

TODAY'S RADIO BROADCASTS

Today's Features

ON W.G.N.

[Central Standard Time.]

The W.G.N. and Mutual broadcast schedule will provide the nation's radio listeners a complete coverage of election news and returns today, tonight, and far into tomorrow morning. Heading the staff of expert newscasters, analysts, special features men, and announcers will be Fulton Lewis Jr., Gulu Ryan, and Arthur Sears Henning. [Details in another column.]

The Northerners' popular weekly song concert, under the baton of Harry S. Walsh, will be heard from 9:30 to 10 p.m. Heading the selections for tonight's program will be a special arrangement of America's No. 2 political favorite, "I Am an American." Also featured will be a "Hit Parade Review," a medley made up of songs which have been in first place over the past few months. Irene Verner, the Northerners' soprano soloist, will sing an old Irish folk song, "Londonderry Air."

Foreign Affairs, a weekly summary of the European situation presented by Clifton Utley, will be aired at 8 p.m.

Jean Abbot is scheduled at 2:30 p.m. with 15 minutes of helpful household and shopping hints.

Radio's Voice, featuring Guy Savage in short informal interviews with the man-on-the-street, will be broadcast at 3 p.m. Guy presents the show each week day at 3 p.m. and on Sundays at 1 p.m. from the outer lobby of the Chicago theater.
