new and different!
it's the floor wax that
WON'T WATER-SPOT

Water is the enemy of most floor waxes. Drips and drops make spots. Washing takes much of the wax off, makes streaks and rings.

Quite the opposite with Butcher's Green Stripe! Spill and splash on it all you like. Wash it! Dirt comes out—Butcher's Wax stays on, bright as a button.

And daily, normal wear actually improves the rich, deep luster. That's because Butcher's is basically liquefied carnauba—hardest and finest wax known.

$1.50 a quart and a bargain at that! Lasts longer. Looks better. Widely used in stores, offices, institutions. Architects, decorators, floor experts recommend it. Get a can of Butcher's at your paint, hardware, linoleum, variety or department store.

Butcher's also makes paste wax—America's finest for 75 years: Butcher's Boston Polish (regular) and Butcher's White Diamond (transparent)—$1 a pound.

DICTAPHONE TO RESUME UNION TALKS TUESDAY

Contract talks between the Dictaphone corporation and Local 24760, AFL, will be resumed at 10:30 a.m. next Tuesday, it was announced yesterday. The contract expires at midnight Sept. 30.

James F. Burns, president of the local, said today that a deadlock exists between negotiators. If an agreement is not reached by the contract expiration date the union will strike, he said.

A vote of confidence was given union negotiators recently when the membership voted 'no contract, no work.'

Nathan Hale, Revolutionary hero, was one of 12 children of a Connecticut farmer.

RED PARTY ASKS HIGH COURT KILL SUBVERSIVES LAW

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13—(AP) The communist party, asking the Supreme Court to strike down the 1950 Subversive Activities Control Law, argued today it has been outmoded by the Geneva Summit meeting.

Warren Views Cited

A brief filed with the court also cited speeches by Chief Justice Warren and Justice Douglas, and suggested the law was at variance with the philosophy the jurists had expressed.

The 270-page brief was filed preliminary to oral arguments at the court's fall term on the party's challenge of a government order for it to register under the 1950 act.

The brief said the 1950 law was enacted when the Westernworld believed the Korean struggle was the opening campaign of a third world war. "This was the political estimate that underlay its enactment," the brief said.

Now, however, it added, this "Justification for the onslaught on the Constitution" has proved unfounded.

Ike Comment Noted

The brief cited the truce negotiated in Korea and said international tensions have relaxed. It cited President Eisenhower's comment that on the basis of his experiences at Geneva he felt Soviet leaders were as sincere as he in their desire for peace.

"This perspective of peaceful coexistence is incompatible with the premise of the act, spelled out in Section Two," the brief said.

Section Two says a world communist movement exists which would establish a totalitarian dictatorship by use of treachery, sabotage, terrorism and any other means deemed necessary. The section says the communist organization in this country presents "a clear and present danger to the security of the United States."

The brief said the act infringed fundamental liberties guaranteed by the Constitution and quoted this excerpt from an address by Chief Justice Warren in Chicago Aug. 19, 1954:

"We are living in a world of ideas and are going through a war of ideas. Everywhere there is a contest for the hearts and minds of men.

"Every political concept is under scrutiny. Our American system like all others is on trial both at home and abroad. The way it works; the manner in which it solves the problems of our day; the extent to which we maintain the spirit of our Constitution with its Bill of Rights, will in the long run do more to make it both secure and the object of adulation than the number of hydrogen bombs we stockpile."

After citing the Chief Justice's remarks, the communist brief asserted:

"In a period of competitive coexistence, no government which infringes the fundamental liberties of its citizens can hope to win the respect and confidence of other peoples. A decision (by the Supreme court) sustaining the act . . . would sacrifice our heritage of freedom and irretrievably handicap the nation in the 'contest for the hearts and minds of men.'"

Douglas Quoted

In the reference to Douglas, the brief quoted him as telling the American Law Institute on Nov 16, 1953, that:

"America's growing tendency in the interest of security to take short cuts, to disregard the rights of the individual, to sponsor the cause of intolerance, and to adopt more and more the tactics of the world forces we oppose . . . have helped lose for America the commanding position of moral leadership which we had at the end of World War II"

HOLY NAME TO MEET

The Holy Name society of Holy Rosary church will launch its Fall program with a meeting at 8 o'clock tonight in the church hall, Harriet street and East Washington avenue. Anthony Kindzieraki, president, will preside. The Rev. Raymond H. Guidone is chaplain.
