LOOMIS TEACHER WINS WORLD PEACE CONTEST

NEW HAVEN, Feb 3 (AP) A history teacher won a trip to Europe as first prize in a contest sponsored by the Old Monastery wine company here.

The contest sought ways to promote world peace. Lloyd W Fowles, head of the history department at the Loomis school in Windsor, suggested hard work.

Television sets went to the second and third prize winners, Miss Gwen Gordon of Hartford and Miss Bessie Levine of New Haven.

During the 1954 season the New York Giants pitchers allowed the opposition an average of 3.57 runs per nine innings.
