Man Who Outlived Policy Leaves $40,000

Edmund S. Cooper, 97-year-old retired Madison traveling salesman, who made news the year before his death Oct. 30 by collecting in full, plus dividends, on his own life insurance policy because he lived longer than calculated by the insurance company's mortality tables, left an estimated estate of $40,000, County Court records revealed late Friday afternoon.

Mr. Cooper bequeathed $200 each to two sisters, Mrs. Lettie Fargo, Evanston, Ill., and Mrs. Lottie Winn, Los Angeles, Calif.; his home and furnishings at 1811 Jefferson st. to a daughter, Cornelia, with whom he lived, and the remainder of his estate equally to four daughters, Cornelia, Mrs. Abbie W. Johnston, Evanston, Mrs. Leta I. Power, Palo Alto, Calif., and Mrs. Doris E. Vernon, Waukesha.

LEE S. DREYFUS, alumnus of and former instructor at the University of Wisconsin, has been appointed manager of WDET, Detroit, operated by Wayne university. Dreyfus received his bachelor and master of arts degrees here, and was an instructor in speech before joining Wayne's speech department.

Louise Lockwood Carpenter, pianist; Beatrice Hagen violinist, and three members of the Pro Arte quartet will give a concert at 8:15 p. m. Wednesday in the Milwaukee Athenaeum. The Pro Arte members are Rudolf Kolisch, violin; Bernard Milofsky, viola, and Ernst Friedlander, cello.

Clergymen who will talk on "Your Pastor Speaks" over WIBA nightly at 10:15 p. m. have been announced for next week as follows:

Monday, the Rev. Andrew Lamb-right, Plymouth Congregational; Tuesday, the Rev. F. Paul Splett, Zion American Lutheran; Wednesday, the Rev. Charles A. Rota, Lake Edge Congregational; Thursday, the Rev. James Kramer, Catholic diocese and Friday, the Rev. Nicholas Kouletsis, Grace Episcopal.

The prop list for the Madison Theater Guild's production "First Lady" caused a good deal of trouble, when it was found that a stuffed fish was required. The particular fish was supposed to be an amberjack. Madison was searched, first for a stuffed amberjack, and failing that, for any stuffed fish that might substitute. Finally a mounted lake trout was turned up hanging in Kallin's Tobacco Bar on State st. The only change that had to be made was that all lines in the play referring to the "amberjack" were changed to "lake trout."

Parolee Gets 1-2 Years for Putting Sugar in Gas Tanks

Eaton Bonneville, 30-year-old parolee from Superior, was sentenced Friday in Superior Court to one to two years in Waupun state prison for attempting to damage four cars and a truck by putting sugar in the gasoline tanks.

Bonneville's sentence will run concurrently with the remaining year he has to serve for violation of the parole given him a year ago from Waupun state prison to which he was sentenced in 1949 for stealing a car in Superior.

BONNEVILLE

The cars and truck which Bonneville attempted to damage are owned by Henry A. Dorn, 1341 Vilas ave., a grocer, and his three sons, Jerome, Harold and Joseph.

Bonneville also was charged with procuring beer for two Madison boys, aged 16 and 17, who helped him put the sugar in the gas tanks, and with assaulting a 19-year-old girl with whom he had immoral activities.

The assault charge was dismissed on motion of Asst. Dist. Atty. Joseph Goodman, because the girl, who has a long police record, has left Dane County.

Bonneville was given an indefinitely postponed sentence for buying two six-can packs of beer for the two boys, and the boys have been placed under the supervision of County Probation Officer L. W. Amborn.

Hearing Wednesday on MacIntyre Case

Circuit Judge Herman W. Sachtjen Friday afternoon scheduled a hearing for 2 p.m. next Wednesday on whether Darrell MacIntyre Jr., 18-year-old son of Atty. and Mrs. Darrell MacIntyre, 3311 Lake Mendota dr., was legally bound over to Circuit Court for trial on a charge of buying beer for four 16 and 17-year-old boys.

Superior Judge Roy H. Proctor last month found that there was probable cause to believe that the offense had been committed by young MacIntyre, and bound him over to Circuit Court for trial.

Atty. MacIntyre claims that the law under which his son was charged does not apply to persons other than bar owners and their employes, and that the state did not produce enough evidence to hold his son for trial.

Young MacIntyre is at liberty on $50 bail pending trial.

Details Released on 'Pentagon' Built 'Inside Mountain'

WASHINGTON (U.P.)—Some details of a vast, atom-proof cavern the Army is building inside a mountain near here were revealed Friday in a Corp of Engineers booklet.

All the Army has said about the secret project five miles east of Ft. Ritchie, Md., was that it would be a communications center. The booklet disclosed that a three-story building is being constructed in a huge hole drilled and blasted in Raven Rock Mountain.

The project has been nicknamed the "Underground Pentagon." Reporters heard it was to be used as a communications hub in event other facilities were knocked out by atomic attack.

A booklet called "A Historical Summary of the Work of the Corps of Engineers in Washington, D. C., and Vicinity, 1852-1952" contains a picture of the mammouth tunnel. It disclosed that about 500,000 cubic yards of rock had been blasted out of the mountain in the last 10 months.

The underground chamber will have special facilities for filtering out gas and biological agents and for emergency power and water supplies, the booklet said.

The book made Army officials at the Pentagon visibly unhappy.

They said the engineers not only neglected to clear the book through regular Army public information but also failed to get it reviewed for possible security breaches.

75% of New Homes Sold for Under $15,000

WASHINGTON (U.P.) — The National Association of Home Builders reported Friday that three of every four homes built in the first nine months of this year sold for less than $15,000.

The association based its report on a survey of state and local affiliates, whose 25,000 members account for 80 per cent of all housing erected in metropolitan areas of the United States.

The survey, the association said also disclosed that the overwhelming majority of the 818,000 homes started in the January-September period were purchased by lower and middle income families.

Housing prices in the so-called "luxury" brackets above $20,000 averaged barely 7 per cent for the nine-month construction period.

City Dentist 'Improved' After Tomah Crash

Dr. Robert R. Ryan, Madison dentist who was injured in an automobile accident near Tomah Oct. 17, was described as being in "improved condition" Friday afternoon at a Tomah hospital, where he was taken after the accident.

Gladys Ramsett, Green Bay woman who was injured in the same accident, also was reported in "improved condition" at the hospital.

Dr. Ryan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ryan, 2612 Mason st., will resume his dental practice at 4613 Monona dr., as soon as his physician permits.

Dunlap Expected to Quit Tax Post

WASHINGTON (U.P.) — The Internal Revenue Bureau may operate under a new "caretaker" commissioner for about two months before Dwight D. Eisenhower takes over as President.

Commissioner John B. Dunlap is expected to vacate the post before Dec. 1 to become head of the new revenue District of Texas and Oklahoma.

Under the bureau reorganization, the commissioner's job will be the only political post in the tax service after Dec. 1. All other personnel will be under civil service.

If Dunlap gets the district job, President Truman possibly will name one of the commissioner's three assistants to direct the bureau of an "acting" basis until Eisenhower enters the White House Jan. 20 and makes a permanent appointment.

Dunlap came up through the ranks to take charge of the bureau in July, 1951, at the height of the tax scandal investigation. He managed to stay on the good side of Congress until last week when a House subcommittee accused him of spurning a subpena for records in a tax refund case.

Shriners Hear Talk on Proposed Toll Road

Edward J. Konkol, executive secretary of the Wisconsin Good Roads Association, said Friday in a talk at a Madison Shrine club luncheon that the proposed toll road paralleling Highway 12 across Wisconsin would cost about $600,000 a mile.

He said the project would be financed by a bond issue and that much of the money could be recovered by toll charges for trucks and cars using the completed road.

The road would be about 287 miles long, he said, and the toll for a passenger car would be about 1½ cents a mile.

Landon, Woodring Ask Ike to Forego Trip

TOPEKA, Kans. (U.P.) — Former Kansas Gov. Alf M. Landon, the 1936 Republican presidential nominee, and former Secretary of War Harry H. Woodring issued a joint statement Friday opposing President-Elect Dwight D. Eisenhower's plan to go to Korea.

Landon said Eisenhower would have to go to Korea to make good on his pledge "unless there is a demand in view of the crucial times that the trip should not be made."

He said he believed national affairs made such a demand.

"It is too great a risk for the welfare of the American people for what can be gained by making the trip," he said.

Woodring, a Democrat and also a former governor of Kansas, said "these are troubled times and there should be some way for Gen. Eisenhower to get the information by sending some military official to get the facts and still uphold his commitment on the Korean situation."

Judge Studies Fiore Pay Case

Briefs Ordered in Drivers Issue

A. J. Fiore's court contest of a Wisconsin Employment Relations Board (WERB) order which directed the Fiore Coal and Oil Co., 620 W. Mifflin st., to pay 10 former truck drivers overtime pay, was taken under advisement Friday afternoon by Circuit Judge Herbert A. Bunde, Wisconsin Rapids.

Judge Bunde heard the case here in place of Circuit Judges Alvin C. Reis or Herman W. Sachtjen, who were busy with other cases. He ordered the attorneys, Asst. Atty. Gen. Beatrice Lampert, Atty. John Lawton, representing the truck drivers' union, and Atty. Joseph Melli, Fiore's counsel, to file briefs in 20 days.

The WERB ordered Fiore to pay 10 truck drivers an estimated $2,000 in overtime pay for work done between Mar. 1, 1950, to Feb. 1, 1951, before Fiore sold his gasoline interests to the Sinclair Oil Co.

Although the drivers, all members of the AFL Chauffers, Teamsters, and Helpers union No. 442, had made a verbal agreement with Fiore not to demand time and a half pay for the overtime work, the WERB ruled that Fiore had committed an "unfair labor practice" by not paying them the overtime salaries as agreed upon in union contracts signed in January and October, 1950.

The contracts forbade individual agreements in variance with the contract agreements, the WERB held.

The truck drivers, all now working for other firms, are Russell Good, R. O. Bridges, Ray Olson, H. Steele, C. Gleason, Thomas Crimmons, J. H. Flint, Richard Snell, L. Farr, and A. A. Richards.

Suit for Recovery of $22,000 Check Settled at Wausau

WAUSAU (AP) — A Federal Court suit for recovery of a $22,000 check was settled Friday after L. B. Olmsted testified he was too drunk to know what he was doing when he signed the check as a down payment on the Lakeview Motel at Minocqua.

Federal Judge Patrick Stone announced settlement of the suit after the jury of six men and six women had listened to testimony since Thursday.

Olmsted claimed he didn't even know he signed a contract last February to purchase the $210,000 motel from John J. O'Leary. He sought recovery of the $22,000.

O'Leary claimed Olmsted was not drunk but wanted to buy the motel for a former wife.

Olmsted, who spends his summers at Minocqua, and O'Leary were friends for 30 years before the current dispute arose.

Roosevelt's Daughter Will Marry Physician

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (U.P.) — Mrs. Anna Roosevelt Boettiger, 46, and her fiance, Dr. James Addison Halsted, 48, obtained a marriage license here Friday, less than 24 hours after plans for their wedding were announced in New York.
