ews and P

• • • •

ograms, rs, Bonura Headliners

Musical offerings top tonight's airwaves. From Chicago, New York, and Madison radio presents a full evening for music lovers.

Three Chicago stations will bring the complete concert of the Woman's Symphony orchestra conducted by Izler Solomon. Station WENR brings the first portion of the program at 7 p. m.; WBBM the second at 7:30 p. m., and WGN the final portion at 8 p. m. Agatha Lewis, soprano is guest soloist.

The Taliesin String quartet returns to the air tonight at 7 p. m. over WIBA. Featured numbers on the program includes Haydn's "F Minor Quartette" and Bridge's "An Irish Melody.

From New York the Philharmonic-Symphony orchestra under the direction of Frieder Weissman broadcasts Beethovens "Fifth Symphony" and Wagner's Overture to "Die Meistersinger." Station WBBM airs the concert at 8 p. m.

Other programs classified:

Sports

8:30 p. m. — CYO Boxing (WIND) finalists in the international matches. Also on WMAQ at 9:30 p. m. and WBBM at 9:30 p. m.

◆ ◆ ◆

Dramatics

6 p. m. — One Man's Family (WMAQ): the prowler receives an ofefr to work.

7 p. m. — Knickerbocker Playhouse (WBBM): Francis Lederer in "Paris Bound."

7:30 p. m. — Idea Mart (WIBA, WMAQ): a surprise play.

10:30 p. m.—Lights Out (WIBA, WMAG): results of a college boy's prank.

◆ ◆ ◆

Discussion

6:30 p. m. — Career Planning (WHA): "Occupations Change Rapidly."

8:30 p. m. — American Viewpoints (WBBM): Rep. Dickinson on capitol opinions.

◆ ◆ ◆

Variety

6:30 p. m. — Paul Whitman (WBBM): "Go Fly a Kite," a new tune.

7:30 p. m. — Celebrity Show (WMAQ): Zeke Bonura discusses the major leagues with Patsy Kelly and Frank Buck.

8 p. m. — Kay Kyser (WIBA, WMAQ): on Treasure Island.

8:30 p. m. — Music Counter WGN): popular tunes.

◆ ◆ ◆

Miscellaneous

6:30 p. m. — Hobby Lobby (WLS): demonstrating hynotism.

7 p. m. — What's My Name (WMAQ): headline names.

◆ ◆ ◆

Thursdaytime

10:30 a. m. — National Farm and Home Hour (WIBA, WMAQ): "A Radio Visit to the Rogue National Forest in Oregon."

1 p. m. — Legislative Forum (WHA): Assemblyman Rudolph Schlabach on "Motor Vehicle Consolidation."

◆ ◆ ◆

Fan Fare

Bob "Believe It or Not" Ripley has issued invitations to the opening of his odditorium on Broadway to practically every star in radio. Among those who will attend are Phil Baker, Raymond Paige, Bess Johnson, Jane Froman, George Jessel, and numerous others.

West coast CBS officials and Max Reinhardt, noted theatrical producer are discussing a deal whereby the Max Reinhardt Workshop players will present a series of sustaining programs on the network during August and part of September in return for the right to use Columbia's Music Box playhouse for Workshop stage presentations at a nominal fee.

The Yacht Club boys and Felix Mills' orchestra are auditioning for a CBS spot.

The Joe E. Brown airshow, heard since its berth from the Columbia playhouse on Vine st., is to be transferred to the Columbia Square playhouse the latter part of this month. Request for the change was made by Brown and his writers, Gill and Demling.

Dick Powell, "Tuesday Night Party" host, and his wife Joan Blondell, will play a two-week engagement in "Burlesque," at Saratoga, N. Y., provided the latter is not ordered to remain in Hollywood during August for a Columbia picture deal.

AFRA (American Federation of Radio Actors) which was organized recently in Hollywood is branching out. The union has signed a contract with KMOX, CBS station in St. Louis for singers, actors, announcers, continuity writers, and news writers.

Lud Gluskin, music director of the "Tuesday Night Party" show, has signed with a major motion picture company to score films during the summer.

Gill and Demling, writer-comedians on the Joe E. Brown program are working on a play for possible Broadway production this fall.

10:15 Your Family and Mine