GOLDENROD CLEARED

CARBONDALE, Ill. (U.P.) — Don't blame goldenrod for those sneezes and sniffles, says Dr. Leo Kaplan, assistant professor of botany at Southern Illinois University. The goldenrod is pollinated largely by insects, and its pollen seldom is found in the air in sufficient quantity to cause hay fever attacks. Ragweed is the true villain, he added.

Christmas Card Benefit Show Includes Area Quartet Singers

Madison chapter, SPEBSQSA, Inc., sponsor of the Quartet Christmas Card, a benefit show at West high school Saturday at 8 p.m., draws its members not only from Madison but from DeForest, Lake Mills, Cross Plains, Middleton, Sun Prairie, Barneveld, and Evansville.

The chapter is one of 60 in the Land o' Lakes district and one of 650 in the entire society thoroughout the United States, Canada, the Hawaiian Islands, and Alaska. It was organized in 1945 and has 56 active dues-paying and singing members.

The chapter's chorus, for five years champion of the Land O' Lakes district, is directed by Joseph L. Ripp and rehearses each Tuesday night at the Elks club.

Out-of-town men are among the most faithful in attendance. They are:

Paul Bois, Lake Mills; J. B. Green, Evansville; Thomas R. Harris, Barneveld; Clement Haswell, DeForest; Chester Maas, Clifford Voss, and Dr. F. H. Lantz, Middleton; Donald H. Ring, Sun Prairie; and Donald Thompson, Cross Plains.

Four members are university students, from Milwaukee, who make up a quartet, the Treble Shooters, which will not be heard in the show Saturday night due to Christmas vacation. Members are Robert D. Schmidt, Mark A. Rusch, Thomas R. Hoffmann, and Richard Robbins.

The Madison chorus will sing two groups of songs Saturday night, at the start of each half of the show, including two Christmas carols. Six quartets, including the Schmitt Brothers of Two Rivers and the Cardinals and For-Mor of Madison, will also sing.

All proceeds of the show will be donated to the Empty Stocking Club and the Kiddie Camp. Tickets can be obtained from chapter members, at Madison Newspapers, Inc., and at the Forbes-Meagher, Golf, Ward-Brodt, and Victor music stores.
