

TODAY'S RADIO BROADCASTS

Today's Features

ON W-G-N.
[Central Daylight Time.]

Elissa Landi and Phillips Holmes, noted stage and screen stars, will be heard in another exciting episode of W-G-N's new dramatic series, "Wings for America," at 7 p. m. The program, written and produced by Blair Walliser, in addition to revealing the activities of fifth columnists in the United States, will provide an intimate glimpse into the workings of a modern newspaper and a radio station. Tonight's story deals with a fifth column plot to blow up a Milwaukee industrial plant. Miss Landi takes the part of Lorna Carroll, a reporter for THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE, who is aided by Riley Davis, a Mutual Broadcasting system news commentator, played by Holmes. Supporting them will be an all-star cast of Bret Morrison, Lester Podewell, Marvin Mueller, and William Green. "Wings for America" is an audience studio show.

Blair Walliser.

Cartune-O, the popular quiz show played by the listeners at home as well as by those in the audience, will be presented at 8:30 p. m., a new time. The program, formerly scheduled on Thursday nights, will be offered each Friday hereafter. Featured are Bill Anson as master of ceremonies and Harold Stokes and the W-G-N Dance orchestra. Dorothy Brandon, young singer, will be the guest soloist this evening.

Another program in the popular series of open air concerts from the band shell in Grant park will be presented on W-G-N and Mutual from 9:30 to 10 p. m. Tonight's concert will be given by the W-G-N orchestra under the baton of Henry Weber, with Marlon Claire as soloist.
