Fort to Present 'Our Town' Play

FT. ATKINSON—A production of Thornton Wilder's play, "Our Town", will be presented Feb. 27 and 28 by members of the Congregational Couples' club directed by Crawford B. Thayer, Whitewater, and Mrs. M. G. Gustafson, assistant director, it has been announced.

The cast of the play, which is already in rehearsal, is as follows:

Archie Gassett, George Hagen, Gerry Moore, George Verges, Mrs. Fred Moore, Mrs. Charles Brown, Don Hinz, Mrs. Harry May, Tom Mason, Mrs. James Hobart, the Rev. Charles Brown, John Cullender; Mrs. Chester Hanson, Earl Aspinwall, Louis Turner, Mrs. David Atwood, Mrs. Earl Bierfang, Everett Davenport, Steve Sperry, Fred Baker, Robert Davenport, Mrs. Lawrence Becker, Mrs. B. Lennox Dunbar, Merle Tibbetts, and Roland Hagemann.

Proceeds from the production will go to the building fund of the Congregational church as part of the Couples' club pledge.

Dulles Likely to Meet Adenauer After Big 4

BERLIN (AP)—U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles probably will confer with West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer before returning to Washington, high sources said Sunday.

The informants said Dulles is likely to meet Adenauer next weekend following the conclusion of the Big Four foreign ministers conference to discuss the results of the meeting.

IMPAIRED HEARING + FALSE VANITY = DANGER!

Some people refuse to wear hearing aids because of false personal vanity. While crossing roads, they miss warning sounds and signals that may be the difference between life and death. When driving autos, they endanger themselves as well as those they love...endanger innocent bystanders.

That's a horrible price to pay for false vanity!

You can remove this danger with a Zenith Hearing Aid, worn by hundreds of thousands. Your local Zenith dealer will give you full details on the new, tubeless, 3-transistor "Royal-Ty". Air conduction model, only $125. 10-day money-back guarantee. See telephone directory or write for literature and local dealer list: Zenith Radio Corporation, 5801 Dickens, Chicago 39, Ill.

Dali Gives Painting Finishing Touches as 'Inspiration' Grows

NEW YORK (AP) — As the ends of his mustache — which he describes as an "inspirational antenna" — edge slowly up to Salvador Dali's eyebrows, he is putting the finishing touches to his latest work of art, "Soft Watch Exploding into 888 Pieces."

DALI

This modern adaptation of the type of painting that first brought him fame symbolizes, he says, his immersion in the atomic - nuclear era.

The lean, dark-visaged artist is in New York to finish the painting which he refuses to let anyone view until the 888th piece of watch has been added.

Dali reports he is painting "Soft Watch" in tune with cosmic emanations that come to him through his special antenna and other sources. He doesn't altogether understand it himself.

Of his celebrated mustache antenna, he says seriously: "The most creative moments of my life have been since it got to this length.

"This is not new, there were people in the time of the Renaissance who had similar experiences. La Porta, for instance, a writer of those times, told about inspiration received from his sensitive mustache. When my mustache reaches to my eyebrows, it will stimulate both the brain and the imagination."

Dali affirms he finds the appendage quite comfortable.

And there is no danger of his going up in a ball of flame — atomic or otherwise.

He doesn't smoke — so the antenna is safe.

LAYTON SCHOOL: Women of the Layton Art League were "shocked" when they learned that Charlotte R. Partridge, director of the Layton School of Art, was being "forced" to retire, the United Press says.

Miss Partridge told the league that she and her associate, Miriam Frink, were not resigning voluntarily as had been reported, but were being compelled to leave by the school's board of trustees "because of their ages."

She is 71 and Miss Frink is 62.

Miss Partridge and Miss Frink started the school together in 1920.

Malcolm K. Whyte, president of the board of trustees, confirmed that the women were being retired. In a statement for the board, he said "the board voted to retire Miss Partridge and Miss Frink as of May 31 and employ a successor as of June 1."

Edmund Lewandowski, 39, director of the Florida State university art department, has been hired as director starting June 1.

Whyte's statement also reported the naming of a committee "to consider and recommend a retirement compensation which should recognize the 34 years of valued service which Miss Partridge and Miss Frink gave to the school from the time it was founded in 1920."

PORTRAIT: Thumbnail description of Edward R. Murrow by Stephen White in February's Good Housekeeping magazine: "Now in his 46th year, Murrow is a tall, handsome man who carries with him an unmistakable air of deep personal involvement in any matter with which he deals. His eyes are deep-set and grave, and his glance is intent; his mouth and chin are purposeful; and his whole countenance portrays a man who suspects there is ground glass in his porridge and means to find out before he eats it."

JAM SESSION: Teddy Wilson, whose modern jazz piano stylings are heard on CBS Radio's "Crime Photographer" and the "Peter Lind Hayes Show," spent years as a mainstay with Benny Goodman's orchestra. Wilson met Goodman at a party in the home of the late Mildred Bailey and "Red" Norvo, where a jam session was inevitable. Wilson, seated at the 88, was joined by Goodman on clarinet, who didn't have a band at the time. A young test pilot furnished percussion on the back of an empty suitcase. The results: Benny Goodman formed a band and signed Teddy Wilson, who was featured in the Sextet, which Norvo joined after a period of several years. The drummer at the party? His name is Carl Bellinger and he's still testing jet planes on Long Island.
