PARKED CAR HOLDUPS SPUR POLICE SEARCH

WALLINGFORD, Conn. (AP)—State and local police continued today in an effort to solve the third parked car holdup in this area within a month.

The latest occurred early today on a lonely section of Amity road here where John Hoar, 20, complained that two masked men armed with a rifle took $40 and later raped a woman companion, Theresa Monaco, 20, of nearby Wallingford.

Miss Monaco told police that the men, one of them armed with a rifle and the other with a pistol, assaulted her. She said the men were masks over their faces and kept silent. One was about 22 years old and the other about 25.

Once released by the men, Miss Monaco walked to a diner where a patron gave her to the Wallingford police headquarters.

Police are still trying to solve previously reported parked car holdups in Meriden and Middlefield.

Special observation posts at building sites for landmark apartments have now been adopted by some London contractors.

U.S. MAY CUT BACK FAR EAST TROOPS

QUANTICO, Va., July 15—(AP) The United States may pull still more fighting men out of the Far East.

The hint of another cutback in military strength along the eastern perimeter of the communist domain came today from Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, new Army chief of staff and until recently the Supreme Allied commander in the Far East.

Taylor, in a talk to the 170 civilian leaders, generals and admirals here for the annual defense secretaries' conference, discussed the impact "of future planned reduction in forces" in Japan and Korea. A brief summary of what Taylor talked about was issued after the closed-door meeting.

There seemed reason to believe that any new reduction in Far East strength would be in ground forces, possibly the withdrawal of one or more divisions.

Retiring Secretary of the Army Robert T. Stevens made a formal, farewell speech to the 170 conferees.

He said he felt he had "struck a blow for the prestige and honor of all the armed services." He also declared he had come to know loyalty "up and down and across between the services" in the last two and a half years.

With the morning business session of briefings and questions and answers over, the big and little brass turned this afternoon to a variety of sports.
