contributes two sentimental songs of t
of the "Gay Nineties Revue" over WABC Monday at 8:30 p. m. They are "There's Only One Girl in This World For Me" and "My Girl." Balladear Lillian Leonard will sing "Little Red Schoolhouse" and "In the Sweet Bye and Bye," Jenny Lind will be heard in Drigo's "Serenade" and Danny Donovan will do another of the minstrel songs in the style of the late Bert Williams.

For the benefit of those who might regret the fact that they were not able to take their usual vacation at the beach during the summer, Odgen Nash remembers the bitter side of his past ocean-side sojourns. In the typical Nash style he will explain his reactions to such a vacation on Guy Lombardo's "Three-Ring Time" program, Monday, at 10:30 p. m. over WABC.

Nero Wolfe and his impulsive assistant, Archie Goodwin, are strictly detectives and confess they know little about babies, especially redheaded babies. But it's a carrot-topped infant that creates all the trouble in "The Case of the Redheaded Baby," Nero Wolfe adventure to be broadcast over WJZ on Monday at 8:30 p. m., EWT.

The story of Tom Paine, political great of Revolutionary War days whose writings often lifted the morale of fighting patriots, will be told on "Cavalcade of America" Monday (WEAF 8:00 p. m., EWT), with Basil Rathbone in the principal role.

Ida Lupino, Brian Aherne, Dame Mae Witty, and Edith Barrett comprise the star-studded cast Cecil B. DeMille has lined up for his presentation of "Ladies in Retirement" on the Radio theatre, Monday at 9 p. m. (EWT) over WABC.
