han introduces a new treatment of allodoro begins the famous solo instrument made of transparent, ve tone tests, Whiteman plans to Memorial concert over CBS net- The clarinet has a peculiar reedy rably to the Rhapsody's difficult

Talk
d Youth'
t Tonight

Former President Herbert Hoover will deliver a non-political address on international problems at 7 tonight through WIBA-WENR. Its title will be "Shall We Send Our Youth to War?"

Other headliners tonight, classified:

◆ ◆ ◆

Discussion

8:30 p. m.—Franklin and Sullivan (WENR): "The President and Politics."

◆ ◆ ◆

Musical

7 p. m. — Grant Park Concert (WGN, WBBM): Walter Steindel orchestra—Brahm's "Tragic" overture, Ippolitow-Iwanow's "Caucasian Sketches" (on WENR at 7:30.)

8 p. m. — Stadium Concert (WBBM): New York Philharmonic-Symphony orchestra, with Efrem Kurtz conducting; Tschaikowsky's "Pathetique" symphony.

◆ ◆ ◆

Variety

6 p. m. — Hononlulu Bound (WBBM): Phil Baker's gang at a new time.

6:30 p. m. — Tommy Dorsey (WMAQ): "Don't Worry About Me," "Jimtown Blues," "Why Begin Again?", "I Got Rhythm." . . . Paul Whiteman (WBBM): "Stairway to the Stars," "South American Way," "Let's Make Memories."

7 p. m. — What's My Name? (WMAQ): Fred Uttal, Arlene Francis take over Fred Allen's spot.

7:30 p. m. — George Jessel (WMAQ): moves his celebrity program to new time, presents George S. Kaufman, Andy Devine, Maxine Sullivan, Jimmy Lynch.

8:30 p. m.—Music Counter (WGN): "Second Fiddle" medley, "This Is No Dream," old-time favorites.

◆ ◆ ◆

Miscellaneous

6:30 p. m. — Hobby Lobby (WLS): Dave Elman offers florist-magician, boy detective, bet collector.

◆ ◆ ◆

Thursdaytime

1 p. m. — Legislative Forum (WHA): Assemblyman O. R. Rice (R., Delavan) on "The Depart- of Agriculture."

◆ ◆ ◆

Fan Fare

Bob Crosby is booking his one night stands as close to New York as possible now that he has a radio sponsor and a contract which says he must spend every Monday and Tuesday in Manhattan. Starting today, Crosby will play a week in Atlantic City.

Larry Simms, 4-year-old movie actor who is doing his screen role of "Baby Dumpling" in the radio Blondie series, is the world's youngest mayor. Venice, Calif., recently proclaimed the tot its mayor and aided by Myron Bowron, of Los Angeles, Larry sent invitations to the mayors of the southwest inviting them to attend the 1939 mayor's convention in Los Angeles.

Beth Wilson, torch singer on NBC's Grouch Club program, christened her new San Fernando valley home this week . . . name . . . Costa Plenta.

Alec Templeton, star of his own new NBC-Red program now that Fibber McGee is vacationing, has just completed a swing composition dedicated to Artie Shaw. Title: "The World Goes Round in Rhythm."

Although his new book is not yet on the book stalls, Good Will Director John J. Anthony is receiving a deluge of mail requesting information on where it can be purchased. Many letters even contain checks for the volume, not yet off the press.

Credit, Parkyakarkus with the "squelch" to end all "squelches" . . . Getting fed up with a certain actor's ostentatious bragging anent his prompt payment (a rare occasion) of a certain debt, Parky remarked acidly: "When