who lost her hearing when she was 9 months old and has been under doctors' care ever since, was the recipient of the "helping hand" of Screen Star Ann Blyth, who appeared as her proxy on the "quiz show with a heart."

Mrs. Joyce Derge, aunt of little Maureen, brought her case to the attention of Walt Framer, producer of "Strike It Rich," with a letter:

"I am writing this in hope that someone might strike it rich for my sister, who is the mother of three small children: Mary, 5, Michael, 4, and Maureen, 2½. It is for Maureen that we would like a helping hand. Up until she was 18 months old she was ill from high fevers in addition to loss of hearing and now she has to be sent to another specialist for further treatment."

Ann Blyth served as Maureen's proxy and answered Warren Hull's questions. Today, Maureen has $500 for her medical expenses, thanks to "Strike It Rich."

Canterbury Cathedral Ordains an American

CANTERBURY, England —(AP)— An American was ordained Sunday in Canterbury cathedral, the first so honored.

He was Sumner F. D. Walters Jr., son of the bishop of San Joaquin, Calif., who watched the ordination and read the epistle.

The archbishop of Canterbury, in white and gold cape and carrying the mitre, sat in the archepiscopal throne.

U.S. Plane Strength Up 30% in England

LONDON—(AP)—The United States Third Air Force in England increased its bomber-fighter strength by about 30 per cent Sunday.

A wing — between 40 and 50 planes—of B-45 medium bombers flew in from Langley Field, Va., via Iceland, to the big U. S. air base at Sculthorpe. The B-45 is a four jet medium bomber.

Earlier, a wing of F-84 Thunderjet fighters flew in from Langley field to the U. S. fighter base at Wethersfield.

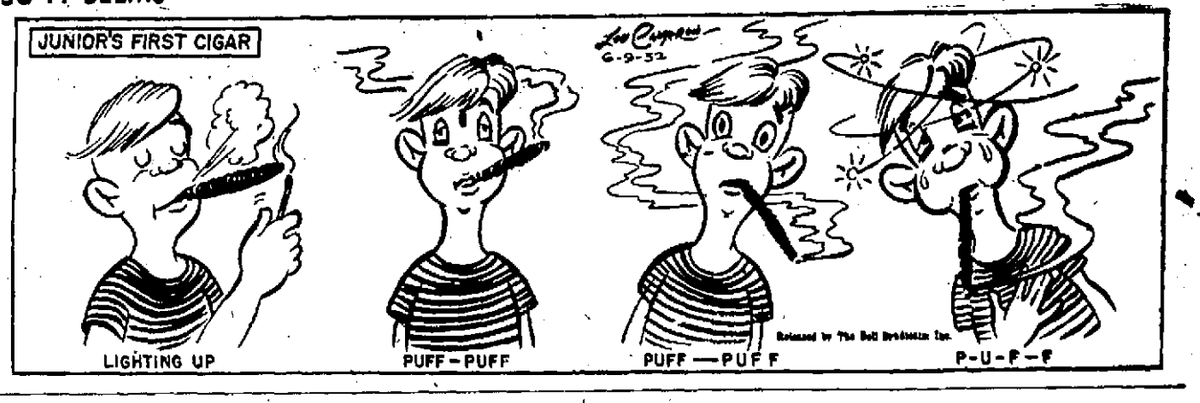
SO IT SEEMS

By Lou Cameron



JACOBY ON BRIDGE

By Oswald Jacoby

When today's hand was played in the recent tournament at Ashbury park some North-South pairs wound up at three no-trump.

They all lived to regret it since there was practically no play at all for nine tricks against a spade opening.

At some tables the superior contract of four hearts was reached, usually with the help of the Stayman Convention.

North's response of two clubs did not show a suit but merely asked South to show a biddable major, if he could. After that it was easy to reach a game contract in hearts.

At one table the game in hearts was defeated by a fine defensive play. West opened a low spade and South won with the ace. Declarer properly led the eight of hearts and let it ride for a finesse.

When it held he continued with the four of hearts, West put up the jack, and dummy won with the ace.

East's discard gave the declarer a nasty jolt.

With a normal 3-2 trump break his game contract would have been very easy. With the actual break he was in trouble.

Declarer now switched to clubs, knocking out West's ace. At this point, West was tempted to lay down the king of hearts and continue with his low heart to clean up the trump suit.

Such a defense would have permitted declarer to take 10 tricks.

West saw the light in time. Instead of leading out the trumps he cashed the queen of spades and led a third spade, forcing dummy to ruff.

Now South was doomed.

If he tried to draw trumps, West could take the king of hearts and continue with his fourth spade to knock out declarer's last trump.

If declarer failed to tackle the trumps West would ruff a diamond with his small trump, after which the king of hearts would take the setting trick.
