TURNING THE DIALS

BY FRED H. RUSSELL

In line with WRCA radio's "Live" programming concept, nine of the country's top musicians, all of whom have been featured with the all-time-great dance bands, will join forces under one baton to bring audiences the best live music on the early morning, weekday portions of the "Allyn Edwards Show" (6:30 to 9:30 a. m.). Starting next Saturday such names, representing the hey-day of America's dance bands, as Will Bradley, Al Kink, Mundell Lowe, Don Lamond, Hymie Schertzer, Dale McMickle, Artie Baker and Dick Hyman will combine their talents under the leadership of Eddie Safranski, bass player.

As a sort of "jazz turnaround," these music makers who are accustomed to going to bed at the break of dawn will now begin their workday on the Edwards show.

In addition to the nine-piece band, other famous names to music lovers will drop in for a morning cup of coffee with Allyn, Eddie and the band. . .

Silver Anniversary

Paul W. Morency, vice-president and general manager of Station WTIC in Hartford, and nationally known figure in the broadcasting industry, observes his 25th anniversary with the radio station on Friday. Mr. Morency relinquished his position as manager of field service for the National Association of Broadcasters to accept the general managership of WTIC, which is owned by the Travelers Broadcasting Service corporation. He was made a secretary of the corporation in 1941, vice-president in 1946 and a member of the board of directors in 1948.

In the nationwide broadcasting industry, he has been an official or director of many important trade organizations. He is presently chairman of the New England Regional Network and a director of Broadcast Music, Inc. In 1951, when he was voted by acclamation to the chairmanship of the All-Industry Affiliates' committee, he was also named "Showmanager of Year." He is a past president of the Radio Pioneers club.

Walter Conducts

Bruno Walter will return for his second broadcast of the season with the New York Philharmonic-Symphony this afternoon over CBS radio at 2:30 o'clock, and will have as his soloists two distinguished American artists, Isaac Stern, violinist, and Leonard Rose, cellist.

He has selected for his program three well-loved works, opening with the Beethoven "Leonora" Overture No. 3. Following this he will conduct the Mozart Symphony No. 38 in D Major ("Prague"). For the last work on the program, Mr. Stern and Mr. Leonard will join Dr. Walter and the orchestra in a performance of the Brahms "Double" Concerto in A Minor.

James Fassett, music commentator, will have as his interview guests four sightless persons who will describe the activities of the Louis Braille Music Institute of America. This organization publishes a music magazine in braille and has recently developed a record club for the blind, with braille labels.

Tagliavini Sings

Ferruccio Tagliavini, operatic and concert tenor, will return to the "Telephone Hour" as guest soloist tomorrow night at 9 o'clock over WRCA.

From Massenet's seldom performed opera "Le Cid," the soloist has selected the dramatic prayer "O Souveram, O Juge, O Pere." His other selections will be Rossini's dazzling "La Danza" and "Anema e Core" by Esposito.

NOTRE DAME GAME

Channel 9 will present exclusive film coverage of the Notre Dame vs. University of Southern California Saturday game tonight, 9:10 p.m. Harry Wismer will handle the commentary.

BISHOP INSTALLATION TO BE REBROADCAST

WICC will rebroadcast the actual installation ceremony of the Most Rev. Lawrence J. Shehan, Bishop of Bridgeport, Saturday night at 8 o'clock.

The station covered the event 'live' last December and is presenting the program this week as a memento of the anniversary of the bishop's first year in this city.

WATKINS IS GUEST

Senator Arthur V. Watkins (Rep.-Utah), chairman of the Select Senate committee which recommended censure of Senator McCarthy, will "Meet the Press" today (NBC-TV, 6 p.m.; NBC-radio, 10:30 p.m.).

He will be interviewed by Jack Bell of the Associated Press, May Craig of the Portland, Me., Press-Herald and Lawrence Spivak, owner-producer and permanent panel member of "Meet the Press." NBC Commentator Ned Brooks will be moderator. The program will originate in the NBC studios in Washington, D.C.

TV NEWSREEL

By "JOE" LEDERER

Booming tenor Mario Lanza, miffed over the furor caused when he just went through the motions of singing the words to his songs on "Shower of Stars," while old phonograph records were dubbed in, proved to the press that he could still sing. He tossed a private concert for the press just before he signed up for another "Shower of Stars" appearance on October 28th. This time, it was promised, the songs would be "live."

G.E. Television prices are the lowest in history. Now is the time to add that second set you've always wanted.

Television audiences got a big chuckle out of the recent "crawling corpse" incident in a drama called The Long Goodbye." Dick Powell, the star, had just finished examining the "dead" body and before the camera could shift the corpse started to crawl off-stage. Powell went right on talking as if he hadn't seen a miracle.

Washdays are so much easier with the completely Automatic G.E. Washer. Clothes are always in water never tumbled in and out.

Pretty Ann Baker, who is the new television version of Corliss Archer, says a faulty coin box helped her get the role. She was broke and about to leave town when a shower of coins from a pay telephone enabled her to keep on eating. She'll pay back the phone company now . . .

Ina Ray Hutton, vivacious feminine band leader of an all-girl orchestra, is being paged by both NBC and CBS to put her all girl show on a new network program. Ina Ray is a double for the famous Dagmar. There are a lot of "look-alikes" in television sets . . . but there is a difference in performance for the price. You'll see the difference . . . and like it . . . when your choice is a new G-E TV set.
