Concert, Views Tonight

Views on neutrality, and the NBC Symphony orchestra's first 1939-40 concert under the direction of Arturo Toscanini will be broadcast tonight.

The Toscanini program will not be carried by stations near Madison, since NBC outlets are tied up. Listeners might be able to pick it up from WJZ, WBAL, WMT, KSO, or KDKA. The music will be Schubert's "Unfinished" symphony, Strauss' "Don Juan," Respighi's "Passacaglia," and Haydn's "Concertante" for violin, oboe, bassoon, and cello.

The average citizens' views on neutrality legislation will be aired by four of them on the People's Platform at 6 through WOCO-KMOX and at 6:30 through WBBM. The speakers will be a sewing machine workers, a photographer, a locksmith, and a truck farmer.

Sen. Ernest Lundeen (F-L, Minn.) will oppose embargo repeal in a talk at 10:45 on WBBM, and Norman Thomas, Socialist leader, will give his party's attitude on neutrality at 9:45 through WCCO and at 10:30 through WBBM.
