10:15 A. M., WOL-Mutual begins its day at the Republican Na-tional Convention at an early hour.

11:30, WMAL—"Forest Travel for Stay-Homers," a new series of summer programs based on imaginary trips to national parks in all parts of the country inaugurates a weekly Wednesday feature of the National Farm and Home Hour.

1:15, P. M., WMAL—William Pitt, in 1775, addressed the English House of Lords on the subject of removing the British troops from Boston. Echoes of History catches a possibility of what the English upper house heard. 3:15 P. M., WOL-the Gazelle Stakes, -From Aqueduct's turf we hear the running of 7:30, WJSV—Jean Hersholt's Dr. Christian clears up some trouble in "River's End" caused by a self-created "martyr" and he does it in much the manner our own Mary Haworth might pursue.

much the manner our own Mary Haworth might pursue.
8, WRC—"Us the Folks Speak" with Labiel Teatter doing the interviews. To elucidate: This is Fred Allen's final offering of the season, a b----k----g on "We, the People" and Gabriel Heatter subtitled: "The Sponsor Wore a Riding Habit—He Had Come There With His Plug."
8. WJSV—Charles Coburn and Helen Mack are introduced by Burns Mantle as the stars in Martin Flavin's comedy, "Broken Dishes."

8:30. WMAL-Roy Shield conducts an open air concert in Chicago's Grant Park.

Further airings from the Republican National Committee are prom-ised this evening at 9:15 by WJSV and WOL; at 10:15 on WJSV, and at 11 on WMAL. WOL will carry the meeting continuously, while the other stations will air shorter periods. During the day one may expect the stations to announce over the air whatever changes or additions there may be expected.
