WMAL

12:15. p. m., WRC—Otis N. Brown, National commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, presides over the opening session of its annual convention in Los Angeles.

6:15. WJSV—Commander Otis N. Brown again addresses the VFW convention on "One Nation Indivisible."

8. WJSV—Margaret Sullavan plays a special radiozation of Sinclair Lewis "Bethel Merriday." that current novel in which the fiery "Red" expresses his affection for the theater. This is the Hollywood portion of that excellent show, Forecast, From New York comes a new ballad by Earl Robinson, "All God's Chillun," sung by Paul Robeson, with Eddie Green and the Eva Jessye choir.

10. WOL—Walter Compton ad-libs with the contestants of his popular Jackpot on the stage of the Capitol Theater.

11. WMAL and WOL—Ambassador to Belgium John Cudahy makes his first public address since his return from Europe to the VFW convention in Los Angeles. What will he have to say about Belgium's food plight?

ALIHOUGH IT WILL NOT be aired over any of the local stations, a new series under the general title "The Hour For Union Now." promises to be of deep interest. The series will be heard regularly over New York's WMCA each Monday, Wednesday and Friday evening at 7 p. m., operating at 1,000 watt at 570 kc. The programs will also be short waved to a world-wide audience over Boston short-wave station. WRUL. Tonight playwright Robert E. Sherwood will introduce Clarence K Streit, author of "Union Now," the new book has been directy responsible for the Union Now movement.
