Clark Gable, former movie star and now a captain in the U. S. Army Air force, will be heard via short-wave from "somewhere in England" on "What's New?" broadcast Saturday at 7 p. m. (EWT) over WJZ. The nature of Capt. Gable's guest-spot has not been announced.

A chiller-diller tale that literally threatens to freeze people in their tracks will be the offering of Raymond, the host of "Inner Sanctum Mystery" for his delightfully macabre second broadcast on WABC Saturday (8:30 p. m. EWT).

A deep indigo theme, intermingled with the patriotic tunes, will distinguish the "Grand Ole Opry" Saturday (WEAF, 9 p. m., EWT). Bill Monroe and his Blue Grass boys will get in the cobalt groove as they do "Deep Ellu Blues" and "California Blues." Uncle Dave Macon, 73-year-old banjo whiz, will offer "Hesitation Blues."

"Sea Search," the fighting story of a U. S. Army cameraman flying in a B-24 bomber in a submarine search off the Atlantic coast, in "The Man Behind the Gun" drama to be heard Saturday at 7 p. m. (EWT) over WABC.

Summarizing Civilian Defense wartime effort in the final presentation of the series, WEAF's "Not for Glory" program will re-enact dramatic episodes from previous scripts Saturday, 5 p. m., EWT).

The responsibility of business in providing post-war jobs will be discussed by three prominent business leaders on "For This We Fight," post-war planning series program for Saturday (WEAF, 7 p. m., EWT).

E. F. Benson's short story, "Pirates," the tale of a rich man's long-awaited return to his childhood home and his death there, will be told by Nelson Olmsted on his "World's Greatest Stories" program Saturday, (WEAF, 11:15 p. m., EWT).
