Carole Lombard Appears In "Made For Each Other"

Kostelanetz Schedules Program Of Best Known Songs Of Yesteryear; Templeton Will Play Zither

"Made For Each Other" the script which caused Carole Lombard to give up comedy roles in the movies for more serious dramatics, will be presented by the DeMille radio theatre with Miss Lombard and Fred MacMurray in the starring roles on Monday

The radio production will be broadcast over WABC at 9 00 p m

"Made For Each Other" sets forth the problems that beset a young couple living in a big city on a small income

Taking Dvorak's wistful "Songs My Mother Taught Me" as a theme, Andre Kostelanetz assisted by his modern chorus of mixed voices will play a distinctive medley on the Monday program of "Tune-Up Time" at 8 p m over WABC From the best-known songs of yesteryear he has selected "Sweet and Low" "Pop Goes the Weasel" "Ben Bolt" "Oh Dear What Can the Matter Be" Singing emcee Tony Martin will solo in "Ben Bolt" and will be joined by the chorus in "The Old Refrain" The chorus also will be heard in "Sweet and Low"

Helen Jepson, lovely Metropolitan Opera soprano will lend an appreciative ear to Alec Templeton's first broadcast demonstration of his modernistic zither, during Alec Templeton Time Monday at 9 30 p m over WEAF Templeton's new zither is tuned to a 15 note scale and is employed in the production of strange musical sounds The instrument will be heard in Templeton own composition "Fantasy for Zither and Chorus"

Denmark will be the next port of call for the roving Carnation Contented program Monday at 10 00, over WEAF Maestro Josef A Pistchnack will debark the Carnation staff to the tune of eleven Danish folk marches and will also feature Lee Overture, by Lassen "Tivoli Review" and Danish Potpourri by the orchestra and the Contented Choir A popular Danish favorite "Dybt I Havet", will be played as a duet by George Bass violinist and Harry Sturm cellist The cradle song of Lullaby Lady Opal Craven will be "Sov Mit Barn Sov Lange" The Continentals Quartet will sing "Vier Fine Flotte Tyre", or "Sun over Denmark"

Tanned from a ten day holiday in the Bermuda sun Margaret Speaks, celebrated soprano will return Monday at 8 0 p m over WEAF She will start an extended concert tour following her broadcast on Feb 19 A highlight of Miss Speaks program will be "El Relicario" by Padilla in an arrangement made especially for her She will also sing "Bendemeer's Stream", by Gatty, Kreisler's "Stars in my Eyes", and "Summertime", from Gershwin's "Porgy and Bess" The Fine tone Symphony under the direction of Alfred Wallenstein will play "Beautiful Galathea" by von Suppe Intermezzo from Wolf Ferrari's "Jewels of the Madonna", and the "Aragonaise" from Massenet's "Le Cid"

Doris Rhodes well-known night club and radio songstress will appear as guest soloist with Tommy Dorsey and Betty Lou Monday at 8 00 p m over WEAF Miss Rhodes was born in Spokane Wash, and moved to Los Angeles with her family where she was introduced to professional singing via the night club route

A doughboy thought to be a victim of leprosy is saved from social banishment by the timely intervention of Sherlock Holmes and Dr Watson in the strange case of "The Blanched Soldier" heard Monday at 8 00 p m over WJZ How the soldier is cured thru medical skill of Dr Watson also is revealed

Allan S Haywood national organization director of the CIO will speak on the subject "Congress of Industrial Organization Plans" Monday from 9 0 to 9 15 p m over WJZ

BEST BETS MONDAY

P M

8 00 Lum and Abner and Betty Lou WEAF

8 00 Sherlock Holmes WOWO

8 30 Richard Crooks Water Street Choir WEAF

9 00 DeMilles Radio Theatre WJZ

9 30 Alec Templeton Time WEAF

STATIONS THAT MAKE UP THE NETWORKS

(Note Letters following station call letters indicate the network on which each program is broadcast. All programs are carried by stations shown in bold face type. Where no time is specified)

NBC WEAF (RED) Basic — East weaf wtic wnac wben wtam wwj wtmj kdyl wjr wgy wtic wfbl wmc wfbr wsb wjr wgy wtic wfbl wmc wfbr wsb wjr wgy wtic wfbl wmc wfbr wsb