Laughton And Wife To Play Together On De Mille Show

"Sidewalks Of London" Vehicle For Pair On Monday Night Program; Kostelanetz Will Salute Irving Berlin

Charles Laughton and his wife Elsa Lanchester make their first starring appearance together in the DeMille Radio Theatre Monday, as a pair of "buskers" in "Sidewalks of London." A "busker" is a street entertainer who makes a living amusing the crowds in line for theatre tickets in England.

The production directed by Cecil B. DeMille is broadcast over WABC at 9:00 p. m.

America's most famous living popular song writer, Irving Berlin will be saluted by Andre Kostelanetz on his "Tune-Up Time" program over WABC Monday at 8 p. m., E. S. T. The conductor will devote the entire broadcast to Berlin songs. There will be two special medleys in typical Kostelanetz arrangements.

The first includes "Alexander's Ragtime Band," "Always" and "Blue Skies." The second embraces "Oh, How I Hate to Get Up in the Morning," "Remember," "Cheek to Cheek," "Heat Wave" and "Easter Parade.' Additional numbers are "Say It With Music," "A Pretty Girl is Like a Melody," "Soft Lights and Sweet Music," "Piccolino" and "God Bless America." Vocals are by Tony Martin and a chorus.

John D. Hamilton. Republican national chairman. and Herbert Hoover, only living ex-President, will discuss fundamental issues facing the nation during Lincoln birthday address Monday over WJZ. Hamilton will discuss "Victory Thru Unity," from 9:30 to 10 p. m. from the Waldorf hotel, New York City, while Hoover's address will be broadcast from the Omaha City auditorium from 9 to 9:30 p. m.

Tommy Riggs and Betty Lou have invited Rosemary Calvin, blues singer to make a second appearance as their guest, Monday at 8 p. m. over WEAF. Miss Calvin first appeared on the program as a featured guest a few months ago.

Roger Quilter's "Now Sleeps the Crimson Petal" will be sung by Richard Crooks during his concert program Monday at 8:30 p. m. over WEAF. Crooks will also sing "When the Dew is Falling," by Schneider; "Federico's Lament," by Cilea, and Spoliansky's "Tell Me That You Love Me Tonight." Alfred Wallenstein will conduct the symphony orchestra in Nicolai's "Merry Wives of Windsor" overture, Moussorgsky's "Hopak," and Lehar's "Gold and Silver Waltz."

Dr. Harry Hagen, who has asked and answered so many questions on his "True or False" contest that he virtually represents a walking encyclopedia, will conduct his program from Birmingham, Ala., on Monday. The show will be broadcast from the Phillips high school auditorium at 8:30 p. m. over WJZ.

The mystery of "The Golden Pince-Nez" will be unveiled by Sherlock Holmes and Dr. Watson during the Monday broadcast over WJZ at 8 p. m. The story, by Sir A. Conan Doyle, deals with a murder committed by means of a pair of eyeglasses. Basil Rathbone will be heard as the Baker Street sleuth, with Nigel Bruce as Dr. Watson.

Opal Craven, the Lullaby Lady, will sing Gaynor's "The Slumber Boat" as part of the musical salute to Florida during the Contented program Monday at 10 p. m. over WEAF. The quartet offers "Ma Lady Chloe," and orchestral and vocal selections include Summer's "Florida, Here I Come;" "Moon Over Miami" by Burke; ballet music from Massenet's "Le Cid," Porter's "Begin the Beguine," Gershwin's "Swanee," and Stephen Foster's "Swanee River."
