AT THE THEATERS: Theaters here are planning special daytime and night shows for New Year's Eve and New Year's Day.

The Capitol will have an advance showing of "His Majesty O'Keefe," starring Burt Lancaster, Thursday night. The bill also will include community singing, balloon showers, and other attractions appropriate to the day.

A special New Year's party for boys and girls will be staged at the same theater 1 to 4 p. m. Thursday. "Hondo," starring John Wayne, will open at the Capitol on Friday. It's in three-dimension and color.

The Eastwood will have a children's show at 1 p. m. Thursday. Attractions for Thursday night and Friday afternoon and night will be "The Moonlighter" and "All the Brothers Were Valiant."

A "Comic Cavalcade" for youngsters will be the Parkway's attraction from 1 to 4 p. m. Thursday. The bill Thursday night and Friday afternoon and night will consist of "Walking My Baby Back Home" and "The Stand at Apache River."

The Orpheum will continue "The Robe" in CinemaScope.

Two English films will open at the Madison Thursday—Alec Guinness in "The Captain's Paradise" and Stewart Granger and Jean Simmons in "Adam and Evalyn."

The Strand will offer "Botany Bay" and "War of the Worlds," while the Majestic will have "Stalag 17" and "Fort Ti."

Starting times for the last shows Thursday night include 12:15 at the Capitol, 10:30 at the Eastwood, midnight at the Parkway, 9:50 at the Majestic, 11:20 at the Madison, midnight at the Orpheum, and 11 at the Strand.

✦ ✦ ✦

IT WASN'T PLANNED THIS WAY: When news of import occurs, Mutual network newsroom chiefs have the authority to cut in on any show being aired to present immediate bulletins. The announcement of the execution, by shooting, of Russian Secret Police Chief Lavrenti Beria was of such news value — and the newsroom broke into the scheduled "Wild Bill Hickok" program just as listeners heard four shots fired, then a newsman reading the Beria bulletin — and Guy Madison, as "Wild Bill," exclaiming thereafter, "Well, that should hold him for a while."
