Brodhead Music Club to Observe 50th Anniversary

BRODHEAD—One of Wisconsin's oldest music clubs, the Chaminade club of Brodhead, will celebrate its 50th anniversary Thursday with a tea at the Congregational church.

A program at 2:30 p.m. will precede the tea.

Only charter member who has maintained her membership for all the 50 years is Mrs. Minnie Collins, who last year was elected president emeritus and honorary member.

Mrs. Collins is a member of the committee arranging for the tea, serving with Mrs. Nellie Stair, Mrs. Walter Bliss, and Mrs. William Behrens.

Mrs. Oren Burt will be chairman of the program, to be given by Mrs. Donald Edwards, voice; Mrs. Bliss, piano, and Mrs. Collins, a history of the club.

Ike Praises All 27 Funkley Residents for Cancer Work

WASHINGTON (AP) —President Eisenhower Tuesday praised the citizens of Funkley, Minn.—all 27 of them—for their efforts on behalf of the American Cancer society.

Twenty-four of the residents of the tiny northwest Minnesota town visited the President as part of their reward for 100 per cent participation in a cancer dressing program.

"I really want to congratulate you on your record," Mr. Eisenhower said. He added that the percentage of their participation in the cancer bandage program counted much more with him than their small number.

Nine residents of nearby farms accompanied the villagers. Three didn't get to see the President.

They were 84-year-old Henry Huffsuttler, who was too ill to leave home, and 75-year-old Dick Smith who remained behind to keep him company. E. J. Wooden, 78-year-old mayor, made the trip to Washington but slipped in his hotel bathtub Monday night and broke two ribs.

The group included eight children, including one-year-old Nancy Louise Nagel. Members were presented to Mr. Eisenhower by Minnesota Republicans Sen. Edward J. Thye and Reps. Harold C. Hagen and Walter H. Judd.

Nine-year-old Richard Stransky presented the President with a small statue of Paul Bunyan. Three-year-old Charles Nagel gave him a statue of Bunyan's famed blue ox.

The trip, arranged by the American Cancer Society, included four days in New York.

After meeting the President, the group lunched in the house cafeteria and toured the capitol. The visitors left by plane for Minneapolis at 6 p.m.

Indiana Man Jailed on Check Charges

James P. Zimmerman, 24, Mishawaka, Ind., was sent to jail to await sentence Tuesday when he pleaded guilty in Superior Court to cashing two $300 checks he forged with the name of John Lydon, town of Fitchburg farmer.

Zimmerman was working on Lydon's farm, while the latter was in a hospital three months ago, and cashed the checks at the Parkside shopping center, 606 S. Park st.
