THREE BANDS will join in a concert Wednesday and Thursday nights at Edgewood auditorium. They are the Edgewood high school band, directed by Don Marcouiller; the Catholic All-City band, directed by Roger Muzzy, and the Catholic All-City Cadet band, directed by Darrell Aderman and David Beadle.

Prof. Emmett Sarig of the University of Wisconsin extension division will be guest conductor.

Tom Kammer, trombone, and Loretta Brehly, voice, will be soloists with the Edgewood band. A clarinet quartet—Dorene Germain, Barbara Chryst, Frank Hebl, and Tim Harrington—will appear in the All-City band's portion of the program.

Under Marcouiller's direction, the high school band has progressed through all four classes in its four years of playing in district music festivals—and has won a first-division rating in each class.

In addition, it took first place for three consecutive years in competition at Catholic War Veterans conventions and this year won permanent possession of that organization's state championship band trophy.

DISC OF THE DAY: As a memorial to Adolf Busch, Columbia has reissued (on a 10-inch LP) the Schubert "Trio in E Flat" as played by Busch, violin; Herman Busch, cello, and Rudolf Serkin, piano. It's chamber music at its best—intimate, lovely, provocative.

TODAY'S LAUGH: Van Johnson tells this one about his early days as an actor in New York.

Seems he moved into a tiny room in a boarding house, looked around, and said to the landlady:

"Don't you think that window is rather small in case of an emergency?"

"There won't be any emergency," she said. "My terms are cash in advance."

USE ONLY ONCE

DOVER, N. H. (U.P.)—Judge Ovila J. Gregoire allowed that Gerard J. Tremblay had a good excuse for forgetting to renew his driving license but warned him not to try to use it again. Tremblay said he forgot about it in the excitement of getting married.

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (U.P.)—Peter Yekhtikian, 19, had a busy day. He answered a summons for district court to face charges of operating a truck without brakes, he went to police court to answer a parking summons, and a third summons took him to his draft board.

Lone Survivor Tells Story of Texas Crash

MARSHALL, Tex. (UP) — A bride who miraculously survived a plane crash that killed 19 persons said Monday that the plane hit an "air pocket" and shuddered and the next thing she remembers was seeing flames.

The bride, Mrs. Hazel Cox, 21, of Panama City, Fla., was the only person who survived the crash Sunday of the Delta-Chicago and Southern Airlines DC-3. Fifteen adult passengers, a 2-month-old baby, and a crew of three died in the crash of the two-engined plane.

"I had fallen asleep in the rain," Mrs. Cox, who has been married five months said. "The plane evidently hit an air pocket (down draft) and it woke me up.

"Just after the plane seemed to hit the air pocket, it seemed to shudder. Then I saw some flames. I don't seem to recall whether it was lightning or fire.

"The next thing I remember was sitting in a mud puddle. I tried to get up and find the baby (Jesse David Fincher of Atlanta, Ga.) but I couldn't see it anywhere.

"Then I heard a man moaning over next to a tree. I tried to get up to go over there but couldn't walk. So I stayed where I was until the Negroes came to the scene."

The Negroes were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Evans, the first persons to reach the scene. While Mrs. Evans covered Mrs. Cox with quilts and held her head in her arms, her husband went for help.

Her injuries included two fractures of the knee and one of the lower left leg. Her husband, Air Force S-Sgt. J. W. Cox, whom she was going to meet in Jackson, Miss., relayed her story of the crash.

Cox had been transferred from Albuquerque, N. M., preparatory to being shipped overseas, and was visiting friends in Jackson. A representative of the air line told him his wife was the only survivor and had him flown to her bedside.

Cox went to the crash scene, about 20 miles east of Marshall, and stayed an hour. He found her baggage and said most of it survived the crash.

"I surely don't see how anyone got out alive," he said. "I guess she was mighty lucky. It was her first trip in a plane. I thought it would be a nice trip for her."
