

Today's Radio Highlights

6:30 p. m., WJSV—Maj. George Fielding Eliot of "The Ramparts We Watch" fame, circles in a plane above No Man's Land of upper New York State, where 100,000 troops are beginning a four-day campaign.

7, WJSV—Edward J. Flynn, new chairman of the Democratic National Committee who is directing President Roosevelt's campaign for reelection, makes his first radio "Address to Democratic Workers." Will he say anything about those campaign books?

7:30, WMAL—Pertinax, leading French journalist who escaped Paris when the Petain government capitulated, is interviewed by Pearson and Allen on their radio Merry-Go-Round.

7:30, WOL—After a summer sojourn on other networks, The Green Hornet returns to Mutual for the winter. Like the Lone Ranger, this is produced in Detroit.

8, WJSV—That rich experimental entertainment, Forecast, offers folk songs and lore from New York, with Clifton Fadiman refereeing a "Tall Story" contest. Woody Guthrie and Burl Ives are on deck. From Hollywood come two short plays with Charles Laughton, Elas Lanchester, Edna Best and Roy Atwell.

8:15, WMAL—The Chamber Music Society of Loew Basin Street, formerly a Sunday afternoon favorite, begins a new time, of which our town gets only the last 15 minutes.

8:30, WMAL—Secretary of the Interior, Harold L. Ickes answers the acceptance speech of Republican Presidential nominee Wendell L. Willkie.

10, WOL—Jackpot, Walter Compton's remunerative quiz, is back on the Capitol Theater stage.
