1:15 p. m., WOL—The 1940 World Series is aired exclusively over the Mutual network, again by Bob Elson and Red Barber, with Mel. Allen taking over between innings for color angles.
2. WMAL—A new dramatic series on child care, Raising a President makes its bow over the Blue network with an episode titled "Timothy Defends His Country."
7:15, WJSV—Washington's Mrs. C. D. Ferguson composed both music and lyrics to "For One Lovely Moment." a ballad which has been heard over the air before and which Lanny Ross has chosen for his quarter-hour tonight.
8. WMAL—Last week's one three-way tie and one two-way tie brings back the same alignment to Quiz Kids: Gerard Darrow, 8; Van Dyke Tiers, 13; Cynthia Cline, 14; Jack Lucal, 13, and Geraldine Hamburg, 14.
8:15. WOL—George Arliss plays Disraeli again, this time in Dizzy's London with BBC piping the actor to the Mutual network.
9. WJSV—"Drive a nail through the calendar for Wednesday, October 2, 1452 King Richard II was born; that in 1700 Charles II of Spain bequeathed his throne to Philip of Anjou. And now October 2, 1452 King Richard II was born; that in Players back to the networks!
9:30, WMAL—Wendell L. Willkie talks from Cleveland, the second: of three Blue network talks this week. He will be heard tomorrow evening at 9 on this station, speaking in Pittsburgh on labor problems. 10:20, WJSV—Dr. Arnulfo Arias, President of Panama, repeats a portion of his inaugural address in English for the benefit of the United States, where he received a Harvard medical degree.
