
TIP O' THE MORNING: "Moulin Rouge," screened privately at the Orpheum theater Tuesday, is a praiseworthy picture. The praise will be given in a review just before its public opening at the same theater later this month.

DON HOTTON, University of Wisconsin student from Milwaukee, is one of three winners of scholarships at the Belfry theater near Williams Bay for the 1953 summer season. He has been in several Wisconsin Players shows in Madison.

Hotton is the son of Mrs. Esther Hotton of WTMJ, one of the founders of Belfry Players.

Other 1953 scholarship holders are Del Close, Manhattan, Kan., a student at the State University of Iowa, and Thomas Koutsoukus, Chicago, a student at the Goodman theater.

Tryouts for the first production of the Belfry Players' 20th season will be held at 2 p. m. Sunday, June 14, in the Belfry theater. The opening play will be "The Curious Savage."

Howard Lambert of the Janesville Little Theater will return as director.

Opening dates for the season:

July 2, "The Curious Savage" . . . July 9, "The Druid Circle" . . . July 23, "Miranda" . . . Aug. 6, "Be Your Age" . . . Aug. 20, "Portrait in Black" . . . Sept 3, "Bell, Book, and Candle."

The first play will run five nights and the last 10 nights; all others will be presented nine nights each.

NAMES IN THE NEWS: Now officially known as Cheryl Corby, organist Deladene Orr — formerly of Madison — is playing at the Cottonwood Room of the Blackstone hotel, Omaha, Nebr.

Ray J. White and William Mash, West high school pupils, have received awards for four paintings entered in the Milwaukee Journal's annual calendar competition. White's "Sand Country Pheasants," a water color, received a first prize and a $100 savings bond. Mash's "Alley Perspective," an oil, won an honorable mention. Two other entries by White also took honorable mentions. All four pictures will be reproduced in the calendar.

Stan Kenton and his orchestra will broadcast their June 9 NBC program from the Riviera, Lake Geneva, Wis.

Walter O'Keefe will introduce a new quiz show, "Wizard of Odds", on CBS June 8.

Mercedes McCambridge will star in a dramatic show, "Family Skelton," by Carlton "One Man's Family" Morse on CBS starting June 8.

Elliott Lewis will produce and direct "Crime Classics" for the same network starting June 15, replacing "Suspense" for the summer.

Theodore Granik's "American Forum of the Air" will celebrate its 25th anniversary Sunday on NBC-WIBA.

Edith Fellows and John Tyers will have the leading roles in "Up in Central Park," the opening bill of the St. Louis Municipal Opera season. The show will open Thursday, close June 14.

Tom D'Andrea, comedian who has made a hit as Gillis on NBC-TV's "The Life of Riley" has signed a long-term contract with NBC. He will develop a new radio series to start in the Fall.

Willard Waterman will stay on the air all summer in "The Great Gildersleeve" (NBC-WMAQ.)

JUST ASK A CABBY: In America, a cross-section of public opinion on a given subject can be had by asking a group of those voluble citizens who drive taxicabs. The same apparently applies in London, where Howard K. Smith, chief of the European staff of CBS Radio News, sought the views of cabbies on the Coronation.

Here are some typical cab driver reactions, as reported on "You and the Coronation," CBS Radio series of background features on the historic event:

"The royal family? I wouldn't have their job for five thousand pounds a year!"

"I think it's just a waste of good public money."

"Traffic conditions are so bad the people just won't get in a cab."

One cabby, totally unimpressed, commented "I think the sooner they do away with these parasites and what they represent, the better it will be for all of us."

A more tender emotion was expressed by the proprietor of a portable tea wagon just outside Westminster Abbey:

"I could never for the life of me understand why it was that Elizabeth picked on Phillip, because I knew her first and she's seen me many times."

LAST PASSENGER

PITTSFIELD, Mass. (U.P.)—With only one passenger aboard, Luther E. Sears of Lenox piloted the last Boston and Albany railroad passenger train between Pittsfield and North Adams, ending a service started 107 years ago.

New Military Chiefs Approved

Senators Give Unanimous Vote

WASHINGTON (UP) — The Senate Tuesday unanimously confirmed President Eisenhower's new military high command, headed by Adm. Arthur W. Radford as chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Also confirmed were Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway to be Army chief of staff, Gen. Nathan F. Twining as Air Force chief of staff, and Adm. Robert B. Carney as chief of naval operations.

Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson already has committed the new military chieftans to a complete restudy of this country's global defense policies to see if they can get more protection for less money.

Radford replaces Gen. Omar N. Bradley. Ridgway succeeds Gen. J. Lawton Collins, Twining takes over from Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg and Carney replaces Adm. William M. Fechteler.

All the nominations were approved earlier by the Senate Armed Services committee after the military chiefs promised to consult with Mr. Eisenhower if they feel that economies are jeopardizing national security.

The new joint chiefs, who had the backing of Senate Republican Leader Robert A. Taft, were assured of confirmation.

Taft, who was not present for Tuesday's vote, has charged that the outgoing military chiefs were too close to the previous Democratic administration to take a real "new look" at global military strategy.

Boys Still Ahead, Girl Says as She Counts Up Triplets

MARSHFIELD (AP)—Little Beverly Brock was not impressed Tuesday over the fact she suddenly has two more sisters and a brother.

"The boys are still ahead of the girls, then," she said when her dad, Ray Brock, told her that her mother had had triplets Monday afternoon at St. Joseph hospital here.

The Brocks now have nine children and Beverly was right. There are five boys and four girls.

Two of the new Brocks—James Michael, who weighed in at 5 pounds 10 ounces, and Jane Marie, at 6 pounds 3½ ounces—are in the regular hospital nursery. The third, Jean Mary, who weighed only 2 pounds 10 ounces, is in an incubator.

The other children range from 7 down to 1 year, with Beverly the oldest. Dennis is 5, Betty 4, Kenneth 3, Jerry 2, and Glen 1.

Brock, 32, and his wife, live on a 120-acre farm near the village of Vesper. Mrs. Brock celebrated her 27th birthday anniversary today.

Court Rules Fire Victims Can Sue Phone Company

West Bend property owners who suffered loss due to a fire on Dec. 20, 1950, should have the right to have their suits against the Wisconsin Telephone Co. heard in court, the State Supreme Court ruled Tuesday.

The high court reversed Circuit Judge William C. O'Connell who had dismissed the suits brought against the utility. The complainants claimed damages in excess of $40,000 on contention that failure of the utility to provide quick service resulted in the loss.

The fire broke out at the Christenson and Arndt plant shortly before 1 a. m. Two unidentified persons reported the fire to the telephone operator but there was a delay of 17 minutes after the call before an alarm was sounded.

There also was a delay in getting a call through for a wrecker to move cars that blocked entrance to the plant.

In ordering the case returned for trial, the Supreme Court held the plaintiffs were entitled to all reasonable inferences which could be drawn from the facts pleaded.

City Art Supervisor Leaves $106,000

L. Irene Buck, art education supervisor in Madison schools for 30 years, who died Feb. 14, left an estate of $106,642, an official inventory filed late Tuesday afternoon in County Court revealed.

Miss Buck's estate previously had been estimated at $29,500. The inventory showed it contained a $21,900 home at 1107 Merrill Springs rd., and $84,742 personal property, which included $27,656 in the teachers' retirement fund and $32,513 in bonds held in joint tenancy with her brother, Carroll W. Buck, Chicago.

Since Miss Buck left no will, the entire estate will go to the brother.
