BROTHERS FREED IN NURSE'S DEATH

STAMFORD, March 15 — (AP) Two Stamford brothers, Angelo J. Parrino, 45, and John, 47, gained their freedom today after having been held in connection with the fatal beating of a nurse near here some two years ago.

City Attorney Leonard J. DeVita said he has dismissed the warrants issued against the Parrinos. Angelo had been charged with the bludgeon slaying and John with having been an accessory.

The battered body of the nurse, Mrs. Una Beatrice Eisan, 37, was found on a lonely section of a Long Island sound beach, near Stamford, on June 16, 1953. The Parrino brothers had been reported seen with her in a Port Chester, N. Y., bar hours before the slaying.

The prosecutor's action came within 24 hours after Fairfield County Coroner Edgar W. Kientzman, in a finding said he lacked sufficient evidence to hold them any longer.

Angelo, who had been held in the Fairfield county jail at Bridgeport since being returned to Connecticut from Canton, O., last Jan. 6, was freed this afternoon. John had been at liberty under $10,000 bond. The bond against him was dropped, also this afternoon.

DiVita said his decision to dismiss the warrants came after a conversation with State's Attorney Louis W. Willis, in which they concurred on the coroner's finding.

This Sunday Coffee Cake Has Orange-Coconut Filling

SUNDAY MORNING COFFEE CAKE is made with new instant nonfat dry milk.

For a special breakfast or for snack time this filled coffee cake is delicious. Made with dry milk (a one-pound package makes 5 quarts of nonfat milk for as little as 8 cents a quart. Instant nonfat dry milk also comes in a pre-measured package containing 3 foil-lined envelopes, each of which makes 1 quart of nonfat milk), it is therefore rich in milk's important nutrients—protein, calcium and riboflavin.

A friend brought us one for Sunday brunch. Everyone begged for the recipe.

Sunday Morning Coffee Cake
(Makes one 9-inch ring)

Two cups sifted flour, 1-3 cup instant nonfat dry milk, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1-4 cup shortening, 3-4 cup watr, 1 tablespon melted butter or margarine.

Sift together flour, instant nonfat dry milk powder, baking powder and salt into a bowl. Cut in shortening with two knives or pastry blender until mixture resembles coarse corn meal. Add water all at once, stirring only enough to moisten dry ingredients. Turn out onto floured board; knead for 30 seconds.

Roll out into a rectangle about 1-4-inch thick. Brush with butter or margarine. Spread with orange-coconut filling. Roll dough lengthwise, jelly roll fashion. Seal edges. Place on baking sheet. Join edges to form into a ring. With scissors, cut halfway through dough at 1-inch intervals. Turn each slice on its side to lie flat on pan. Bake in very hot oven (450 degrees F.) about 20-25 minutes or until browned.

Remove from baking sheet immediately; cool on a cork rack. While still hot, spread with frosting made with 1 cup confectioner's sugar and about 1 tablespoon liquefied instant nonfat dry milk. If desired, garnish with pecans.

Orange-Coconut Filling

One-quarter cup undiluted orange juice concentrate, 2 tablespoons honey, 1 teaspoon lemon juice, 1 cup shredded coconut.

Blend orange juice, honey and lemon juice. Stir in coconut until well mixed.

Pleated dacron-pima blouses that need no ironing are a real blessing to the career-bound girl. Nice on the campus, too.

TEENAGERS HURT IN MILFORD CRASH

MILFORD, March 15—Four teenagers were injured shortly before 10.30 a.m. today when their car crashed into a tree on North street at Woodruff road. All were treated at Milford hospital and discharged.

Injured were, the driver, Robert J. Elias, 18, of 107 Cedar street, who received abrasions of the forehead and right elbow; Clare Hultman, 17, 116 Rivercliff drive, deep laceration of the right knee; Charles C. Brienza, 17, 226 East Broadway, knocked out, and Patricia Robertsen, 17, 38 Rivercliff drive, shaken up.

Elias and Miss Hultman were taken to the Milford hospital in the Chamberlain ambulance while Mr. Brienza and Miss Robertson were taken to the hospital in a police radio car.

Policemen Louie Gabryszewski and Samuel Campagna said the auto was traveling north on North street, when Elias applied the brakes in attempting to make a right turn into Woodruff road, the brakes failed to hold and the vehicle crashed into a large tree. The front end of the auto was demolished. Elias was arrested and was given a summons to appear in Town Court, March 19, on a charge of reckless driving.
